ERNEST MOONEY DIES FROM INJURIES—Mr. Daniel Ernest Mooney, managing director of the Armstrong Over Co., who was knocked down and injured near his home in York during the black-out last week, died on Saturday night aged 74.

During his association with the Armstrong Over Co. he developed his patents which consisted of lubricating mechanism for heavy machinery and a device which would prevent a boiler from exploding in an emergency. He was also an expert on the lubricating device for most of the high speed rolling stock in this country, including the Silver Jubilee and the Coronation trains.

Mr. Mooney was of a retiring disposition and took no part in public affairs. He was a generous contributor to many charitable funds in an unostentatious way, and as a Roman Catholic he was prominent in the careers of the English Martyrs. He was a widower and had three daughters. (Yorkshire Post).

He was a former resident of Summerside, was a brother of the late Mr. C. J. Curran, who was killed in the war, and was an uncle of Dr. J. E. Corbett (Dentist).

A very pleasant dance was held in the Borden dance hall on Monday evening. Owing to hockey matches, etc., there wasn't a very large attendance but those present had a time with lots of dancing and fun galore. The music for the evening was provided by the Boy Scouts orchestra under the direction of Mr. Joe Kelly. The orchestra have been getting together and putting in a lot of time on musical practice and are to be congratulated on their first appearance before an audience who proclaimed that the boys did just the thing. An orchestra has been a much needed part of our social life here. We have lots of musical talent among our boys and girls and all they need is encouragement and leadership. Many congratulations to Mr. Joe Kelly who is the boys' first director along these lines. Keep up the good work. Those taking part in last night's orchestra were Mr. Joe Kelly, leader and clarinet, Gordon MacTavish, violin, Charles Sexton, guitar, Jack Dalziel, guitar, Raymond MacTavish, piano and Norman MacTavish.

THE WAR THIS WEEK

By Don Gilbert
Canadian Press Cable Editor

Activity in the near east in the 23rd week of the war brought speculation on the possibility of a new front being opened up by spring. Turkey, ally of Great Britain and France, dismissed German technicians from the government service and put Turkish marines in charge of the Krupp shipyards near Istanbul. In Egypt the French and British troops were ordered to disperse and inspected some of the large forces at their disposal. A Greek cabinet minister flew to Egypt on an important mission. Turkey attributed her actions to the discovery of a widespread Nazi sabotage plot under which trains would be derailed and strategic buildings blown up on a signal from Berlin. Another Turkish source put it more subtly, remarking simply: "Spring is coming." In Greece whose defense also is guaranteed by the allies, premier John Metaxas spoke of "the storm that is coming."

A council of war was held in Paris Prime Minister Chamberlain, Premier Daladier, Winston Churchill, and General Gamelin together with the cabinet ministers, the chiefs of staff of the services, reviewed the allied strategy. Later in the week the French Parliament met to discuss the prosecution of the war.

A further contingent of Canadian troops landed in Britain and joined the British Expeditionary Force in training at Aldershot. Canadians were among the large number of British emigrants to the Finnish legation in London for service with the Finnish army against Russia.

Finland denied vigorously the claim of the red army that its troops had captured eight fortifications on the Karelian Isthmus and five elsewhere. The invaders used increasing numbers of troops behind the Finnish lines by parachute and the Finns admitted that some of these had caused considerable damage to the Finnish positions. However, were quickly rounded up and shot.

The interest of the United States in the settlement of Italy following the war was indicated in two developments. First, it was announced that "conversations of an informal character" were in progress with neutral governments regarding a "world-wide reduction of armaments" and a "reduction of the armaments of Italy, France, Germany and Great Britain."

In the war at sea, German raiders succeeded in sinking half a dozen British merchant ships, including the 8,974-ton Beaverburn of Canadian Pacific steamships. Altogether the Germans sank about 35,000 tons of British merchant shipping. An official in London described as neither a bad nor a good week as far as Britain was concerned.

Glancing back 25 years: Movement of the first Canadian division from Salisbury Plain to Avonmouth was started Feb. 7, 1915. The division left the Bristol Channel port for France three days later. Aided troops launched big attacks on the western front to relieve pressure in the east.

Aldershot's parade grounds returned to the tramp of marching Canadians, going through their paces in preparation for grimmer days ahead. Two days ago the English camp were forgotten. Even a stormy three-day voyage round the coast of Brittany failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the men in the first division of the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

Weeks of training under heart-breaking conditions in Salisbury Plain ended. The Canadians embarked at Avonmouth, the port of Bristol, Feb. 8, and succeeded days. The mid-winter weather was English camp were forgotten. ### Freedom FOR YOU AND YOUR FAMILY!

FARM AT TWICE THE SPEED OF HORSES WITH THE ALLIS-CHALMERS MODEL B TRACTOR AND MATCHED IMPLEMENTS

BE MASTER OF YOUR FARM . . . NOT ITS SLAVE!

New . . . Allis-Chalmers brings you a tractor which sets YOU free . . . you and YOUR FAMILY! Free from the hopeless drudgery of "just making a living." The Allis-Chalmers Model B Tractor is PRICED SO LOW that it will pay a profit on any farm. Whether you operate 10 acres or 10,000 acres, you have work that this tractor will do faster, better and at LOWER COST than any other power. The Model B does the work of at least four work animals. You travel at higher speed; operate power take-off implements, haul at 7 1/2 miles an hour, grind feed, fill silo. Why be a slave to your work?

Plowing — The Model B pulls with ease, a two bottom 10' or 12' plow in soil or stubble at twice the speed of horses.

Cultivating — Shown here is a one row cultivator which is attached directly to the frame of tractor.

Harvesting — A full view safety mower for model B is side-mounted in full view of operator. Automatically disengages if you strike an obstruction.

OTHER IMPLEMENTS — A 25 spring tooth harrow at a cost for 600.00. A 4 Hall thresher with blower, tallings elevator and bagger; a binder and any one row elevator digger.

Two Larger Size Models, RC and WC are in our warehouse.

Tignish

On Tuesday evening a bridge party was held in the C. M. B. A. hall put on by the 1st Troop of Tignish Boy Scouts. For two hours bridge, both auction and contract progressed, and there was a Pote Auction, auctioneer, Mr. C. F. Morrysey. During the evening a delicious supper was served by the Scouts. After the Pote Auction which caused a great deal of merriment and anxious looking on the one dollar bill supposed to be hidden in one of the pipes, Rev. J. Trainor distributed the prizes. The Ladies Bridge Prize for 1934 was won by Mrs. John Myrick, and the gentlemen's prize went to Mr. J. B. Morrysey. The Ladies Bridge Prize for auction went to Mrs. O'Brien while the Gentlemen's prize went to Mr. Augustine Gallant. The prize for Cribbage went to Dr. J. A. Johnston. This is to be the last Pote Card party until Easter. The evening was most successful both financially and socially. The proceeds are to go toward the Community Bank expenses.

On Monday night a few friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. Leo Arsenault. The evening was spent in dancing, everybody enjoying themselves, later on in the evening a dainty lunch was served. This was a symbol of the usual Margitras celebrations before Lent. The following night a similar evening was spent at the home of Mr. Peter Gaudet.

Miss Dorothy Morrissey has returned to her home in Tignish after spending several months in Montreal.

Mr. Frank Dorrison School Inspector is now in Tignish inspecting the schools of Tignish, and schools of the surrounding districts.

Miss Lillian Morrissey spent a few days in Summerside on business.

Edison's Old Train Joins Celebration

PORT HURON, Mich., Feb. 9 — Old Sam Hill, famous wood-burning locomotive of the 1850's and the first train to arrive in Port Huron, will arrive in Port Huron at 10 a. m. today, where Edison worked as a telegrapher after he lost his news butcher job, and where he sent messages across St. Clair River by train whistle when the telegraph system failed.

This will be the feature of the Edison memorial celebration arranged for February 10, even of Edison's 83rd birthday which falls on Sunday, February 11.

Another feature of the memorial celebration will be the first showing here of the film "Young Tom Edison," Mickey Rooney, who stars in the picture, will hawk his wares in candy, tobacco and fruits as Edison the boy did when he lived in Port Huron from 1854 to 1864. Aboard the train will be Governor Dickinson of Michigan, Mr. Ford, and other guests. The old train will run under its own power from Detroit to Port Huron and will arrive in Port Huron at 10 a. m. today, where Edison worked as a telegrapher after he lost his news butcher job, and where he sent messages across St. Clair River by train whistle when the telegraph system failed.
