WHILE WE MAY

On birthday anniversaries and happy Christmas morning, let none forget mother; be she ever so far away, let her be some tribute of love sent her. Honor dear old mother! Time has scattered on her brow the snowy flakes, and ploughed deep furrows on her cheek; but is she not beautiful now? The lips are thin and shrunken; but these are the lips that have kissed many a tear from the childish face. The eyes are dim, yet glowing with the soft radiance of holy love that can never fade. The sands of her life are near-
