

ON EASTER...
ANYTIME YOU GO OUTDOORS...
Everybody Sees Your Hat

Smart, exclusive —
More Distinctive
'3.95 '4.50
'5.50

To keep pace with your best girls
New Easter Bonnet, get one of our handsome new hats. They are sexy, wearable, made of highest quality materials, and are sure to present you at your very best.

The Men's Store

MOORE & McLEOD Limited

SOMETHING SPECIAL

"We Make Loveliness Lovelier"

We have installed the most recent model Zenith Thermique permanent waving machine and now are prepared to give the best in permanent waving. Have your Spring hair-do now.

"Keep Your Hair Healthy by Letting BEAUTYLAND give it the proper care."

BEAUTYLAND SALON

Proprietor, W. E. McGuigan
127 Grafton St. Phone 1329

VENO'S COUGH SYRUP

Used for Years THE FAMOUS HOME REMEDY

VENO'S COUGH SYRUP

Invaluable for COUGHS—COLDS BRONCHITIS SIMPLE SORE THROAT

CHILDREN LOVE VENO'S

DON'T DELAY—BUY A BOTTLE TODAY!

KELLY'S CROSS AND VICINITY

Cpl. Linus Monaghan, R.C.A.F. spent the weekend at his home in Kelly's Cross.

Francis McDonald has returned from the mainland after spending the winter months in the mainland.

Pvt. James Greenan, R.C.A.M.C. is at present spending his leave with his parents in South Melville.

Mr. John H. Nantes spent the weekend in Charlottetown on business.

The Study Club meetings are over for the season. Last week officers were selected for the Credit Union.

MILLVIEW SCHOOL

The report for Millview School for the month of February is as follows:

Grade X: 1. Teresa MacKenzie. Grade IX: 1. Eileen MacKenzie; 2. Lou Weatherbie; 3. Angus MacKenzie.

Grade VIII: 1. Lorne Morrissey; 2. Marion Mulrow.

Grade VII: 1. Wilbert MacKenzie; 2. Arlene Ings; 3. Helena Morrissey.

Grade VI (Sr.): 1. Stanley McLeod.

Grade V (Sr.): 1. Gordon Jenkins.

Grade V (Jr.): 1. Marion Weatherbie; 2. John Weatherbie.

Grade IV: 1. Virginia McLeod.

Grade III: 1. Audlene Morrissey; 2. Edna Weatherbie; 3. Elwood Weatherbie.

Grade II: 1. Allison Ings; 2. Kenneth Grant and Bobbie Crane (equal); 3. Edna Weatherbie.

Grade I (a): 1. Harold Muttart.

Grade I (b): 1. Wendell Jenkins and Norman Sheidow.

Grade I (c): 1. William Morrissey.

Perfect attendance for month: Lorne Morrissey, Arlene Ings, Edson Drake, Helena Morrissey, Stanley McLeod, Audlene Morrissey, Edna Weatherbie, Allison Ings, Bobbie Crane.

Teacher, Clara MacIsaac.

KINKORA SCHOOL

Report for month of February.

Grade X, Senior: 1. Dorothy McGinn; 2. Kathleen Keefe; 3. John Cash.

Grade X, Junior: 1. Theresa Trainer; 2. Austin Pendergast; 3. Raymond McCarrville and Elaine Roberts.

Grade IX: 1. Marjorie Roberts; 2. Leo Murphy; 3. Katherine Morris.

Grade VIII: 1. Bernadette Farmer; 2. Arnold McIver; 3. Norman Shreeman.

Grade VII: 1. Phyllis Farmer; 2. Regis Duffy; 3. Wanda Greenan.

Grade VI: 1. Ezekiel Roberts; 2. Jerome Quinn; 3. Roy Johnston.

Grade V: 1. Adelaide Duffy; 2. Laura Mulligan; 3. Ralph McKenna.

The following standing of Grade IX was omitted for January: 1. Marjorie Roberts; 2. Katherine Morris and Leo Murphy; 3. Ronald McIver.

Report Raids On Sofia Have Political Aspect

Are Tied Up With Russian Advance Into Balkans, Allied Officer Reveals.

NAPLES, March 31 — (A.P.) — Ground fighting in Italy slackened almost to zero today following the Allied failure to take Cassino, but constant pressure is being maintained on German positions and the campaign to take Rome and Central Italy has by no means been abandoned.

The Germans occupied two positions on Monastery Hill abandoned by the Indian and New Zealand troops earlier this week and made small attacks inside the shattered city without success. Artillery rumbled in the snow covered mountains to the north.

Two small enemy raids on the Anzio beachhead were repelled and Allied artillery shelled German positions near Carroceto.

Headquarters announced the toll of dead and wounded suffered Wednesday night when enemy bombs fell on a hospital at the beachhead had risen to 85. According to information available at headquarters at 8 P. M. (Naples time) tonight, 16 were known dead.

Sign of important developments was seen in the snow covered west coast.

Allied Jungle Commandos Cut Jap Communications

NEW DELHI, April 3 — (A.P.) — A band of intrepid glider-borne Allied commandos have cut all north-south communication arteries to Myitkyina, main Japanese base in North Burma, and have smashed enemy efforts to infiltrate their airstrip far behind Japanese lines, front dispatches said today as a showdown fight for Imphal in India developed.

The fighting in India was described as "the battle for Imphal" and the presence of Japanese forces on the roads from Uthairul 31 miles northeast, and Kohima, 62 miles north of Imphal, capital of the state of Manipur, underscored the belief that an out fight on the open plain is in the offing.

Today's southeast Asia communiqué said the invaders of India had penetrated to the Imphal-Kohima road. An unofficial report said this road had been cut in several places. The communiqué, however, said there was no important change in the Uthairul sector.

Meantime it was disclosed that air commando forces hold a considerable mileage of the railroad from Myitkyina to Kacha, more than 100 miles south. These forces also are harassing vital river transport which formerly served Myitkyina as an adjunct to the railroad. Thus with Japanese roads also blocked, all north-south Japanese arteries have been severed.

Several days ago Japanese parties trickled into the perimeter of the airstrip established in the Kacha area by glider-borne troops under the command of the late Maj.-Gen. C. Wingate, British jungle warfare expert who last year led the famous "Wingate's Raiders" expedition into Burma. The Japanese also tried to get at Allied aircraft on the airstrip.

All hand-dropped routine tasks to defend their jungle "beachhead." They grabbed guns and tackled the Japanese, cleaning them out in a couple of days. Now their ground and air operations have been resumed. Presumably this air-borne and air-supplied expedition planned by Wingate is designed to play an important part in clearing the Japanese from northern Burma.

Red Cross To Aid Norway After War

BY HAZEL DEAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL, April 4 — (CP) — The post-war wardrobe of many women and children in Norway will carry "Made in Canada" labels—thanks to the 70 Norwegian branches of the Canadian Red Cross from Prince Rupert to Halifax.

At Montreal headquarters, some 20 workers spend three days a week sewing, sorting and packing clothing contributed by Norwegians all over Canada. This "reserve stock" will be shipped to Norway as soon as the country is liberated.

Mrs. Daniel Steen, wife of the Norwegian consul here and president of the Norwegian Red Cross Branch in Canada, explains that the 22,620 articles made by Norwegian workers during 1943 were distributed among the Canadian Red Cross, Norwegian servicemen and the post-war clothing stock.

"Our biggest job is to build up a stock of clothing with which to flood Norway as soon as the war is over," says Mrs. Steen.

Articles ranging from babies' nappies to sturdy school clothes are stored in huge Red Cross packing cases, ready for shipment at a moment's notice.

Some 87 crates are stored in Montreal, while others, packed during the first two years of war, a ready have been shipped as fast as London.

Mrs. Steen and her workers believe in style and color as well as durability for their relief wardeobes. Little Norwegian girls will go to school in the first few months after the war in dresses as bright and pretty as Miss Canada's.

They get a lot of their new clothing from the hands of Mrs. Steen's daughter Jeanne, chairman of relief clothing supplies.

Another daughter, Madeline, holds a secretarial post at Montreal Headquarters.

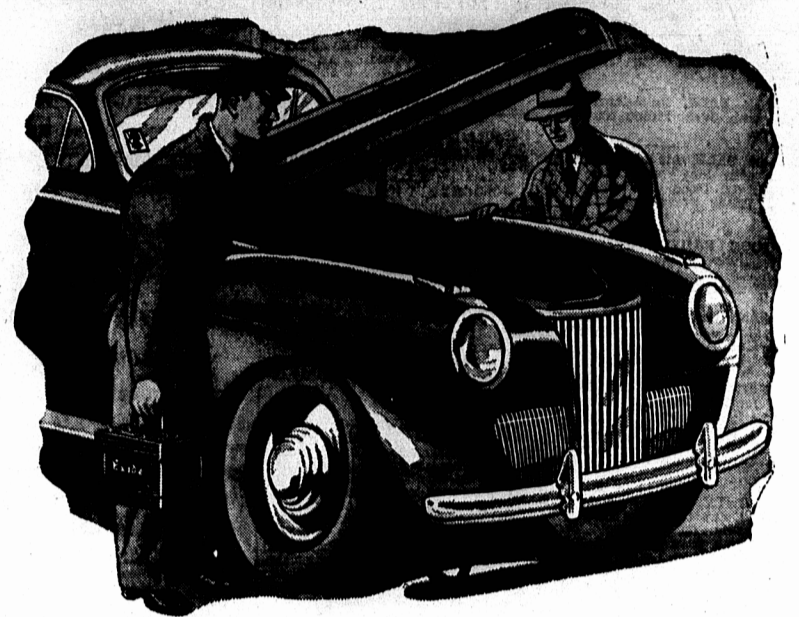

Regarding his family's contribution to Norwegian Red Cross, Consul Daniel Steen originated the design for the Norwegian Red Cross badge—a gold maple leaf embossed with the Norwegian coat of arms. Sale of these badges has raised a reserve fund for post-war medical supplies for Norway to $3,000.

This War—Four Years Ago

By The Canadian Press

APRIL 6, 1940—Italian government issued decree which prepared Italy for war-time discipline at moment's notice. Foreign Minister would "at once be at war" if free shipping in Norwegian waters were interfered with to the advantage of one side in the war.

A GAS STICKER CAN LEAD TO BATTERY TROUBLE

WITH rationed driving, your battery is not kept charged by the generator. This results in starting failures. A battery permitted to stand idle in a discharged condition may be ruined.

War-time Canada depends upon automobiles for vital transportation. There are literally thousands of starting failures daily, representing a serious bottle-neck to our war effort. Many of these failures could be prevented if car owners realized just how hard rationed driving is on a battery.

Do your part to help keep Canada rolling. Have an Exide dealer check your battery every two weeks. In this way you can help prevent a starting failure. "Periodic recharges" are essential under rationed driving.

Your Exide dealer can help you get the most from your battery, and when you must buy a new one he can install a dependable long-life Exide.

EXIDE BATTERIES OF CANADA, LIMITED
TORONTO CANADA

Exide The name which for 36 years has symbolized long life and dependability.

WHEN IT'S AN EXIDE YOU START

Father Home After Service With His Only Son Overseas

By Andrew Merkle
Canadian Press Staff Writer

HALIFAX, April 4 — (CP) — Lt. Col. Gerald Bullock has returned to Canada with his most prized possession the memory of a fine com-panionship with his only son through four years of war.

When Colonel Bullock took the West Nova Scotia regiment overseas in December, 1939, it numbered among its ranks Private Reginald Bullock, just turned 18, with one year in arts at King's College. He has brought back a brass tablet to the memory of Capt. Reginald Bullock, who died of wounds received in the Ortona fighting, Jan. 3 of this year. Later it is to be unveiled in Holy Trinity Church, Brantford, N. S., of which Colonel Bullock was rector when war broke out.

Colonel Bullock, looking as fit as fiddle, is non-committal about his own fortunes overseas, how he had to give up command of his regiment, because of his 55 years, how he order to get to a fighting front as a combatant officer, how following the death of his son, he was ordered home again because of his age. But he is outspoken in his tribute to the son, who earned his commission fighting up the Adriatic side of the Italian Peninsula, came to be known among the fabulous Eighth Army as "The Wonder Man."

The lad was leading a mortar platoon, Dec. 31, when his communication wire failed. Instead of ordering a signman out to do a repair job, he went himself. A shell burst close at hand and he was badly wounded. Three days later, his father at his bedside in a field hospital, he died with a wink and the words "Okay Dad... okay?"

Now, the father is back in Canada for retirement. On his arriving in the Dominion, he found himself reverted to the rank of lieutenant colonel. He will retire with this rank.

CLUBS FORMED BY "GRANNIES"

LONDON, April 4 — (CP) — Life is being kind to England's grannies. A seaside mansion has been turned into a haven for elderly women, put out of lonely lodgings by landladies taking advantage of boom prices. The women pay only what they can afford to stay at the new, cosy hotel.

In London, several "Grannies Clubs" have been formed for women of 65 and over where they play gay programs for themselves of parties, debates and entertainments.

GANDA COTTON FACTORY introduce into Central Africa a industry with a potential market of 10 to 12,000,000 Africans and an ultimately higher standard of living.

Plot and Grave-Holders The People's Cemetery Company Charlottetown

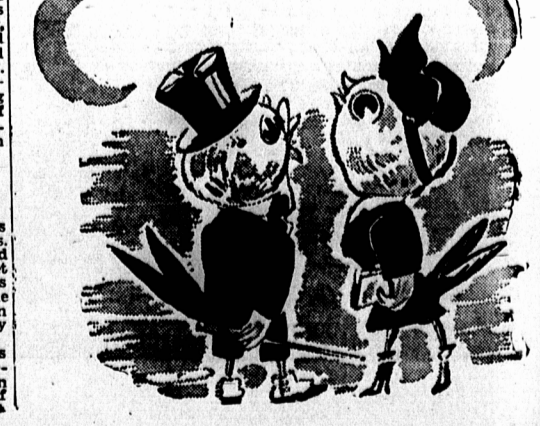

Final arrangements have been made for the carrying on of this Cemetery this year. In order to carry it on it will be necessary for all plot or grave holders in said Cemetery to pay all over-due amounts for maintenance or otherwise, at the office of George J. Tweedy, Royal Bank Chambers, Charlottetown, forthwith.

DATED this thirty-first day of March, A.D., 1944.

ADA L. SMALLWOOD,
Administratrix
Estate Vivian C. Smallwood

4-1-4-6.

Get Your
EASTER OUTFIT
at
The Fashion Shoppe
GT. GEORGE ST.

Be good to yourself
Try
Turret
FINE CUT
for rolling your own

QUICKIES — By Ken Reynolds

"Really, I got her with a Guardian Want Ad—but I tell everyone the stork brought her!"