A. at Charlottetown Mrs. Isabella Giddens and Mrs. William Muttart were made honorary members of the Society as a mark of recognition for their faithful service. Mrs. W. W. —MUCH IMPROVED—The latest report of the condition of Mr. H. T. Beggs is that he is much improved although not out of danger. The good news will be thankfully received by friends throughout the Island. As Manager of the bank of Nova Scotia and as Grand Master of the Masonic Lodges of P. E. Island Mr. Beggs has a wide circle of friends and his progress will be watched with interest and concern. Mr. Beggs is a native of Nova Scotia but has been in Summerside for 16 years.—S.

—SUMMERSIDE BUSY PORT—Summerside harbor presents a busy scene this week with four steamers tied up at the wharves. The Gypsum Prince, the latest arrival, was outside the harbor on Thursday waiting for a berth at the Marine wharf. She hailed from Baltimore and brought 4,000 to 5,000 tons of fertilizer for the Potato Growers Association. The Clyde Valley which came in last week with a cargo of coal from Sidney, N. S., for R. T. Holman's Ltd., left Friday for Victoria with a cargo of fertilizer. After unloading she will carry a cargo of potatoes to New York for Mr. McKiver. Captain MacQuire is well pleased with his trip to the Island. The S. S. Fredericksburg which came in Wednesday with 50,000 bags of fertilizer for the Colonial Fertilizer Co. left on Friday afternoon in ballast for New York. The unloading of the steamer has given a large number of men employment, and the waterside is a scene of much activity. Another large steamer is expected in a day or two with fertilizer. Contrary to expectation more fertilizer has been handled at the port of Summerside this year than there has been for a number of years.—S.
