Trinity Church Anniversary Service

"But let my due feet never fail To walk the studios cloisters pale, And love the high embowed roof, With autic pillars massy proof, And storied windows richly bright, Casting a dim religious light."

Trinity United Church of this City will welcome the public to the sixty-fifth Anniversary services of the opening of the Church to be held tomorrow.

The corner stone of this Building was laid on the 25th of May, 1863, and the Church was opened on the 13th of November, 1864, as the Prince St. Wesleyan Methodist Church.

The beginning of Methodism in Charlottetown, however, goes back to the closing years of the eighteenth century when this city was a mere village, and before any place of worship of any denomination had been erected. The first "Meeting House" of the Methodist Society, as it was then called, was built on Richmond Street, west of the Royal Bank Building, where services were held by "the people called Methodists" until the land on the corner of Prince and Richmond streets was purchased in 1834 and a larger place of worship was erected. Here, for nearly six years, Methodism grew and prospered, and during this period the "Old Chapel" was, at two different times, enlarged and improved. Then it was found necessary for the accommodation of the growing congregation to have a larger building, and the erection of the present Brick Church was decided upon. This was the outcome of three-quarters of a century of Methodism in Charlottetown.

In 1862 our fathers began the erection of the present church building with an empty treasury, but with unbounded faith in the future. In two years the building was finished at a cost of forty thousand dollars with a large part of this amount in sight a short time after the church was opened. This in a large measure explains the firm foothold the church had gained up to this period.

During the sixty-five years of this Church's history the large debt that remained after the first effort was reduced at different times, until 1899, under the pastorate to the Rev. W. W. Brewer, the remaining amount of nearly ten thousand dollars was fully paid and satisfied.

In 1898, under the pastorate of the Rev. H. E. Thomas, the present fine pipe organ was installed at a cost of about nine thousand dollars. One-half of this amount was paid by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Church.

In 1914, under the pastorate of the Rev. R. G. Fulton, the old Pew Bent System of the Church was abolished, the old pews removed and replaced by the present seating, and every seat was made absolutely free. At this time a new and improved heating system was installed and the interior of the Church was painted. The cost of these improvements amounted to ten thousand dollars, part of this amount was paid by Grace Church when the union of the two churches took place in 1918.

In 1923, under the pastorate of the Rev. W. M. Ryan, the basement of the Church, which had remained unused after the erection of the Hearst Memorial Hall, was remodelled by raising the floor of the building to a level with Sidney Street, providing a number of class rooms and a large Social hall for the use of the Church and congregation. The cost of this work was in the vicinity of seven thousand dollars which was all subscribed the evening the social hall was opened.

In 1925 when Church Union was consummated the Official Board of this Church was justly proud in being able to hand over this finely equipped building with all its appointments, which represented the real sacrifice of three generations of Methodism to the United Church of Canada absolutely free of debt. The name of Trinity United Church was chosen at this time.

With the union of the churches the congregation was greatly increased, and the various organizations received greater impetus in their work. The church with its increased membership is now rendering splendid service under the efficient leadership of Professor Fletcher.

At the Anniversary services tomorrow the Rev. Andrew D. Reid, of Sydney, C.B., will preach both morning and evening, and special music will be rendered suitable to the occasion.

POWNAL NEWS

On Sunday afternoon, November 10th, the pulpit of the Alexandra Baptist Church was occupied by Rev. Mr. Vincent, of Charlottetown, who with his clear personality and pleasing delivery, unfolded a message of divine truths from Exodus 14-30. "And Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore." The speaker first gave his hearers a vivid mental picture of the victims upon the shore. Among them was one in kingly garb, Pharaoh, who lay upon the sand as broken pottery, because he had continually resisted the moulding hand of God. God did not turn Pharaoh down at first, neither does He turn down any human being, but rather he gathers up the broken clay and tries again and again to remold our lives. God brought plagues upon Pharaoh and his people. "For this cause have I raised you up, to show in thee my power and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth." So as the speaker puts it we see this great king upon the sea shore because the ruler of all had ordained it so.

Miss Edith Lawlor, P. W. C., spent the week end at her home here.

The Misses Annie MacLennan and Evelyn Wood, City, spent Thanksgiving at their respective homes in Alexandria.

Miss Grace Yeo and Ralph, Arnold and Ira Locke Yeo, of Charlottetown, spent Thanksgiving with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Locke Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore and family were recent visitors in Milltown Cross.

Messrs. Ernest Smith and Arthur Jones, City, spent the holiday at Greenwood Cottage, Pownal.

Miss Francis Wood, Mt. Mellick, and Mr. Bruce, Waterside, motored to East Point on Sunday last.

Miss Mary Jenkins has gone to Boston to spend the winter.

Mr. George Tweedy, accompanied by his mother and brother, of Albery Plains, were visitors to Pownal Sunday.

Miss Beulah Hatch, book-keeper with Moore & MacLeod, was a visitor here on Sunday, the guest of her uncle, Mr. J. R. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose MacMillan were in the city on business Saturday evening.

Thanksgiving day was one of blue sky and abundance of heavenly sunshine. No rational being could help giving thanks on such a day. Truly all could not ride about in motor cars or journey to the wood land in search of game, but are those the happy ones. "The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year with walling winds and naked woods and pastures brown and sere." Surely this winter has missed the beauty of Autumn. The falling of the leaves, The wind hilling the trees into their long winter sleep. The pastures awaiting their garb of white, all a token of rest from summer's activity. Surely it is a joyous season and all have much to be thankful for.

Mr. Wilbur Jones, Jonesville, enjoyed a pleasant motor trip to Charlottetown and points farther west on Sunday.

Mr. Fred Robinson, Birch Hill was a visitor here on Sunday evening.

The Annual Bazaar held in the Parsonage, Hazelbrock, by the Baptist folks of that place was a grand success, the supper alone realizing $105. This speaks well for the cooks in that locality. Altogether a satisfactory sum was realized.—P.

This will be the first visit to Charlottetown by this noted preacher, and his messages are being eagerly anticipated by Trinity Congregation. Special music by the Choir morning and evening. All services at usual hours. C. H. C. K. will broadcast the evening service.
