EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.—Every night this week at the Central Christian Church. Fifteen minutes address at each meeting. The public is cordially invited. Good singing, solos, etc. These meetings will last one week only.

ANYTHING intended to remind or to keep in remembrance what is past should at least be pleasing. A stone or in fact any permanent object serving to remind one of the bright lives of those departed should be freed from mournful epitaphs and the production of poor workmanship. Believing that only the best should be used in a monument erected to the memory of the dead Mr. E. F. Purdy with his years of experience has entirely eliminated all possible appearance of antiquated designs and has only in stock the production of care and experience. Upon enquiry THE GUARDIAN learns that at the present time ten hands are employed in the works in order to keep abreast of the firm's large and increasing business. In the show rooms is to be found a large number of monuments all ready for lettering. Many of the designs shown are magnificent productions being personally selected for the trade of the province. Perhaps in this connection it would be well to mention the one which shows mountain scenery and which is considered by those who have had the pleasure of looking at it as one of the most beautiful pieces of marble ever imported to this province. In going through the works the writer was shown a large quantity of building material and upon enquiry learned that it is the intention of Mr. Purdy to erect a new building which will give sufficient space for the proper extension of all departments, especially the show rooms.

LITTLE YORK NOTES.—The Division of the Sons of Temperance in this place held an entertainment in the Public hall, on Wednesday evening which, despite the bad travelling was quite well attended. The affair passed off well and was much appreciated by the audience. The Rev. T. Hicks occupied the chair, and the program as follows consisted of admirable readings and recitations interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. Address, Rev. T. Hicks; Instrumental Music, Waves of the Ocean, Gallop by Miss Jean Henderson; Solo, Don't Send Her Away, Miss Larkins; Recitation, Ella Crockett; Instrumental Music, Ambros Mellett; Dialogue, Taking the Census, Miss Nettie Deacon, Captain Crockett and three boys; Recitation, Wyatt Crockett; Recitation, Ballad of the Sands, Miss Larkins; Song, The Butterfly, Ambrose Mellett; Instrumental Music by Miss Henderson; Reading Captain George Crockett; Recitation, Miss Aggie Vessey, and a song Way Down in Tennessee, by Miss Larkins. Mrs. Hicks and Miss Henderson played the accompaniments. Hearty votes of thanks were passed at the close to all the participants for the literary and musical treat they furnished. The solos and recitations of Miss Larkins, of Tarnish, gave real pleasure and evoked hearty applause. And, while we are speaking words of praise we may say that our local talent appeared to advantage.—The Methodist Mission Band on Friday evening of last week gave an enjoyable entertainment which was highly appreciated by all who attended. Nearly ten dollars were realized. The choir of the church furnished excellent selections of sacred song and the young folks recited finely. Refreshments were furnished at the close.—Elwin Deacon, and Archie Vessey left (Thursday) for the North West.

Pimples, blotches and all other spring troubles are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla—the most effective of all spring medicines.

FOR THE GRIP.

You Have Heard of Many Remedies Did You Ever Try This One.

Eye body you meet on the streets nowadays either has just had the grip, is coming down with it or has a sure cure for it.

The disease has been a puzzle to physicians ever since its appearance several years ago and it is as much of a puzzle today as it was then. It exhibits such a variety of symptoms in different individuals and leaves such disastrous results after apparent recovery, that as yet its prevention and cure has baffled medical science.

However there is no doubt but that the grip is catarrhal in character and the symptom in nearly every case is increased secretion in the head and throat, in fact the first indications of la grippe are those of a cold in the head which extends to the throat and lungs.

Dr. Johnson Ames advises as the safest course to pursue on the first appearance of grip symptoms to take Stuart's Catarrh Tablets every hour the first day and every and every two hours the following day and state that this will break up the trouble before it becomes deep seated.

These catarrh tablets are antiseptic and harmless and prevent fever and the further development of grip germs, and wards off the ever present danger of pneumonia.

Dr. Gerald Simpson says: I have found Stuart's Catarrh Tablets a pleasant and thoroughly reliable remedy for the grip, especially with elderly people with whom this prevailing disease is always dangerous the tablets can be found at any drug store and if used freely during the first few days of the attack will break it up.

La grippe is a catarrhal affection the germs are in the air and no one is proof against it but the timely use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets will prevent any serious results.
