In Memoriam

JOHN S. MARTIN

A widely known and much esteemed citizen of Kinross passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W.A. Jenkins of Vernon, P.E. Island on June 29th., 1946 at the advanced age of almost ninety one years. He was a son of the late Samuel Martin and wife Sarah Campbell, and was born at Kinross August 3rd, 1856. He attended the Uigg School and for a time, as a young man taught school. Later he carried on farming on the old Martin homestead. He was also a skilled carpenter, and built a great many homes in his neighborhood. He was an elder in the Church of Scotland and also acted as presentor. He was a good Gaelic scholar. He was a Conservative member in the P E. Island Legislature from 1912 to 1919 and for four of those years was Speaker of the House.

His wife, the former Hattie MacKenzie of Charlottetown passed away in 1942. All of his six brothers predeceased him. They were James, who died in childhood, Hugh, Rev. J.C. Martin, John D., Rev. Malcolm C. and Rev. Sam A. Martin. Five sisters also predeceased him, Margaret (Mrs. Martin), Christy (Mrs. Wood), Catherine (Mrs Kennett, MacLean), Sarah (Mrs. John MacKenzie) and Marjorie (Mrs. A. MacKay.. One sister, Mrs. Emily Beer, of Medford, Mass. survives him. He is survived also by three sons—Samuel of Vernon and James and Hugh of Kinross; also by two daughters, Mrs. W.A. Jenkins, of Vernon and Mrs Alex MacLeod, of Charlottetown. One daughter, Sadie, preceeased him, also one son, Pte. John W. of the 106th Battalion. He has eighteen grand children and thirteen great grand children.

The funeral took place from the home of his daughter, Mrs. W.A. Jenkins to Orwell Head Church. The service was conducted by the Rev. Roy Webster assisted by Rev. A.D. Stirling and Rev. A.S. Weir. There was a large attendance of friends from many places. Interment took place in the Orwell Head Cemetery beside the church. The pall bearers were, Wm. A. and Lloyd Martin, grandsons, and Malcolm MacLean, Sam H. Lloyd and Harold Martin, nephews.

Mr. Martin lived a long and useful life and his name will long be remembered and held in high regard by the entire community he served so well.
