

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

The prompt and positive action of this simple, inexpensive home-made remedy in quickly healing the inflamed or swollen membranes of the throat, chest or bronchial tubes and breaking up tight coughs, has caused it to be used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, pleurisy loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in the throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. You then have 16 ounces—a family supply of a much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and is known the world over for its promptness, ease and certainty in overcoming stubborn coughs and chest colds.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto Ont.

TUESDAY

From a private letter received in this city yesterday it has been learned that five members of the 98th Siege Battery have been decorated with the Military Medal for bravery and efficiency on the battlefield. The gallant lads are:

Signaller Harold H. Simpson, Bay View.

Gunner Ben Conrad, Georgetown.

Gunner George Walker, Charlottetown.

Gunner John Carragher, Charlottetown.

Gunner Wagner of Quebec.

These men were under the command of Lieut. Lawson Jenkins, who is slated for the Military Cross in recognition of valuable services rendered the Empire.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.—Mr. George Ritchie, of the firm of Carvell Bros., is invalided at his home, Elm Ave., with a severe scalp wound and injured shoulder as the result of a runaway accident yesterday at one o'clock. Mr. Ritchie was driving back to his office by way of Pownall Street when the breeching broke, the carriage ran up on the horse's haunches—and he boled. The horse made for the wagon yard and stable of Carvell Bros. and in turning up King st. Mr. Ritchie was thrown out onto the curb and sidewalk striking with great force. His scalp was laid open for several inches and he also received many bruises on the shoulder and head. He was picked up and carried home in Mr. Aitken's automobile. Dr. Carruthers was immediately summoned and the wounds were dressed, the scalp wound requiring several stitches. The horse was uninjured, but was partly company with the wagon when it went through the yard gate. At last report Mr. Ritchie was resting more comfortably though in severe pain.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Miller, Murray Harbor North, was made very sad on Friday, Sept. 21, when the angel of death called away their only child, Etta Lamira, at the tender age of two years and eight months. She had been sick but a few days, and yet from the very first it was feared that human skill could do little to save her life, as her disease was a very bad case of diphtheria. Medical attention did everything possible, and the effort of the doctor was supplemented by the loving care of the parents and the child's grandmother, Mrs. Reid, who had hastened to the stricken home as soon as it was known that diphtheria was there. But the disease could not be mastered, and the little one went away to Jesus to await a glad reunion with the sorrowing ones who miss her in their homes. On Saturday the neighbours gathered near the home as was considered advisable, and there received the little casket from the hands of the heart-broken father and grandfather. The procession to the cemetery was a very sad one, and during the short graveside service many sympathetic tears were shed for those who parted with their darling at the gateway of their home. At the time of this writing, the necessary cleaning precautions have been completed and the quarantine restrictions removed from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, and they are receiving many expressions of deep sympathy from the people of the community who have called.

WEDNESDAY

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.—Evangelist Rev. G. S. K. Anderson has for the past three weeks been conducting a series of meetings at the Hunter River Methodist Church. Though the meetings were held at a time when the nights were very dark and sometimes stormy yet the attendances were large at nearly every meeting, and the interest is growing so intense the evangelist has kindly consulted to remain for the first three nights of this week, good results are being obtained, quite a number, young and old have taken a stand for Christ. His sermons will hold the audience spellbound being pointed and impressive. The evangelist offering presented to him tells his own story of appreciation being $153.00. Mr. Anderson says he will return again when the Church is large enough to hold the people.

CALEDONIAN CLUB ELECTION.—The annual meeting of the Caledonian Club was held last evening. President D. A. McKinnon in the chair. The election of office bearers resulted as follows: Chief, Mr. D. A. McKinnon; President, Mr. Thomas White; 1st. Vice President Mr. James D. Stewart; 2nd. Vice Pres. Mr. James McLean; Treasurer Mr. Alex. McDonald; Financial Secretary Mr. D. R. McLennan; Rec. Secretary, Mr. James McMillan; Cor. Secretary Mr. John McKenzie; Directors, Messrs. W. W. Walker, S. A. McLeod, James McWebster, James Paton, J. W. McMullen, George G. McCormack and David Bethune. A committee was appointed consisting of Col. Stewart, Messrs. Paton, McDonald, Burnett and White to report on the manner in which St. Andrew's Night should be celebrated at an adjourned meeting to be held on November 6th.

WEDDING BELLS.—An extremely pretty wedding took place in the Baptist Church Georgetown on Sept. 25th when Miss Hazel Manuel daughter of Gr. I. Manuel and Manuel of Georgetown, P. E. I., was united in marriage to Mr. Roy Baker of Halifax, Rev. Mr. Hubley officiating. The church was tastefully and beautifully decorated with a profusion of autumn flowers and tiny flower girls preceded the bride as she and her father entered the church to the strains of the wedding march. "The Voice that Breathed Over Eden" was beautifully rendered by the choir. The bride looked charming in a crown of shadow lace and silk, with veil and orange blossoms carrying a beautiful shower bouquet of brides roses and maiden hair fern. After the ceremony a number of the friends gathered at the home of the bride where a very happy evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Baker after a short tour of Nova Scotia will reside in Halifax. The many gifts show the esteem in which the young couple were held and they carry with them the sincere good wishes of their many friends both in Georgetown and in Halifax. Halifax papers please copy.

The Arammore brought over yesterday two splendid Canadians and gallant soldiers in the persons of Lieut. Col. Flowers and Lieut. Col. J. Stanley Bauld, both of Halifax. Colonel Flowers has been a soldier for thirty-four years and is the ideal figure of an infantry officer. He went to France with the 64th Battalion, but was later transferred to the 25th Battalion, the famous Halifax unit that met such a glorious record on the Somme and particularly at Courcellette.

It was at this latter engagement that Col. Flowers was wounded receiving a shrapnel wound that shattered his left shoulder, early on the morning of Sept. 15, 1918. Lieut. Col. J. Stanley Bauld is the hero of the 25th Battalion and one of the outstanding figures in that glorious Canadian victory—Courcellette. He it was who reformed his men and led them on to victory during that engagement, when several other Canadian units were wavering and falling back. Col. Bauld is the idol of the younger Canadian officers and one of the youngest and finest commanders Canada has yet sent to France. He also wears the golden stripe on his cuff, the honor mark of casualties.

Colonel Stanley Bauld is known wherever the Halifax Wanderers have played football or hotkey and with that team has made several trips to this city. Both Colonel Flowers and Colonel Bauld are here in connection with the establishing of a depot here for the training of drafted men. The First Draft Battalion is being organized, at Halifax, with Colonel Flowers in Command and Colonel Bauld, second. A company of this battalion will be quartered in Charlottetown to train and prepare the drafted men for active service. There will be a training staff of officers and non-coms—all of them being men who have seen active service at the front in the present war.

Major F. B. McRae, Chief Instructor in the Canadian Machine Gun School at Shoreham, England, arrived home yesterday on furlough. Major McRae was the first man in the province to enlist in any capacity, and was the first military officer to leave the island to serve in the present war. On the outbreak of the war he was in Boston on business and on August 4th when he learned of Britain's ultimatum to Germany and realizing that it meant war he immediately wired Major Allen at Charlottetown offering his services. He took train immediately for home and as soon as he could get a detachment together accompanied them to Quebec en route for England. In England his genius in military matters was soon recognized and much against his will he was kept there for instructional work, the authorities considering his services in that capacity more necessary than at the front. During his stay in England he invented several devices in munitions which were utilized by the military authorities. About a year ago he was promoted from a lieutenant to the rank of Major. He is a born soldier, a veteran of the South African war and one who, although denied the privilege of taking part in the present war at the front, has distinguished himself in the training of others. His furlough at home is but a short one but his many friends are delighted to see him even for this brief stay. On arrival yesterday he left at once for his home in Pownall.

REV. MR. MCINTOSH DEAD.—A letter from Miss Mabel McIntosh of Calgary to a lady friend in Souris conveyed the sad intelligence that her father, Rev. D. D. McIntosh, passed away on Sept. 1st. He was for some years the esteemed pastor of the Souris and Bay Fortune Congregations. After a very successful ministry in these congregations he resigned his charges, having received a call from the congregation of Kenaley, Sask., where he laboured with much success till attacked by the deadly malady which eventually claimed him for its victim. He fought the disease bravely for a year and a half, preaching occasionally in congregations adjoining Calgary, to which he removed when his sickness assumed a serious form, but at last he had to succumb to the last enemy. Mr. McIntosh suffered most intensely at times, but during the last few days of his life was granted a period of comparative calm. He was buried at Calgary at his own request, this desire was in keeping with the spirit of the men who loved largeness, fulness and freedom—such as exists in the great North West. He was a man of a remarkable unselfish and cheerful disposition in fact so cheerful was he during his last days that his friends entertained some hope that he might be spared much longer. During his life he was always optimistic. No discouraging circumstances seemed to daunt him. His Christian deportment and uniform kindness secured him a place in the affections of the people to whom he ministered that will not soon be effaced. The Presbytery to which he belonged conducted the services on day of burial, and the order of Free Masons to which he belonged conducted their impressive service at the grave. Mrs. McIntosh (nee Miss Fraser) will reside at Calgary where Miss McIntosh is a teacher in the High School. Mrs. and Miss McIntosh are the sole survivors. "God buries his workmen but continues his work."

The first of a series of campaign meetings in the by-election for St. Peter's took place at Monticello on Monday evening. Mr. Hugh E. McPhee of Selkirk presided and in addition to the candidates, Dr. McDonald and Mr. McIntyre, the speakers were Premier Arsenault, Mr. J. H. Bell, him effectively showed up the misrepresentations. Premier Arsenault in the course of a conciliatory address, dealt at considerable length with financial matters. He said the Province never had had enough money and conceded that the Liberals had not sufficient to run the affairs of the province satisfactorily. But while admitting this he blamed them for not making an honest effort to get the revenue as they had the same means as were at the disposal of the Conservative Government. If the Conservative Government had done nothing else they

Mr. J. J. Johnston, Hon. H. D. McEwen, Mr. James McIsaac and Mr. R. N. Cox.

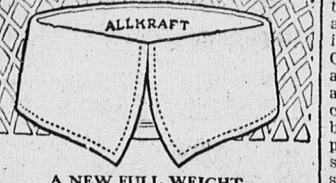

The meeting was large, very orderly and all the speakers received a good hearing. Both candidates made a favorable impression for new comers. Dr. McDonald is a very fluent speaker and gives promise if elected the legislative of the ablest debaters in the legislature. The Liberal speeches consisted of a good deal of the rehash of the last campaign. Mr. Bell spent the best part of his time in misrepresenting Dr. Goodwill and the Falconwood Independent, but Mr. McIsaac who followed should at least be appreciated for putting the province on sound financial basis. He showed the difficulty the Government was laboring under in having less revenue now than before the war, while the cost of carrying on the public service had very considerably increased. Notwithstanding all this he hoped the Government would be able to pull through the war without sinking the province further into the debt. Dr. McDonald in a graceful speech proposed a vote of thanks to the chairman which was seconded by Mr. McIntyre and unanimously carried.

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the other discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost very little, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out with out pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

Whipping a Tired Horse Does Not Give Him Strength

YOU may whip a tired horse so that he will win a race or get his load over a bad spot in the road, but that does not add to his strength. In reality it further depletes his reserve of strength and leaves him exhausted.

Neither Do Stimulants Restore the Tired, Worn-out Nerves any relief with the new method of reconstructing the starved and depleted nerve cells.

A little patience is required to follow out this building-up process, but this is the only way in which disease of the nerves can be really cured. The nerves are starved for proper nourishment. You supply the nutrition in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The results are certain, because you are working hand in hand with Nature.

As strength is restored the appetite is sharpened, digestion improves, you get the good of the food you eat, headaches disappear, you find yourself gaining in confidence, in vigor and in energy. You begin to have new ambitions, to enjoy your work and to feel again that life is really worth living.

And so it is with the nerves of the human body. You may by use of stimulants accomplish the work in hand or by deadening the nerves with narcotics you may stop the headaches.

Any temporary relief obtained is won at an enormous expense to the nervous system and you are left more exhausted than ever.

The introduction of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was revolutionary in the treatment of nervous diseases, because it replaced the old idea of obtaining tempo-

The Food Cure

Mrs. A. North, Grand Street North, Bramford, Ont., writes: "Both my husband and I can speak very highly of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, having used it with splendid results. My husband suffered from weakness and a run-down system, and became so bad he finally had to give up work. He also had spells of melancholia. He commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after a treatment of this medicine I never saw such a change in anybody. He is now able to attend to his work, and is enjoying splendid health."

"Before I started taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was troubled with nervousness, sleeplessness and a pain around the heart. The Nerve Food built up my system, made me feel stronger in every way, and relieved me of the annoying symptoms from which I had suffered. We always keep Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in the house ready for use in case it is needed."
