Notice to Subscribers

On Saturday, January 27th, the Circulation Department was flooded with new and renewal subscriptions. So many came to hand that it will take a full week or more for our staff to catch up with the work.

Advertisers Attention.

When placing your advertising, do you consider circulation? Do you inquire or investigate the circulation of certain newspapers to whom you contribute a share of your advertising appropriation? This is the course taken by all the leading business houses of the Dominion, and why not the same rule apply to any advertiser?

The Guardian furnishes its advertisers with a sworn detailed circulation statement—that is the reason our columns are always full of the best advertising—that is the reason we cannot accept all contracts that are offering—that is the reason why we are forced to issue so many supplements and a sixteen page paper on Saturdays.

The Guardian's sworn daily circulation for 1911—Morning Daily and Rural Daily combined, was copies per day. We are making a desperate effort to establish a new record for 1912, and must admit that we are on the right course. Think the matter over! It's business. Yours truly THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN.

NO "RENUNCIATION" IN CHRISTIANITY

No one gives up nearly as much by living the Christian life as he gives up by rejecting the Christian life. We talk about the costliness of Christian service; it does not compare with the costliness of Satan's service. Whenever we reject Christ and take Satan, and there is no half-way ground between these extremes,—we give up love, joy, peace, power, usefulness, prosperity everything that makes life worth while. When we give Christ the right of way over Satan we win all these things and we give up only the things that make for our own and others' misery and destruction. Let us forever cut loose, for ourselves and for others, from the common talk and Devil-fostered idea
