Word was received recently of the death of Rev. Bernard MacDonald in Calgary, Alta. Deceased was born in Little Pond and received his early education there; later he taught school in Little Pond before studying for the priesthood. He served as chaplain in World War I and then returned to his priestly duties as parish priest in Calgary, Alta., where he remained until his death. The following brothers and sisters survive: Isabella, a Sister St. Egebert, Mattie and Allister in Montreal; Joe K. in Manitoba, Charles S. and John C. in Little Pond. The entire community offer their sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

"KISS IN THE DARK" CO-STARS DAVID NIVEN, JANE WYMAN

Sparkling romance is presented by David Niven and Jane Wyman in Warner Bros. picture, "Kiss in the Dark," which opens today at the Prince Edward Theatre. A romantic tale set against Manhattan background, the protagonists are a timid concert pianist, a fast-talking advertising model and an eccentric but gay apartment house owner in the person of the inimitable Victor Moore.

Great interest surrounds Jane's appearance in this fable. After the stark drama of "Johnny Belinda", in which she portrayed the unforgettable role of the deaf mute, and won wide acclaim and many honors, this light frothy assignment in "Kiss in the Dark", comes as a marked contrast. As Polly, Jane is forthright, a complete realist, and she sheds no tears. Instead she's breezy, sparkling and adept at gay repartee.

With "Kiss in the Dark", Niven returns to Warner Bros. as a star, where once he made two important steps upward into the stellar field.

BLACKHEADS

Go quickly by a simple method that dissolves them. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from your druggist, apply with a wet wash cloth gently over the blackheads, and you will wonder where they have gone.

What might have been a serious accident occurred last Saturday when Donald Ross, son of Mrs. Reta Ross, who was fishing, fell into the river, but quick action of other boys rescued him and except for a bad fright and a wetting, was none the worse for his accident.

Spring is here at long last. Honking squadrons of wild geese have arrived in an ever increasing number.

In "The Charge of the Light Brigade" and "Dawn Patrol." Here he is cast as a prodigy who has developed into a world famous artist, but whose life has been narrower by his work and his music. He is startled into a 'new world' by the invasion of Jane and the apartment house called Cleopatra Arms, an unusual place which overflows with community spirit.

Victor Moore, veteran funster and stage, screen and radio, plays the apartment owner. Morris is cast as a loud mouth, overpowering insurance salesman, always ready to swing his fist. Crawford is a hot-tempered tenant trying to get some sleep. Max Steiner directed the music frame for the picture.

With such an active executive,
