GOOD ICE FOR RACES.—As the ice is in splendid condition a number of the sporting fraternity will hold a series of horse races at Apple Tree Wharf next Saturday afternoon, two o'clock, when it is expected a large number of horses will compete.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The sudden death of Mr. Thomas Williams a respected resident of Mount Pleasant is announced. No particulars have been received. His brother, Dr. W. E. Williams of Montreal was notified and is coming home for the funeral.

RECRUITING MEETING.—The meeting of McDonald Institute, Monday evening, was very poorly attended there being only about 35 persons present. The speakers were the Rev. Canon Simpson, chairman; Rev. J. J. Macdonald and the Rev. Mr. Freeman. No recruits were obtained. It is evident that in many sections of the province the people take no interest in the Defence of the Empire, and only endure the address of the speaker on this subject, when they are interspersed with songs and step dances.

VALUABLE ANIMAL.—Mr. A. Roy Jones, Hazelbrook, brought to the city yesterday a Holstein bull 4 years old, which tipped the scales at 2130, for which he received in the vicinity of $1700. Mr. Harry Jenkins was the buyer.

THE MAILS.—The mails crossed both ways at the Capes yesterday. The boats leaving Cape Traverse had 48 sacks of mail. There was no mail this way, as it came by the Car Ferry steamer, which docked at Georgetown at 10.30 a. m. The mail special from Georgetown reached the city at 1.25. The special for Georgetown left at 8.30 p. m.

TO CROSS BY CAPES.—Mr. Joseph Burgess on his way from Ontario to this province to attend the funeral of his brother, the late Mr. George Burgess at Crapaud, missed a train yesterday and as a consequence was unable to get to the island by the steamer yesterday. He will cross by the Capes this afternoon.

ISLANDERS PROMINENT.—Five hundred couples danced at the fourth annual charity ball of the Intercolonial Club last Wednesday, at Intercolonial Hall, Roxbury, Mass. Richard E. Johnson (a native of Charlottetown, P. E. I.), President of the club and Mrs. R. F. Quirk, President of the ladies' association of the club, led the grand march. John M. MacDonald took charge of the whist, which preceded the dancing.

P. E. I. BRANCH LEADS.—The San Life Assurance Company of Canada are conducting a six month's contest among their Canadian Branches. It is gratifying to note that the Prince Edward Island Branch of which Mr. A. J. Irving is Manager, leads the contest to date, and has been awarded a beautiful silver shield. This speaks well for the prosperity of the island province, and also for the organization of which Mr. Irving is the head. Mr. J. A. Moore, one of the representatives in this province, leads all of Canada in a contest among Canadian Representatives of the Company and likewise has captured a silver shield.

HORSE RACES ON THE ICE ON FRIDAY.—The local driving club are taking advantage of the clear weather and good ice, by holding two races, a free-for-all and a 2.40 trot, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The course has not been definitely decided upon but will likely be on North River ice. Most of the best and fastest horses will take part, and the free-for-all is expected to be a race worth a whole lot to see. It will most likely have Devilish Dorothy, 2.16; Dunholme, 2.16½; Lillian Patchen 2.20½; Moth Miller, 2.20; The Abegweit, 2.19½ and Angus Dillard, the champion of 1915 as starters. The driving club need every support in giving the public these interesting races free. The purses $25 on each race, comes out of the Club's finances, so it is up to all interested in this great sport to join the club, and help maintain the races during the winter. The races will be half mile heats two in three and the following gentlemen will officiate: Starter—Major Brown, Judges—F. W. Hughes, W. B. Purdy, J. A. Henderson. Timers—T. A. McMahon, Dr. Nicholson, F. R. Newsome. C. P. Thorne, Secretary. Entries close at J. S. Wedlock's office Thursday evening at 8 o'clock with the Secretary.

CONCERT ENJOYED.—In connection with the lottery of the Automobile at Kelly's Cross in aid of the Catholic Church now under construction, the Glee Club of St. Dunstan's College, on Wednesday night last presented the following programme: Reading—The Wreck of the Little Plante. Drumm—Mr. E. Ganong. Solo—Selected by G. Ward. The Quarrel—"Julius Caesar" IV, 3. Shakespear. Characters, Brutus, Mr. S. McQuaid, Cassius, Mr. R. McKenzie. Trio—"The Rosary," Nevin. Messrs A. Caron, G. Ward, H. O'Neill. The Interview—Mark Twain. Characters, A Gentleman, Mr. S. Roach, A Reporter, Mr. S. Mahoney. Vocal Solo—"Sunshine of Your Smile," Rey, Mr. H. O'Neill. Dialogues—"Old Crenels," Characters, A Dictionary Maker, Mr. A. O'Brien, An Old Sea Captain, Mr. P. Murphy, Stewart, Mr. M. B. Harrigan. Piano Duet—"Les Sylphes" Bachmann, Messrs A. Caron, A. St. Pierre. Dialogue—"A Secretary Wanted," Characters, Habitant, Mr. E. Gagnon, A Poet, Mr. A. Caron. Reading—Selected Mr. S. Mahoney. Vocal Duet, Messrs G. Ward, H. O'Neill. For the kindness and hospitality shown by the good people of Kelly's Cross, the students of St. Dunstan's are heartily thankful. Although the inclemency of the weather and bad condition of roads were certainly a draw back, the trip was thoroughly enjoyed and the splendid patronage made the entertainment a success in every way, and the performers deeply appreciate the generous encore each number brought forth.

PROFITABLE AND ENJOYABLE
As previously announced the entertainment and basket social in aid of the Belgian Relief Fund was held in Bridgetown hall on the evening of the 7th inst. The night being beautiful and bright people came from all directions filling the hall to its full capacity. Mr. Allan Robertson of Mt. Hope acted as chairman and the very best of order prevailed throughout the entertainment consisting of vocal and instrumental music with songs, dialogues and recitations. The Misses: Marion M. McLeod and Hazel McDonald being organists and Alexander Buchanan and Stewart Hume rendered soul stirring music from the King of all musical instruments the violin. After the entertainment was over the sale of baskets commenced which caused the dollars to take wings and fly up to the platform for baskets at a very merry rate and when the result was counted there was found one hundred and thirty dollars in aid of a people to whom is owed and always will be owed a debt of gratitude that this meagre help will not at all express. There was a hearty vote of thanks tendered the St. Peter Bay friends for their kindness in coming so far to add to the entertainment whose dramatic talent is of no means order. The last thing on the programme was the social devouring of cake and goodies found in the baskets so liberally supplied by the ladies of the surrounding district and St. Peter's Bay. The National Anthem was not forgotten and it was sung with a hearty good will. All wended their way to their homes feeling that they had a very enjoyable time without the aid of John Barleycorn.

complimented the speakers and said it was the best debate of the year.
P. W. C. DEBATE.—The regular meeting of the P. W. C. Debating Society was held on Tuesday, February 13, 1917. The subject for debate was "Resolved, that the auto should be allowed to run daily on the roads of P. E. Island." The debate was the liveliest of the season, the different speakers entering into the discussion in every way, and the performers deeply appreciate the generous encore each number brought forth.
