IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. W. Eddy Vessey, who passed away on March 26, 1940.

Two years have passed since that sad day,
When one we loved was called away.
We loved her then, we love her still
Forget her—no—we never will.

Lovingly Remembered by Her Husband and Family.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of John Everett Graham, A. B., R. C. N. R., who gave his life for his country on March 26, 1941.

Just one year ago today
Since God called our son and brother away,
Little did we know that morn
That our hearts, be so sorely torn.
So quick, and sudden was the call
It was a great shock to all.
No more we'll see the cheery smile
Of one who made our life worthwhile,
No more the gentle voice we'll hear
Of the one we loved so dear,
And we, oh, how we do yearn
For the old time step and the glad return,
While he lies in peaceful sleep
Sweet memories we shall always keep.
But 'tis sweet to know well meet again
In the realm above; where God doth reign.

Inserted by Father, Mother and Sister.

MABEY—In loving memory of our dear friend Elmer A. Mabey, who lost his life on H. M. C. S. Ot.er, March 26th ,1941.

One year has passed our hearts are sore,
As time goes on we miss him more,
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear,
So quick, so quiet was the call,
His sudden death surprised us all,
Though his smile has gone forever,
And his hands we do not touch,
We shall never lose sweet memories,
Of the one "we loved so much." ....

He died that we all might be free.

In Memoriam

MR. JOHN D. GILLIS

The community of Orwell was grieved and shocked to learn of the sudden passing away on March 3rd. of John D. Gillis, in the twenty fifth year of his age.

John Gillis, as he was familiarly known throughout Orwell and surrounding districts, was a very fine type of young man. He was a fine upstanding man physically and morally. He was popular with everyone and was a regular attendant of St. Andrew's United Church. He was interested in the Young People's work and was an officer of the local society. He had taken preliminary training and was awaiting his call for further service. It came a few days after he had answered the higher call. His passing is a great loss to the community where he gave promise of being a useful citizen. The loss to his parents is almost overwhelming.

The funeral took place Thursday March 5th., Rev. A. S. Weir conducted the service which was very largely attended. In the funeral address, the minister paid tribute to the fine character and personality of the one who has gone from the home but will not be forgotten. Interment took place in Orwell Head Cemetery. The pall bearers were August Ross, Lewis Ross, Neil Bell, William Bell, cousins of the deceased, and Lloyd Martin and John MacRae former classmates. The very deep sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing parents.

WILLIAM MacKENZIE
Who Passed Away March 26th, 1941.

God knew that he was suffering
That the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed his weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine."
Away in the beautiful hills of God,
By the valley of rest so fair,
Some time, some day we know not when,
We shall meet our loved one there.

APRICOT SWEET LOAF

Sugar is modestly used in this sweet bread which will pinch-hit for cake

1 cup chopped dried apricots
1 3-4 cups thick sour milk or buttermilk
12 tablespoons shortening
1-3 cup granulated sugar
1 egg
1 1-2 cups bran
2 1-3 cups once-sifted pastry flour or
2 cups once-sifted bread flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1-2 teaspoon baking soda
3-4 teaspoon salt
1-2 teaspoon grated nutmeg
Nutmeats of coconut (optional)

To the apricots add thick sour milk; let stand for 20 minutes. Combine shortening and sugar. Add the eggs, beaten light. Add the apricots, milk and bran. Let this mixture stand until most of the liquid is taken up. Meantime, measure flour into sifter and add baking powder, soda, salt and nutmeg. Sift into bran mixture, half at a time; combine after each addition, and include nuts or coconut, if used, with last of flour. Turn into a greased and floured loaf pan, 9 by 6 inches; or use two smaller pans. Bake in moderate oven, 350 F —allow about 1 hour for the large loaf. This cuts better if it is made the day before it is to be used.

Brown sugar teams with maple syrup, in this case.

Pie-paste
2 tablespoons flour
Peeled and sliced apples (4 to 6)
1-3 cup maple syrup
3 tablespoons brown sugar
1 tablespoon butter

Line a pie-pan with rolled-out piepaste. Sift a tab'espoon of flour over the paste. Fill pan with peeled and sliced apples moulding well in the centre. Pour in the syrup sprinkle with sugar and dot with butter in small pieces. Sift remaining tablespoon of flour over apples. Dampen rim and cover with rolled-out paste which has been slit for escape of steam. Bake in hot oven 425 F. for 12 minutes; lower to 375 F moderately hot to complete baking (about 35 minutes longer).

movies would never have a second date with them because they wanted to follow the picture and not listen to chatter.

They thought it the height of bad taste for a girl to make up in public. "How would a girl like it," they asked, "if we would take along our safety razors and shave while we were waiting to be served in a restaurant?" As for kissing and petting, "huh." "Of course, we will do it if a girl will stand for it and who makes us keep our hands in our pockets," they said.

In a word, girls, the boys liked a girl who wore pretty clothes, who made up artistically, who didn't use too much lipstick or perfume, who looked like a lady and acted like one, who was friendly without being prudish, who took the trouble to let them know they had a good time when they took them out but who didn't run after them. In short, they liked the girls they have always liked since the beginning of time, and that they will go on liking and marrying as long as girls try to be nice girls instead of hoodlums.

PROBLEM OF LONESOME WOMAN

DEAR MISS DIX—My husband and I have been married for ten years and during this period we have both worked. At first we lived in a small town, but five years ago we moved to a city where we have made few friends on account of both of us being employed. Before we came to the city neither of us drank, but now because we are lonesome and bored both of us are drinking too much, I more than he. I get off from work earlier than my husband and at his suggestion I would wait for him in a tavern. The women who came in would shun me, but in time the men became attentive. This has led to trouble and my husband threatens to leave me if I don't quit going to this tavern. But if I don't go, what is there for me to do to pass the time while waiting for him? There are thousands of women in the same predicament that I am who have no children, whose husbands work late at night and who do not know how to pass the time. What is your suggestion? MRS. N. E. D.

ANSWER—My advice to you is to stop at once going to this tavern because you must realize, if you are at all honest with yourself, that you are acquiring the drink habit, that you are taking up with bad company.

There is no reason for any woman to be lonesome in these days when her country is calling for her help and when there are so many avenues of occupation open to her. Go to any of the Red Cross headquarters or any of the organizations for civilian defense and register for night work You will find plenty of interesting things to do that will bring you in contact with worthwhile people and enable you to make the friends that will be a help instead of a hindrance to you. DOROTHY DIX.
