ALL HOME-GROWN TOBACCO USED

Only 30 per cent of the leaf used in the manufacture of tobacco in Canada in 1938 was Canadian-grown, but, as a result of the improvement in the quality of tobacco grown in Canada through the research and practical work of the Tobacco Division, Dominion Experimental Farms Service, 92 per cent of Canadian leaf was used in 1940. In 1942 it is stated that 100 per cent of the tobacco manufactured in Canada was home grown. This means that a very substantial increase in revenue has been secured for the 7,000 farmers in Canada engaged in the production of tobacco, as will as much greater prosperity for the tobacco growing districts.

In 1940 the gross sale value of tobacco in Canada amounted to $108,471,000, of which $59,346 was collected in excise duties and taxes. The Tobacco Division, to which the great improvement of Canadian tobacco is mainly due, is the only institute in Canada where investigational work is conducted with this crop. Dr. N. A. McRae of the Division is Technical Advisor to the Tobacco Administrator under the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The Tobacco Division also provides information to the Bureau of Statistics in regard to acreages, yields and quality of the various classes of tobacco produced in Canada.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The service of morning worship was observed at 11 a.m There was sermon by the Rev. Ronald Noble whose subject was "The Second Mile" drawing his thought from the words of Jesus as told by Saint Matthew "and whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain." There are realists who discover difficulties in the words of Jesus in the great sermon on the mount wherein these words occur. Herein an enlightened conscience and consecrated judgment must be our light upon the way. Not to destroy the law, said Jesus but to fulfil, to go farther. Our standards and ideals must be higher than the minimum of law. The second mile is an ideal of a full life an unselfish service, an unwithholding accomplishment. The privilege of generosity begins where compulsion ends. The second mile says something to us about democracy whose genius lies in service freely granted not coerced. Christianity is not a system of demands and rules, it is a spirit of loyalty, faith, love and service to our Lord Jesus Christ. The great part of truly christian living is that residue that is beyond law and compulsion. The morning anthem was Palestrina's "Come Holy Ghost." The Church School with large attendance met at 2.40 p.m. for its session of Bible Study.

Evening worship was observed at 7 p.m. with sermon "Self Fulfilment." The anthem was Sullivan's "Turn Thy Face from my Sins." LAC Stan Beard sang with fine expression 'Open the Gates of the Temple"

THE FIREMAN

CHARLES MCNALLY, Canadian National Railways' fireman, is the subject of this sketch by Grant Macdonald, one of a series depicting the wartime activities of Canada's railway workers. The artist shows McNally on the locomotive tender handling the water spout. Tenders of modern locomotives have a capacity of 11,600 gallons of water and 18 tons of coal. In a single year Canadian National engines in wartime traffic operate an aggregate of 88,000,000 miles, equivalent to 183 round trips between the earth and the moon.

JUTE SUBSTITUTES

Five-ply bags of paper in place of jute are now in use for packing sugar in Cuba. The inner sheets of the bags are impregnated with an asphaltic solution to waterproof them and increase resistance. They withstand the severest treatment in handling and transportation. Under tests the bags have proved immune to rats while other bags were destroyed and the sugar consumed.

The fibre of the plant Malve Blanca which grows wild in Venezuela and Cuba is claimed to be a good substitute for jute and can be made into bags. As the result of experiments which have shown the commercial possibilities of this fibre, the Cuba Government has completed plans for the erection of a factory capable of producing 6,000,000 bags annually.

Some Answers to Wartime Cake Problems

Who said "NO CAKE?"

You can make wartime cakes that are just about as fine cakes as you ever baked—in spite of some difficulties over ingredients like shortening or sugar or eggs. It's all a matter of the right recipes, carefully followed, with good ingredients.

The Question of Butter

You have your choice of three ways of reducing the amount of butter you use in cake-baking—or of eliminating butter entirely, if you wish.

1. Wherever the recipe calls for butter, use half butter and half some other kind of shortening.

2. Use some other shortening entirely in place of the butter called for in the recipe. This can be done with all Swans Down Cake Flour recipes.

3. Make some of the many wonderful Swans Down Cakes which call for no shortening of any kind! Here's one you can try.

Champion Sponge Cake

1¼ cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
1¼ teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
4 egg yolks
¼ teaspoon salt
1¼ cups sugar
4 egg whites
1 teaspoon vanilla
⅓ cup boiling water

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Add lemon rind to egg yolks and beat until thick and light. Add ½ cup sugar gradually, beating constantly. Beat egg whites until light and foamy throughout; add remaining ¾ cup of sugar very gradually and continue beating until stiff enough to hold up in definite, satiny peaks. Add vanilla. Add boiling water to egg yolks, stirring well; then add flour all at once and beat with spoon until smooth. Fold quickly into egg whites. Turn into ungreased 9-inch tube pan and bake in slow oven (325°F.) 1 hour, or until done. Invert pan 1 hour, or until cold.

What About the Sweetener?

The three usual sweeteners for cakes—sugar, corn syrup or honey—are all a bit of a problem these days. But there are Swans Down recipes that call for very little sugar—others that use part sugar and part syrup or honey—others that use all syrup or honey. Here's one fine example—a light, tempting layer cake, using only 4 tablespoonfuls of shortening and only one egg.

One-Egg Cake

2 cups Swans Down Cake Flour
2 teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder
4 tablespoons butter or other shortening
1 egg, unbeaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
¾ teaspoon salt
¾ cup milk
1 cup sugar*

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt and sift together three times. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually and cream together well. Add egg and beat very thoroughly. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Bake in two greased 8-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375°F.) 25 minutes.

*If substituting corn syrup or honey, use 1 cup and decrease milk to ½ cup. Or use ½ cup of syrup and ½ cup of sugar; decrease milk to ½ cup and 1 tablespoon.

There are several wartime ways you can serve this cake. Spread jam between the layers. Or ice with your favorite icing if you have the sugar to spare. Or there's a sugarless recipe on the Baker's Chocolate wrapper for a luscious chocolate frosting.

For Better Cakes

Made from soft wheat grown in one particular part of Canada, Swans Down is a special cake flour that makes better baking easy. The choicest part of the wheat is selected, milled by Swans Down "Controlled Milling", then sifted again and again through silk, until 27 times as fine as ordinary flour.

Eggs a Bit Scarce?

Many women think that it takes a lot of eggs to make a light, tender cake. But not if you use Swans Down Cake Flour. One of the special features of Swans Down is that it responds so wonderfully in quite simple recipes. You can make splendid Swans Down Cakes with only one or two eggs—even with no eggs. Try this eggless chocolate cake. Its lightness and tenderness will amaze you. But, of course, no ordinary flour could give such results.

Eggless Chocolate Cake

2 squares Baker's Unsweetened Chocolate
1¾ cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
1 cup milk
¾ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening
¾ teaspoon soda
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine chocolate and milk in top of double boiler and cook over rapidly boiling water 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Blend with rotary egg beater; cool. Sift flour once, measure, add soda, salt and sugar and sift together three times. Cream shortening, add flour mixture, vanilla, and chocolate mixture, and stir until all flour is dampened. Then beat vigorously 1 minute. Bake in two greased and lightly floured 8-inch pans in moderate oven (375°F.) 20 minutes.
