

MAGIC BAKING POWDER

MADE IN CANADA

WHITEST, LIGHTEST

CONTAINS NO ALUM

Magic Baking Powder is scientifically made and has never failed to give the maximum leavening efficiency. Because of this and the uniformly satisfactory results obtained by its use, we recommend it as Canada's perfect baking powder.

E. W. GILLET COMPANY LIMITED
WINNIPEG TORONTO MONTREAL

THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

FLOOR OILCLOTH, 39c per yard Curran scum loc per yard. Ives & Murdock, Ltd. 11446 4 19 21

WANTED ONE HUNDRED boys, all ages, to buy our Kloth Glad suits. Ives & Murdock, Ltd. 11446 4 19 31

GET YOUR WALL PAPER catalogue, and save money. Ives & Murdock, Ltd. 11446 4 19 101

LOT 40 NOTES. The item appearing Feb. 6th to the effect that "Mr. George James of McGill paid a flying visit to Dundee where he was the honored guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deagle", is incorrect.

W.G.Y. Program

General Electric Company
Schenectady, N. Y.
Eastern Standard Time

WG.Y. will broadcast the music and speeches of the annual dinner of St. George's Society of Albany, N. Y., Monday evening, April 23. The principal speaker will be Captain Kilroy Harris, D.S.O., M.C. (two bars), F.R.G.S., F.R.C.I. Captain Harris was king's messenger and following injuries received during the war he was appointed official war lecturer for the British and United States governments.

Sunday, April 22, WG.Y. will broadcast the morning and evening services of the Second Presbyterian Church of Amsterdam, N. Y., in the afternoon at 4 o'clock the WG.Y. Symphony Orchestra will give a program assisted by William Demorest, boy soprano.

William DeMille's play "Strongheart" will be produced Tuesday evening, April 24, by the WG.Y. Players, headed by Edward H. Smith.

Wednesday evening is "Silent Night" at WG.Y. and the following night the American Locomotive Company Band will give a concert. The Commercial Bank Club of Albany will entertain from the General Electric Station, Friday night, April 27. The program will consist of orchestral numbers, quartet and solo selections. Saturday night from 9 to 11 o'clock Cain's Castle Orchestra will play.

Wednesday evening is "Silent Night" at WG.Y. and the following night the American Locomotive Company Band will give a concert. The Commercial Bank Club of Albany will entertain from the General Electric Station, Friday night, April 27. The program will consist of orchestral numbers, quartet and solo selections. Saturday night from 9 to 11 o'clock Cain's Castle Orchestra will play.

SUNDAY, APRIL 22.
WG.Y. (Schenectady, N. Y.)
General Electric Company.

10.30 a.m.—Service of Second Presbyterian Church, Amsterdam, N. Y.

Prelude, "Cavatina"..... Raff
Edward L. Wilson, violinist;
George Dunham, cellist; Edgar B. Smith, organist.

Opening sentence, Mrs. Fred J. Goetz, soprano; Mrs. Cynthia Vink, contralto; William Fay, tenor; James E. Aiken, bass.

Tenor solo, "He will Swallow Up Death in Victory"..... Huhn
William Fay

(With violin and cello obligato)
Offertory, "O For the Wings of a Dove"..... Mendelssohn
Soprano recitative and Aria from Sacred Cantata, "Hear My Prayer".....

Mrs. Fred Goetz and Quartet (Assisted by Mrs. James B. Conant)
Intermezzo, "Romance" Rubinstein
Violin, cello and organ

Sermon, by Rev. Frank T. Rhoad.
Postlude, "Processional in G"..... Whiting

4.00 p.m.—Symphony concert.
Tone poem, "Finlandia"..... Sibelius
WG.Y. Symphony Orchestra
Boy soprano solo, "The Swallows"
By soprano solo, Dell'Acqua

William Demorest
Mrs. K. Chamberlayne, accompanist.
Novellette, "In Birdland" Zamecnik
Orchestra

Boy soprano solo, "Sunlight Waltz"
William Demorest
Opera excerpts, Melodies from "Lucia li Lammermoor"..... Donizetti
Orchestra

Boy soprano soli, "Il Bacio" Arditi
William Demorest
Orchestral symphony, "Surprise"
Symphony, No. 6, in G Major
Haydn Adagio Cantabile and Vivace Assai.
Orchestra

7.30 p.m.—Service of Second Presbyterian Church, Amsterdam, N. Y.

Prelude, "Melodie in A Major"..... Rudol
Edward L. Wilson, violinist;
George Dunham, cellist; and Edgar B. Smith, organist.

Anthem, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee"..... Schaecker
Second Presbyterian Church Quartet.
(With Violin and cello obligato)
Offertory, "On the Cross" Broome
Quartet, with soprano and tenor solos
(Violin and cello obligato)
Intermezzo, "Prelude in C Sharp Minor"..... Rachmaninoff
Violin, cello, timpani and organ
Leonard Slattery, timpani
Sermon, by Rev. Frank H. Rhoad
Postlude, "Cortège Recessional"..... Ferrata

LEAVES $250 LEGACY TO BUY MAGIC LANTERN

PORT HOPE, April 19.—The late Adam Senogale, merchant Colbourg, left an estate of $80,509. It comprises jewelry, $75, stock in trade, $9,897, book debts and promissory notes $6,000, insurance $11,500, stocks, $15,489, cash in hand $11,399, lots 511 and 512 in Colborne $6,000 and a lot in Edmonton $200.

The will, dated 27th September, 1921, gives $250 for a suitable mag-

MEN'S AND YOUNG Men's suits, all sizes and prices. Hats caps, shirts, etc. at Ives & Murdock's Ltd. 11446 4 19 31

OH MARY! Why where did you get the lovely paper? Isn't that room handsome. Picked it from Ives & Murdock's catalogue, and they sent it via mail, you know the roads are so bad Tom couldn't get over. Where's the catalogue, I want to send for some too. 11446 4 19 31

NEW GINGHAMS, Chambrays, voiles, crepes, homespuns, ratines, etc., just arrived, you must see them to appreciate the values shown. Ives & Murdock, Ltd. 1147 4 19 31

Institute Meetings

MONTHLY REPORT OF WOMEN'S INSTITUTES OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

New Perth.—The annual meeting of this Club was held at the home of Mrs. George Martin on April 4. Thirteen members and one visitor were present. The meeting opened with the singing of the Ode, followed by the reading of the minutes of last annual meeting. The report of the Sec. Treasurer was as follows: Total receipts for the year $147.30. This was raised by a play by the Tuxis Boys, ice-cream social, supper and bazaar. The total expenditure, $126.97. A pump was installed in the school, new desks were supplied, also blinds and pictures. Equipment for the hot school lunch was also provided, and $8.00 spent for the Christmas Tree. Two presentations of gifts were made to members during the year. The following officers were appointed: Pres., Mrs. Alex. Hamilton; vice-pres., Mrs. Frank Seagar; sec. treas., Mrs. Stewart MacLaren; directors, Mrs. C. H. McNeill, Mrs. Wm. Cain, Mrs. Wm. Cain and Mrs. G. R. McLaren; delegates to the annual convention, Mrs. Alex. Hamilton and Mrs. Frank Seagar. Some plans for cleaning and making repairs to the school-room were discussed. At the close of the meeting a pleasant social hour was spent.

Central Royalty: The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Major McRae on April 5. Nine members and two visitors were present. After the reading and adoption of the minutes of last annual meeting the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Murray River. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Lester Brehaut, on April 10. There were thirty-one members present. After the singing of the Ode, roll call was responded to by suggestions for early gardening. The report of the president for the year was given. Twelve regular and special meetings were held with an average attendance of thirty-two members. The Sick and School committees have done excellent work. In June a map of Prince Edward Island was presented to the Primary department of the Murray River school, and nine prizes (books) to the leading pupils in each grade. Three dollars was given to one of the trustees of the Dover school to be divided among the pupils making the highest marks. A cheque for $48.00 was given the trustees of Dover school to buy new desks. A box of cakes was forwarded to the Hospital Bazaar which was held Exhibition week, and about five dozen jars of preserves and pickles were sent to the hospital. A bazaar and sale of home cookery was held which added considerably to the institute funds, also a sale of aprons and home cookery. Two boxes of clothing were forwarded to St. Herbert Orphanage. The financial report is as follows: Total receipts, $207.11; total expenditures, $130.28.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports. During the year twelve regular meetings and one special were held with an average attendance of fourteen, and a total of sixteen. Seven addresses were given during the year and two demonstrations. At this meeting it was moved, and seconded, that a vote of thanks be rendered the Misses Walker and all those who took part in the program at the parlor social, also Mr. Barry who so ably assisted, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Roper for the use of their beautiful home. The secretary-treasurer's report was then given. Total receipts: $331.03, raised by the holding of a Festival, Bazaar and Parlor Society and the serving of lunch at the School Fair. Expenditures: $149.73. Prizes were given to the school children, flowers were bought for the sick, a gift was given to a member who was leaving the district, and a donation was made to the Mrs. Stewart Fund. The members feel that much has been accomplished which cannot be counted in dollars and cents, and it has been felt that the social intercourse has proved a great benefit to all. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alex. Agnew. Roll call will be responded to by the giving of quotations.

reports of the year's work. During the year the efforts of the Club were directed chiefly to school-improvement work. As often as possible the school has been scrubbed and cleaned. The desks were varnished and pictures supplied. During the Christmas holidays a blackboard was moved from over a window and placed on the opposite wall. The seating of the room was then changed so that the pupils would not have to face the light. A Christmas Tree was also provided for the school children. At this program was arranged by the school and members of the Institute, the proceeds resulting from a small fee charged for admission were used to buy a globe for the school. During the year the secretary-treasurer reported that $58.85 was raised, and $36.99 expended. The officers appointed for the ensuing year are as follows: Pres., Mrs. J. J. Frizell; vice-pres., Mrs. Melville Johnson; sec. treas., Miss Amy Moyle; directors, Mrs. Albert Wright, Mrs. Andrew Jardine and Miss Louise Schurman; auditors, Mrs. Wm. Callbeck and Mrs. Earle Leard; delegates to the annual convention, Miss Louise Schurman and Miss Florrie Green.

Spring Park. The regular meeting of this Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Osborne Groom on March 22. Thirteen members and one visitor were present. The meeting opened with the singing of the Ode. The Sick Committee reported that several visits had been made, and the School Committee reported a leak in the school roof. The secretary was instructed to report this to the Trustees. The secretary reported that letters of sympathy had been sent to three of the members who had recently been bereaved. The next meeting which will be the annual meeting will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. A. Cairns. A supervisor will be present and give a demonstration. Reports of the year's work will be given, and new officers will be elected. A good attendance is looked for at this meeting.

Willow Workers. The annual meeting of this Club was held at the home of Mrs. Earle Leard, Searletown, on April 4. Six members and one visitor were present. After the usual opening the reports of the year's work were given. The secretary-treasurer reported that $202.83 had been raised by collections, ice cream socials and a bazaar, a bean supper and a donation from the school. Expenditures were $114.40. A fence was placed around the school grounds, the interior of the school was repaired and painted. The following officers were appointed for the ensuing year: Pres., Mrs. L. W. Trueman; vice-pres., Mrs. Jas. McQuarrie; sec. treas., Mrs. Hudson Lowther; directors, Mrs. Major Lowther, Mrs. Geo. Burns and Mrs. William Trainor; auditors, Mrs. Earle Leard and Mrs. Henry Callbeck; delegates to convention, Mrs. Henry Callbeck and Mrs. Hudson Lowther. The committee reported that the concert would be postponed on account of sickness. An interesting paper "Kitchen Wrinkles" was read by Mrs. Earle Leard. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Percy Allen.

Murray River. The annual meeting of this Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Lester Brehaut, on April 10. There were thirty-one members present. After the singing of the Ode, roll call was responded to by suggestions for early gardening. The report of the president for the year was given. Twelve regular and special meetings were held with an average attendance of thirty-two members. The Sick and School committees have done excellent work. In June a map of Prince Edward Island was presented to the Primary department of the Murray River school, and nine prizes (books) to the leading pupils in each grade. Three dollars was given to one of the trustees of the Dover school to be divided among the pupils making the highest marks. A cheque for $48.00 was given the trustees of Dover school to buy new desks. A box of cakes was forwarded to the Hospital Bazaar which was held Exhibition week, and about five dozen jars of preserves and pickles were sent to the hospital. A bazaar and sale of home cookery was held which added considerably to the institute funds, also a sale of aprons and home cookery. Two boxes of clothing were forwarded to St. Herbert Orphanage. The financial report is as follows: Total receipts, $207.11; total expenditures, $130.28.

Central Bodeque. The annual meeting of this institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Callbeck on April 2nd. Twelve members and four visitors were present. After the usual opening the president and secretary-treasurer gave their reports.