2000 YEARS AGO

the fighting Gladiators of ancient Rome healed their wounds and sores with rare herbal oils and balms. These are said to have knitted the damaged tissues together in miraculous fashion.

Though the highly-prized secrets of those precious healers were lost with the fall of Rome itself, the introduction of the great herb, Zam-Buk, has furnished their place.

Nothing else known to Science restores such marvellous healing or dispels disease from the tissues so thoroughly as Zam-Buk does. This is due to its pure herb character and its ability to penetrate the tissues and disintegrate the toxins.

All ailments of the throat, chest, lungs, stomach, bowels, and all other ailments of the internal organs, are cured by Zam-Buk. It is the only medicine that cures all these ailments.

...SIXTY WONDERFUL LANTERN SLIDES will be shown in connection with Major A. A. Bartlett's lecture on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock p. m. in Souris, on one of the British Navy's historic engagements. Come early and obtain a comfortable seat where you hear the lecture and see actual scenes of Naval Warfare; you will be mighty glad you came.

...COME TO ST. PATRICK'S HALL on Wednesday night and hear Major A. A. Bartlett lecture on the brilliant achievements of Britain's invincible Navy. Major Bartlett is a master of the art of description, and his lecture will be illustrated with some sixty graphic lantern slides showing the Navy in action. Lectures and illustrations combined produce an effect of striking realism which transports the audience from the lecture-room to the actual scene of the conflict. This lecture is not only a rare entertainment but an important chapter of recent history. An illustration of Britain's Naval powers. Don't fail to attend. Meeting opens at 8 p. m. sharp.

...Miss Aggie McDonald, Hermanville, Lot 45, left for Boston recently, where she will remain for the winter.

...Mr. H. W. B. Stavert left Saturday morning for Montreal where he will stay a short while before going to the coast.

...Mr. Bruce Yeo, who is well known in Georgetown, after holding moving picture shows all summer, gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday night.

...Mr. David McDonald, Peakes, and Mr. J. McDonald, spent Sunday at Georgetown visiting Mr. J. McDonald's sister, Mrs. James McPhee.

...MR. ARCHIBALD BELL

Died at Wood Islands, in this Province, on Friday, October 15th, 1920. Mr. Archibald Bell, aged seventy-four years. The deceased was a son of the late Donald Bell, and was born and spent his life at Wood Islands. He was, perhaps, the most successful farmer in that settlement, and the fact that he leaves one of the finest homes in the Province, speaks well for his energy and progressive ideas.

Although of a retiring and unassuming disposition he was, nevertheless, of a kind and considerate nature—open-handed to the needy, attentive to the distressed and a neighbor beyond reproach.

Mr. Bell was twice married, his first wife was Miss Mary Gillis of Montague, and his late partner, Miss Katie Munn of Wood Islands, survives him. He also leaves three sisters to cherish his memory, namely, Mrs. Angus Munn of Vancouver, B. C. and Mrs. George O. or Bd G.M. MacCormack of St. John's and Mrs. M. G. Anderson both of Charlottetown.

The funeral which was one of the largest seen in that section, took place on the following Monday to the new Cemetery at Wood Islands.

The Rev. A. S. Stewart, a former pastor, officiating. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful, evidencing the esteem in which the deceased was held during life.

To the sorrowing widow and bereaved sisters the Guardian extends its sincere condolences.

MR. MALCOLM GILLIS.

On Oct. 11th at an early hour Mr. Malcolm Gillis passed peacefully to his reward, after an illness of about three weeks. Up to that time he was very well although he suffered at times with rheumatism. All that loving care and nursing could do was done to prolong his life. He will be missed in the home where he was always kind and considerate.

He leaves to mourn, besides many relatives and friends, two sons, Malcolm and Alfred and one sister and one brother. His wife predeceased him 6 years ago. The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. H. McKnight, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Montague, Interment in Lower Montague Cemetery.

MR. BENJAMIN GRAHAM

In the Aberdeen Hospital, Trenton, N. S., on Friday morning, July 29, a few hours after undergoing an operation for appendicitis there passed to his reward, Mr. Benjamin Graham, aged 45 years. While still in the prime of manhood he was suddenly called to his Heavenly home. Mr. Graham's death makes a gap in the community that cannot easily be filled.

He will be missed in his work shop in the Steel Works where he was loved by his fellow workmen in the Presbyterian church where he was a constant worshipper but more especially will Mr. Graham be missed in his own home. He was one of those big hearted, jovial fellows, who was happiest when he was making some one else happy and his home was an ideal one, where the young and old loved to gather, spending pleasant hours together, knowing that they were warmly welcomed.

The funeral took place from his late residence, High St., Trenton, and was very largely attended. On account of the absence of his pastor, the services at the home were conducted by the Rev. Geo. Farquhar of St. Andrew's church New Glasgow, assisted by Rev. George Beck of the Methodist church, Trenton. At the close of the service, the Masonic Order took charge of the remains, interment with Masonic honors at Hillside cemetery were performed by the Order. The sympathy of the community is extended to his sorrowing wife, daughter Sarah and little son, Arthur, besides numerous relatives and friends.

IN MEMORIAM

THE LATE WILLIAM McNEILL.

A prominent and highly respected resident of Spring Valley passed away on Thursday last in the person of Mr. William McNeill.

The deceased was a successful farmer, and a public spirited citizen who took an intelligent and helpful interest in all questions concerning the betterment of his community and the province. He was a member of the Malpeque Presbyterian congregation and served for a number of years the Board of Managers. He was 65 years of age and leaves to mourn his wife, two daughters and two sons, Mrs. Thompson of Hamilton, George of Spring Valley and James on the homestead.
