Will Scrap "Sam Browns"

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—The Chicago police department is going to junk its snappy Sam Brown belts for good and sufficient reason, to wit: Two husky bluecoats hastened to quell a Communist demonstration. A feminine demonstrator spied them, grabbed their fancy belts and held them back to back, helpless, until all her cohorts escaped. "The same Brown belts must go," said Police Commissioner John H. Alcock. "They seem to function for policemen just like harness does for horses."

Fish Catches Reviewed For The Year 1930

The total market value of the fisheries of the Province this season will be in the vicinity of $1,200,000, according to Mr. S. T. Gallant, Supervisor of Fisheries. The following detailed comment by Mr. Gallant will be read with interest: Herring: The catch and value will be about the same as last year. Cod: There is an increase in the catch and an increase in the market value. Officers of the Department have been giving instructions to the fishermen in the proper method of preparing fish for the market and, as a result, better prices have been received. Lobsters: There was a large increase in the catch, but on account of the low prices prevailing both for the canned and live product, the market value will not be any greater than last year. Smelts: Gill-net fishing was a failure this season the catch being the smallest for years. Egg-net fishing, however, has had a good beginning in East, West and Vernon rivers good catches are reported. The total catch will be below that of last year. Mackerel: The catch with hook and line has been good especially in Kings County. The demand is poor, however, and the market value will be below that of last year. Quahaugs: The Earle Fishers had a big increase in their pack this season, and on account of the good quality of their goods, had a ready market for them and good prices were received. Oysters: The catch for East, West, Vernon, Seal and Orwell rivers is about the same as last year with small prices prevailing. For the first time since 1915 some oyster fishing has been carried on on the famous beds in the Narrows, Blanford Bay, a tributary to Richmond Bay, will also give a good account of itself next year as it is the intention of the Department to open this area for fishing for a short time next fall. Oysters also show signs of recovering in Grand River. Following is the total catch of fish in the Province from January 1, 1930, to and including November 30, 1930: Values Quoted Paid at Boat Side.

The idea of standing together, of buying and selling co-operatively, of learning to reach for markets through an improved product, has taken hold and is here to stay. Some time in the new year a bi-

NO THIRD PARTY IN THE STATES

By Ken Clark, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 28.—After a week of uneasiness in Republican and Democratic circles, Washington has settled down in the firm belief that there is not going to be any third party. Thursday and Friday the press wires hummed with the invitation of Professor John Dewey, eminent philosopher and leader of the league for independent political action, to George W. Norris, radical Senator from Nebraska, to get out of the Republican Party and join a new Liberal organization. Senator Norris said he would not. He said under the present system of electing a President through the Electoral College, an independent or third party candidate for the White House stood no chance and he would devote his energies as a Republican Senator toward the abolishment of the Electoral College.

All Hope For Doren And Crew Is Abandoned

Opinion Is That Derelict Schooner Could Not Withstand The Storm's Violence On Saturday.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 28.—Hope for the safety of Capt. T. E. Kirk and his crew of six waned today as no word of the derelict schooner Doren came from a turbulent sea. Water-front opinion, as yesterday's north-east gale reached a velocity upwards of seventy miles an hour, was that the steel vessel, weakened by years of idleness at St. Pierre, stripped of engines and most of her rigging, could not withstand the storm's violence. To enhance the privation of her crew, if the Doren is still afloat, the gale was accompanied by the heaviest snowfall in years. The Doren, in tow for Halifax from St. Pierre for reconditioning, broke loose from the steamer Constance late on Tuesday, when a 10 inch hawser parted, sixteen miles east south east of this port. The vessel, it is believed, carried no navigation instruments and the supply of food was scant. When the Constance lost sight of her, Captain Kirk and his crew had raised headsails.

EARLY MORNING DISPATCH FIGHTING LOSING BATTLE

PARIS, Dec. 28.—Marshal Joffre, hero of the first battle of the Marne, tonight was fighting a losing battle against death. The 78 year old general soldier lapsed into a coma this evening said a member of his staff, who declared all hope of recovery was virtually abandoned. At 4.30 p. m. Doctors Leriche and Boulin declared his condition remained "stationary," but an official communique a few hours earlier said the patient was slowly weakening. In their usual guarded manner they admitted a slight improvement that had set in this morning had not been maintained. The morning bulletin had caused hope to be revived among prominent Frenchmen and members of the diplomatic service, who called at the hospital St. Jean-de-Dieu. But as the day wore on and the more alarming bulletins were issued in the afternoon, late visitors emerged from the clinic with sad faces from which all hope had fled. LATER

Tamer Is Mauled By Bengal Tigers

MAY LOSE LIFE AS RESULT OF WOUNDING BY SIX
PARIS, Dec. 28.—A French lion tamer who yesterday during a circus rehearsal at Toulouse became the prey of six ferocious Bengal tigers was in a critical condition last night in a hospital. The tamer, named Warnick, entered the cage with the tigers, which he had always been able to control, but the largest and most powerful on this occasion, leaped upon him from behind and clawed and felled him. Immediately all six beasts were upon him. When his assistants succeeded in driving off the animals, the tamer was found to be unconscious and badly wounded. It was the first time in his career of training wild beasts that he had ever suffered a serious wound.
