

THE ELECTION SEPTEMBER 21

OTTAWA, July 31—A proclamation signed by the Governor General will be issued in the form of an extra Canada Gazette this morning announcing nominations for September 14 and elections September 21st.

ECZEMA IS CURABLE

In Every Case Where Our Remedy Fails It is Supplied Free of All Cost. In making this statement we back it up with our promise that if our remedy does not substantiate our claim in every particular, we will without question or quibble return every cent you paid us for it.

agreement in the face of the frank and determined opposition of the minority in parliament was useless and on the advice of his ministers the Governor General Saturday afternoon issued proclamation providing for the issuing of writs to be returnable on October 7th and fixing October 11th as the tentative date for the meeting of the New Parliament.

OTTAWA, July 31—Hon. Clifford Sifton stated after a conference with Mr. Borden yesterday that he would not be a candidate in the coming elections. While he felt it his duty to support of the views against the reciprocity agreement he had no desire to again enter active politics would devote the rest of his life to the conservative commission.

HURRICANE SWEEPS NEW ENGLAND COAST BOSTON, July 31—Grim tales of loss of life and disaster to shipping which swept the New England coast on Friday continue to come in. Eleven lives are known to have been lost and a long list of fishing and coasting craft and yachts wrecked or dismasted is constantly growing.

SIR EDWARD WARD COMING TO CANADA

OTTAWA, July 31—Sir Edward Ward, Permanent Under Secretary of State for war and the man who provisioned Ladysmith, is expected to arrive in Canada and will proceed to Ottawa on his way through Canada. Sir Edward's mission is understood to be in connection with the coming of the Duke of Cornwall as Governor General, while he will incidentally pick up such information as may be useful to the war office generally. He goes through to the coast.

CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province. Stephen Duffy, city, went to Loyalist on a fishing trip yesterday afternoon.

In the summary of the races at Fredericton last Wednesday it should have been stated that the winner of the 230 class, Premier was by Commodore Ledyard, owned by Dr. Strickland of this city. His time was remarkably fast for four year old, 2:20 1/2, 2:21 and 2:20 1/2.

The much-dreaded tussock moth has apparently obtained an extensive foothold in and about this city. The cocoons of the pest are to be found on the trees in the Square, on private grounds and even on houses and dwellings. One house on Grafton Street, near Prince has dozens of the cocoons in full view at the edge of the clapboards, from the foundation upwards. Something should be done at once to collect and destroy these cocoons wherever they are to be found.

Rev. D. Mackenzie of Wood Islands leaves the city this morning with the remains of his son, George William, whose death occurred elsewhere, for Lochiel, Glangarry, Ontario, where the interment will take place this week. Deceased had been largely an invalid all his life. He took a gripe very severely in March last, and has been rapidly sinking ever since. On Sabbath morning, July 30th, at 5 o'clock, he passed peacefully away. He fell into a sleep out of which he never awakened, his physical strength being completely exhausted. It will be a few weeks before Mr. Mackenzie expects to return.

Following are further particulars of the lamented death of Isaac Crosby, Marshfield, briefly referred to in yesterday's Guardian. In company with his son and a servant man Mr. Crosby was engaged in hauling hay at his farm between four and five o'clock. Mr. Crosby was standing on top of the load but did not have the reins in his hands at the time. In some way he lost his footing and fell off on the horse's back and thence to the ground. The horse started on a wheel of the heavy vehicle went over Mr. Crosby's body. His son ran to catch the horse and was knocked down and has two ribs broken. The servant man was on the hay loader behind at the time and Hector Darrach running up caught the frightened animal. It was found that Mr. Crosby and his son were both unconscious. Dr. Ralph was summoned and found that Mr. Crosby, senior, was badly injured about the chest. He remained unconscious for a considerable time but rallied before the end came about four o'clock on Sunday morning. Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the suddenly bereaved family.

Rev. H. W. Toombs, Mt. Stewart, is in the city.

Arthur F. McQuaid, Souris, was in this city yesterday.

Rev. H. Scott-Smith, Assistant Priest of St. Peter's Cathedral, City, leaves this morning for Montreal where he will remain a month. While there he will assist at the services in one of Montreal's Anglican Churches.

P. B. Clarke, who has been spending a short holiday in Westville, N. S., and this city, left for his home in Summerside yesterday afternoon. Mr. Clark made the trip to Nova Scotia in the schooner Maud Weston and the sail down the Straits was delightful.

One of the severest electrical storms for years passed over Mt. Stewart on Monday morning. A barn belonging to Nathan McDonald about three miles from Mt Stewart was struck by lightning and burned. The rain fell in torrents. No other damage is to the present reported.

The death occurred in New York City on Wednesday, July 26th of Miss Annie McDonald, daughter of Neil McDonald, Glencorradale. The deceased had resided in New York City for the past twelve years during which time she had not visited her old home. Some years ago she became subject to lung trouble which later developed into tuberculosis. While suffering with the latter disease she underwent two operations from the last of which she never rallied. Besides her father the deceased leaves to mourn one sister Mrs. Donald McLellan, Red Point, and the following brothers, Leo and John at home, Daniel now visiting at his home but located in the United States for the past sixteen years and Paul, James and Alex in the United States.

Charles Riley of this city has received a letter from W. F. Swan, Assistant General Manager of the Alaska Barge Company, Seattle, giving details of the death of Mr. Riley's son Edward last June as previously reported. Details of the accident had been delayed pending the arrival of the barge Bonanza on which Mr. Riley had been employed. Capt. Nutter, commander of the barge, states that Mr. Riley was employed in 'twain decks aft of the vessel, when he stepped from the edge of the hatch, falling head first into the lower hold, striking his head on the bottom. He died about forty-five minutes later but never spoke after his fall. The accident occurred at Chilcoote, on the British Columbia coast, where the Bonanza was lying. A physician was secured at the can- nery at Chilcoote and Mr. Riley was hurried to Haines on a special launch, a distance of four miles, where another physician was secured but the injured man was beyond all medical aid. The Captain in his letter states that everyone on board greatly regretted the sad event and Mr. Riley was well liked by all.
