KEITH & PROCTOR'S FIFTH AVENUE THEATRE, NEW YORK, WEEK OF FEBUARY 12TH.

Seldom, if ever, is it possible to see so remarkable an aggregation of distinguished entertainers as will be presented at the 5th Avenue Theatre, February 12th by the famous stars of musical comedy and vaudeville, the mellor-voiced singers Noro Bayes and her husband Jack Norworth, when they appear here in their latest creation of amusement which is called "The Musical Surprise Party." The Bayes and Norworth musical surprise party has won the endorsment of every city in the country, coast to coast as the most-up-to-date and original method of entertainment and absolutely "something new." The second big feature will be Kajiyama the world's famous handwriting expert, presenting his original and the most remarkable feat and method of chirographic art. Every school teacher and student are especially invited to witness this marvellous exhibition. The European instrumentalist Yvette, a young musical genius, who presents a novelty in violin playing, which is said to nsurpass anything of its kind in vaudeville. Vaudeville's foremost comedian, J. C. Nugent and Company presenting his own original oddity "The Squarer", Butler Haviland, and Alice Thornton in the travesty "A Question of Policy" Carbrey Brothers, two of the greatest dancers on the American stage today. Others in the big bill will be Delmore and Oneida, presenting a marvellous aerial exhibition. A treat for the little ones will be Kluting's animals, a wonderful group of Pigeons, cats, dogs, and rabbits; Meyer Brothers, a musical surprise in a form of Tyrolean warblers and the ever popular Pathe Weekly, showing all the latest of world events will complete this unusually large programme.

MORE EVIDENCE IN CAMMORREST TRIAL

NAPLES, Feb. 2—The famous Cammorra trial was transferred yesterday from Viterbo to Bagnoli, where in May, 1906, members of the Cammorra attended a banquet and decided on the execution of Gennaro Cuoccolo, a member of the Cammorra, and his wife who was Cutinelli, a woman whom Cuoccolo had reformed.

The court, jurymen, reporters and the lawyers of both sides paid a visit to a small restaurant which was the scene of the banquet.

An enormous crowd watched the proceedings, the judge went over the dimensions of the room carefully to see whether it would hold forty men and the innkeeper testified that he had never served dinners in his establishment to more than ten persons at a time. The lawyers for the Cammorrists were jubilant over his testimony and over the general result of the visit, and after the proceedings they invited the judge and the members of the jury to a picnic at Posillipo, a village in the Commune of Naples.

MISS TAFT LEADS BEAUTY COTILLON

WASHINGTON, Feb, 1—One of the prettiest social functions of the season was the American Beauty Cotillon given by Richard and Mrs. Reid Rogers last night in honor of their debutante daughter, Miss Elizabeth Reid Rogers. The ballroom had been transformed into a garden of American beauty roses, many of them blooming in the natural bush. Three hundred guests were present including practically the whole ambassadorial and ministerial contingent. Miss Taft and Miss Rogers, with William Marrow and George Howard, led the cotillon. This was Miss Taft's first experience since her debut as cotillon leader and her graceful understanding of her part won much applause.

PARDONED AFTER 18 YEARS IN PRISON.

BOSTON, Feq. 2—The executive council has voted to pardon Walter A. Scott, of Weston, now serving a life sentence for the murder of James P. Slamm, a coachman in Boston, in 1894. Scott has served 18 years in state prison.

His petition was heard by the council of 1911, which did not grant the pardon. At the hearing held this week many persons were present, and a number were ready to give Scott employment.

With one Robert F. West, who is now in prison, Scott joined in the hold-up of a woman. Slamm interferred and was shot, it is said, by West. Scott was arrested as an accessory before the fact. He has an excellent prison record.

RECEPTION FOR LANCESTER.

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., Jan. 31—Arrangements are being made for a reception to E. A. Lancaster by local admirers of his stand on the marriage question, to take place on his next trip to his home here. A banquet in Mr. Lancaster's honor is also likely to follow in Merriton.

Coughs That Hurt

It isn't the ordinary cough resulting from a slight cold settling on the lungs that is most to be feared—it is the dry, hacking cough that hangs on for months without any apparent cause. A chronic irritation is set up in the bronchial tubes and this may involve the lungs.

When you are in good physical condition, with plenty of pure blood, no cough can get much of a hold. Vinol is the common sense treatment for coughs of all kinds because it builds up the body, makes pure, rich blood and strengthens the nervous system. Miss Anna Ray of Bangor, Me., says Vinol cured her of a terrible cough that had lasted for five years. We know of some other very stubborn coughs that Vinol has cured and we are so sure of the value of this delicious cod liver and iron tonic of ours that we refund the money to any customer who is not well pleased with its effects.

WOMAN VOTER FALLS DEAD IN THE BOOTH

SHERBROOKE, Que., Feb. 2—After casting her ballot, in the civic election contest last evening, Mrs. Joseph Lefebvre staggered back from the ballot box and fell dead on the floor of the polling booth.

WAS AGED 117.

LONDON, Feb. 2—Martin Dunne, a farmer, said to have been the oldest man in Ireland, died yesterday at Killeigh, Kings County.

His age was 117 years, six months.

THE ROYAL MOURNING.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2—A London cable says "The five weeks' court mourning for the Duke of Fife ordered by King George, has caused surprise, as it is longer than the period commanded for the Duke of Teck, Queen Mary's father.

"However, the period of mourning ending on March 6 affects only two great official functions—the Thanksgiving service in St. Paul's and the opening of parliament. It will not necessitate the postponement of any courts or interfere with any levee."

GOOD GOVERNMENT LOST IN MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Feb. 1—Alderman L. A. Lavallee, advocate, was today elected mayor of Montreal by a large majority over Ald. George Marcil, real estate dealer.

The referendum vote on the abolition of the property qualification for mayor and aldermen, showed a majority of voters in favor of abolition. This vote, however, can have no effect until the legislature at Quebec passes a bill in accordance with the wishes of the citizens.

In the polling for aldermen, chief interest centred around the wards, ten in number, in which candidates blacklisted by the citizens' association were running. The association had opposed ten candidates, either members of the famous twenty-three of the 1909 council which voted to grant huge contracts to high tenderers for the benefit of middlemen, or men who, since their advent to the council have been classed as reactionaries, opposing the reforms in the government of the city instituted in 1910, following the revelations of the royal commission investigation in municipal affairs.

Despite the opposition of the citizens' association, five of the candidates opposed by them were returned, including ex-Ald. Giroux, leader of the "23," whose defeat they secured in the 1910 election; ex-Ald. Mederic Martin, whose name was prominent in the records of the royal commission, and who also failed to return to the council in 1910; ex-Ald. Seguin, ex-Ald. Lariviere, and ex-Ald. Judge.

A feature of the elections is the return of three more English aldermen to the council than in the last election, those being Stroud, in St. Joseph; McDonald, in Notre Dame De Grace, and Blumenthal in St. Louis. The election of the last named marks a new era in the history of the Jew in Montreal, and his election in St. Louis ward, once the veritable centre of the French quarter, shows how rapidly the Jewish immigrants are becoming a factor in Montreal's civic life.

Ald. Lavallee, the new mayor, has had twelve years experience in civic politics. The chief plank in his platform is the reduction of the city's borrowing power from 15 to 12 per cent of the assessed property value.

The polling was not profitable for the temperance element. They had supported Ald. Marcill for mayor, and in addition to this they lost West ward, where Alderman Carter, who advocated among other things, the abolition of curtains and screen doors in bars; the abolition of the serving of spirituous liquors at civic functions; and a stricter enforcement of the license law, had to hand his seat to ex-Ald. Fraser, of Fraser Viger & Company.
