DETROIT STAR UNDERGOES OPERATION

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—Johnny Gallagher, husky defenceman for Detroit Red Wings and formerly with Windsor Bulldogs and Montreal Maroons, was in Harper hospital, Detroit, Tuesday, recovering from a major brain operation. The operation was made necessary by head injuries, apparently received last winter, and aggravated in recent workouts.

TIMELY TIPS ON SPORT

Saints vs. P. W. C. Today
Prince of Wales senior rugby squad face their last chance for the Island football title today when they clash with the Saint Dunstan's fifteen.
A win for the red and white team today will allow them to retain their Island title, while should the city team come through the league will be deadlocked.
The game is scheduled for 3:30 at the Abegweit Grounds.
Here At Last
When the 1933-34 Abegweit edition dropped over the boards at the Forum yesterday morning for their initial practice, fans had their first glimpse of a formidable array of puke chasers who will carry the red and black colors in the coming "Big Four" loop.
Exhibiting speed and rare passing ability in their opening workout the troop of red shirts under the eagle eye of coach Stan Jackson, who incidentally himself took an active part in the practice, went through their manoeuvres with a will.
With the wealth of sturdy and seasoned material on hand Jackson will no doubt mould a smooth working hockey machine which should be a strong threat in the run for Maritime honors.
Noble With Cleveland?
It is understood that Reg Noble, the grand old man of pro hockey, is getting a trial with the Cleveland Indians in the International League. Noble was a defence star in Detroit for many years, but was released at the start of last winter's campaign.
Has Park Changed
Al Simmons, the $100,000 baseball star of the White Sox, doesn't like the $2,000,000 Comiskey park set-up so Owner J. Louis Comiskey is going to change it. Owner Comiskey last night revealed that landscapers will move home plate out 14 feet toward the centre of centre field and reconstruct the infield so that those long drives of Al's will have more of a chance to go for home runs instead of putouts. All last season, Simmons crashed out terrific drives to centre field, home runs in the average park, only to watch the centre-fielders move back and take them.
With Moncton
Among new members seeking berths on the Moncton Hawks are Doran Doucet, speedy little utility player of the former Bathurst Paper-makers, and Chick Boston, brother of Joey Boston, diminutive Abble centre.

OTTAWA PLAYER IS SUSPENDED BY CALDER

Suspension Follows Weiland's Refusal to Accept Former Salary.

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—(C.P.)—Cooey Weiland, centre player for Ottawa Senators, has been suspended by Frank Calder, President of the National Hockey League, for failing to accept the same salary this year he received from the local management last season.
Weiland reported at the Senators camp at the first of the training season. He was offered a contract $500 below last year's salary and refused to sign, becoming a hold-out. When Weiland and club officials could not agree the case went to President Calder, the final court of appeal in hockey salary disputes. The club came up to last year's figure, but still Weiland would not sign and Calder ordered his suspension.
The next move is now up to Weiland. Ottawa Hockey Association officials will take no further steps to sign him, and he will remain out of hockey unless he plays here, as it is understood the Senatorial management will not consider offers of either trade or sale for him.
Allan Shields, the other pronounced holdout with Senators, attended practice tonight and it was stated his salary differences with the club will be adjusted within a day or so. Shields is being counted on for a defence position, and Manager Boucher is hopeful of having Shields come to terms very shortly.
Danny Cox, with whom trouble was also experienced, signed up today and Billy Beveridge is reported to have expressed himself as ready to do likewise. This means Weiland is the only player on the outside.

At the same time it advanced about one franc in terms of the French franc and was strong in relation to other gold currencies. The pound closed at $4.89 1-4.

Melanson, Spruce Gum King, Dead

Melanson, known throughout the Maritimes as manufacturer of spruce gum bearing his name, is dead here in his 88th year. He lived here all his life and for years served as postmaster, a post to which he succeeded his father in 1884.
"The spruce gum king" as he was commonly known, was the father of 14 children.

FINDS STICK THAT WON HOCKEY TITLE

KINGSTON, Ont., Nov. 6.—When "Rube" Millan, Kingston member of the Toronto Dentals, won them the Allan Cup with an overtime goal at Winnipeg 16 years ago the stick and puck were treasured so highly they were placed on exhibition at the University of Toronto Dental College.
They lay there for years, gathering dust except when proud members of the team brought them out to show them to visitors. Millan went to France with the Dental Corps and when he searched for the stick on his return it had disappeared.
Years went by and though Rube never forgot the stick he gave up hope of ever recovering it. Last week a letter from the Dental College informed Millan his prized trophy had been found behind a large filing cabinet.
Elated, Dr. Millan went to Toronto, recovered the long-lost stick and it now forms the most proud of his collections of hockey trophies, gathered in years of splendid service in the game.
In the famous series between Dentals and Winnipeg Victorias, Dentals won the first game 9-6, but Victorias came back in the second game and had tied the round with a 6-3 score at the end of regular time.
They battled 10 minutes of overtime before Millan battered his way through the Victoria defence and banged in the shot that won the Toronto team the amateur championship of Canada.

OPERATION OF FOX "RACKET" FEARED IN N.B.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 6.—Fox ranchers of the Fredericton district are taking special measures to guard their establishments, with indications that a ring of fur thieves are at work in this part of New Brunswick. The largest haul made here in some time provided the raiders with a $1,000 haul made up of nineteen silver black foxes of good marketable type. The Fredericton firm which suffered the loss, Maritime Black Foxes, Ltd., today offered a reward of $500 for the return of the animals or information leading to the conviction of the perpetrators.
With the large reward as an inducement for the supplying of information, the officials of the company were hopeful that the investigations now being carried out by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police would bear fruit. But up to this afternoon there was no sign of the missing animals or their pelts. The local company, of which W. M. Burns is President, is the largest firm of fox-ranchers in the Fredericton district and the second largest in New Brunswick. Prior to the robbery of a few nights ago, the ranch held 950 animals. The largest fox ranch in the Province and probably in the Dominion is operated in Albert county by P. M. Colpitts, M. P. P.

dividual expression without the relentless control of oligarchy and autocratic power," he said.
During the fifteen years since the Armistice there had been first a measure of recovery then "a mad orgy of speculation resulting in economic collapse and depression. It may seem," the Prime Minister said, "that the struggle was in vain, but it was not entirely so. The same struggle will never have to be fought again because we won the victory."
The League of Nations, the World Court, and the apparent desire of nations to settle their differences without recourse to arms, all arose out of the war, Mr. Bennett said, and were part of the victory.
"It is true that the experiment has not been so successful as I would like," the Prime Minister continued. "But why judge an experiment that is so young? Why look for results so quickly? What is 15 years in the life of a nation?"
The cause for which men fought in the Great War was still in existence—still being struggled for in different ways, Mr. Bennett said. He urged remembrance of the endurance, courage and heroism of those who fought. "They discharged their duty with a distinction that brought immortal fame to

FODEN WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(C.P.)—In the annual battle of the British bands at the Crystal Palace, London, Foden's Motor Works Band won again this year and thus retained the National Brass Bands' Championship. This famous Cheshire band, has now won the national championship four times, in 1910, then in 1930, 1932 and again this year.
Wingate's Temperance Band interrupted Foden's series of victories in 1931 and won on two other occasions. They did not get into the first six in the order of merit this year.
Sir Granville Bantock's "Prometheus Unbound," a work of symphonic proportions, specially written for the contest, proved a searching test-piece. But the promoters of the festival declared that there are 500 bands in Britain today that can stand up to the severest test a composer can devise.

Denies Attempt To Censor Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Gen Hugh S. Johnson said today that "the big gest imitation dead cat" thrown so far by objectors to the N. R. A. is the one about the freedom of the press.
"The United States Government has no intention of attempting to censor or control the newspapers, he told an audience of big business men, industrialists and financiers, and could not do so even if it wanted to."
"I do not believe in any restrictions whatever on the press today," Johnson said. "I am now going to take an official step which I think will level this silly bugaboo forever."

In a honey storage test at the Dominion Bee Division, Ottawa, no definite spoilage was found in samples after three years' storage kept in constant temperatures of 40 and 50 degrees F., but two samples spoiled at 60 and four samples at 70 degrees. Samples exposed to fluctuating temperatures below zero to over 100 degrees all fermented.

Gorman Thinks Rearguard Is The Best In League

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Weight and scoring punch on the rear-guard sharpshooting ability up front constitutes Tommy Gorman's idea of the perfect hockey machine.
Planning to this end for the opening of the National Hockey League season a few days away the fiery manager of the Chicago Blackhawks experiments with great rapidity on the University of Illinois rink where the Hawks are training.
A POWERFUL DEFENSE
He has let it be known he believes the backline combination he is sweet on is just about the best to be found anywhere. Gorman plans to have Charlie Gardiner back in the goal cage. The Winnipeg Scot is in much better shape than he was last year when he suffered from ailing tonsils which have been ejected from his constitution.
Out front to keep the snipers away from Gardiner, Gorman is relying firstly on Lionel Conacher and Art Coulter, the husky youngster, who became somewhat of a sensation last year.
Gorman secured Conacher by sending Teddy Graham and a bundle of cash to Montreal Maroons, and no one can tell the former Ottawa he got any worse of the deal.
He counts on Conacher to add the weight and scoring punch to the Hawk defensive system, something he claims was sadly lacking last season. Conacher led the Canadian group defencemen in successful sniping the previous campaign.
Alternating on the defense will probably be the huge Taffy Abel and Roger Jenkins. The latter has been used mainly as a forward since coming from Toronto Maple Leafs three seasons ago but has

SPEEDY AS EVER

The Hawks have always been noted for their speed and Gorman has all the old ice burners back with a few new ones the Hawks scouts have reported favorably on.
With Paul Thompson flanked by Johnny Gotselig and Lola Couture, the Chicago mentor has three of Western Canada's best products as his number one trio. All are fast, experienced and keen shots.
Three minute tricks of ice duty is Manager Gorman's idea on the path to hockey success and he will send Harold "Mush" March, Tommy Cook and Donnie McFayden right out to wear down the opposition after the first three have served their spasm.
There still is doubt as to whether McFayden can hold his berth as a flashy youngster named Art Merrill, has been giving him a stout tussle for the position.

UNDECIDED ON TRIO

Rivalling Toronto Maple Leafs famous "kid line" is a three-some from the American Association, Jack Leswick, Bob Kendall and Louis Napoleon Trudel. Concerning this trio, however, Gorman has still to decide. They appear to fit perfectly in the Blackhawk system but Gorman has three others in camp who are displaying fine pre-season form. These are Tom Coulter, brother of Art, Walter Brennehan and Elwyn (Doc) Rommes, veteran of major and minor league campaigns.
Joe Starke of Toronto, who has seen plenty of service in the International and Canadian-American Leagues, will serve as reserve goalkeeper.

The Falcons and their country."
Remembrance of the mothers, wives, sweethearts and sisters who suffered the loss of their loved ones in the Great War, and of the survivors who were spared to return, was the privilege and duty of Canadians, Mr. Bennett said.
"Proof that this young nation has not been unmindful of its obligations to those who sacrificed and returned, and the dependents of those who died, may be seen," the Prime Minister said, "in the fact that last year nearly one eighth of the total revenue of the country went to maintain the country's responsibilities to ex-service men and soldier dependents."

A PYORRHEA specialist made THIS toothpaste

Of course it is MORE THAN A TOOTH PASTE

There is a reason for this double-duty toothpaste, a reason that appeals to all men and women who are interested in keeping their teeth.

Nobody today believes that simple polishing is all that is needed to keep healthy teeth. When teeth "come out" there is a deeper cause than the mere cleanliness or non-cleanliness of the enamel.

Watch your gums as well as your teeth. Half of the adult teeth lost are due to pyorrhea. Dr. R. J. Forhan specialized in this disease. He spent twenty-six years in his chosen work and produced the toothpaste which bears his name—"Forhan's."

Brush your teeth and massage your gums with Forhan's. Follow the directions in the package. Trust Forhan's to keep your teeth white and glistening. Even for this purpose there is no finer toothpaste made. But that is only one duty of Forhan's. Its other duty is to protect your gums.

Dentists all over the country are using the professional formula of Dr. Forhan in treating pyorrhea and Forhan's Toothpaste preserves the same scientific principle for preventive hygiene at home. Forhan's is a pleasant-tasting, agreeable toothpaste for general family use. It is pure and mild—liked by the children. But remember: "It's more than a toothpaste." Large tube. Lasts long time.
