MARY BARBARA MCINTIRE (Bath Daily Times, Sept. 20th) Mary Barbara McIntire, 72, wife of Irwin M. McIntire, of 691 Middle street, died Thursday morning at the City hospital from a long illness.

She was a daughter of Joseph and Maren White Davis and was born in Martinique, N. S., on Dec. 25, 1861. When she was seven years old the family moved to Prince Edward Island, residing at Montague Bridge where she lived until 26 when she came to Bath. Then she moved to Popham Beach upon her marriage and came to Bath in 1909.

She was the last of 11 children, the last one before her, Alexander L. Davis, dying in Transvaal, South Africa, three years ago after a residence there since the age of 18.

During her residence here she attended People's Baptist Church and was a faithful worker. She was known to her relatives and friends as "Aunt Mary" and "Mrs. Mac". Despite her long illness her disposition was sunny and she was ever ready with a smile and a joke.

She is survived by her husband, Irwin McDowell McIntire, and by one daughter, Mrs. Eugene L. Coleman of Cape Neddick Light Station, York Beach; also by three nieces, Mrs. Georgia Verritt, Mrs. Minnie Nickerson Wheeler and Mrs. Laura Ammidon, all of Massachusetts, daughters of her brother Edwin who lived with her a number of years; also by several grandchildren and nephews one of whom, Edith L. Nickerson, passed the Summer with her.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at two at the Curtis Funeral Home, 105 Centre Street.
