SKATES SHARPENED at Weeks and Burns. 6422-3-61

OLD SYDNEY SCREEN COAL—The steamer Watacu will arrive here Saturday with a cargo of 2500 tons of Old Sydney Screen coal for A. Pickard and Company. 6424-3-31

WE SHARPEN SKATES, not grind them. Weeks and Burns. 6423-3-661

OIL WELL PROGRESS—According to the official record kept of the progress made in drilling at the oil well on Governor's Island, last evening they had descended to a depth of forty one feet, red sandstone in which the boring started, being encountered all the way.

LARGE RUM SEIZURE—Yesterday afternoon prohibition agents made a large haul on St. Peter's Island in the "capacity" of 150 gallons of rum in ten gallon kegs. The seizure was removed to the city yesterday evening. The above "haul" is in the vicinity of $3,000.

COAL BOAT IN—The S. S. Coban, of the British Empire Steel Co., Capt. Lewis in command, arrived in port last evening with a full cargo of 1500 tons of Sydney coal for W. D. Gillis and Co. She will likely be discharged by Saturday, when she will leave on return to Sydney. Years ago the Coban used to call at Charlottetown regularly.

LATE SHIPPING—The first steamer to enter this port in 1925 was the S. S. Beuze, which arrived here for Carvell's on April 15. Probably the last ship to leave this port will also be a boat for which Carvell's are the agents, namely, the S. S. Ceuta, which is due here on the 7th. or 8th. of December, and will load a cargo for St. John's Newfoundland. And it is not only in this respect that Carvell's are endeavoring to uphold the name of Charlottetown as a port of call. During the season there have been no less than twenty-two steamers that have tied up at their wharf. Last evening the S. S. Pevrill, another steamer for Carvell's, anchored in the stream, and today she will begin loading a cargo of general produce for St. John's. She left Montreal last Friday and encountered bad weather on the trip down the St. Lawrence. Carvell's expect two more steamers here before the close of navigation, the Ceuta, as already mentioned, and the Sable, which will arrive here from Halifax on Saturday and take a cargo to the west coast of Newfoundland.

RESULTS

VERY SUCCESSFUL HIGH TEA AT ST. PETER'S—Yesterday's High Tea and sale of work at St. Peter's Church, was the most successful that the ladies of that congregation have ever held, and netted the encouraging sum of $1190. The Tea was splendidly patronized. The women of St. Peter's have been working since June in preparation for the sale, and their efforts have been crowned with overwhelming success.

CAR HITS HORSE—Yesterday evening a commercial man driving an automobile collided with a horse and wagon on Elm Avenue and strange to relate the escape of the latter was to say the least miraculous as the latter was negotiating in the centre of the street. Considering the amount of damage done the wrong was soon righted and both went on their way in peace.

MISSING BOY FOUND—The Guardian is pleased to be able to report that Arthur Murray, the fifteen year old boy who has been missing from home since Monday afternoon, was picked up yesterday by his father and Mr. Harry Porter on the Mt. His parents are grateful to all who took part in the search on foot and by car for the missing lad.

OIL WELL PHOTOGRAPHS SHOWN—Considerable attention was drawn yesterday by the fine photos taken at the oil well camp on Tuesday, now on exhibition in the show window of Bayer's studio. The photographs include the landing of the visiting party, scenes in the dining room, while the visitors were at lunch, some views of the buildings and derrick, and the interesting scene in which the drilling was started. In this latter photo appear, among others, Chief Justice Matheson, Premier Stewart, who officiated at the inauguration, Mr. Stuntz, Mr. Poinsett, and Mr. Gonzales, American Consul.

Tribute To Rev. G. C. Taylor

They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever.

The ministry of the Rev. G. C. Taylor is written in too many hearts today, ever to be forgotten, and the great work he has inaugurated and the deep impression he has wielded for good in Charlottetown, speaks more than volumes of praise, by all classes all over the province. As a gifted orator, possessing a powerful voice, he adds that of a manner characterized by great freedom and fearlessness, intensely earnest and strikingly natural.

To this can be added the influence of thrilling description, touching anecdotes, all used to illustrate and enforce the deep earnest home truths of the Bible. We truly have seen a combination of elements which make up a preacher of wonderful attraction and marvellous power. Those noted characteristics as a preacher, has had a most wonderful influence upon the church, and although he began his ministry under trying circumstances and encountered many difficulties, yet his pastorate here has been crowned with success.

That the blessing of God followed him and the noble hand of generous, willing workers, is clearly evidenced by the magnificent church edifice which adorns our city today.

When the war broke out, he without reluctance or sorrow, turned his back upon personal comfort, companionship, and the privileges of life in the city to go to the battle front, where he could make a greater sacrifice, and render a higher service for his Lord and Master.

As an army chaplain, he was extremely popular and affectionate among the boys, and rejoices many times over the victories won by his noble comrades.

Struggles between life and death were tremendous realities for many months, but his victory was gained in speaking for God with the angels of heaven listening, and to find gratification in forgetting self, and administering to those in need and distress.

For his great achievements and extreme interest to Island heroes, he is loved and revered by all classes and creeds.

Kings have come and gone, empires have risen and crumbled, Egypt with its ancient mysteries has passed away, Greece with its wise view, its mighty philosophers have almost been forgotten, and the great Roman Empire has passed into oblivion, but the record of a great and noble life will continue to be an inspiration to others.

As the Lord will one day appear in glory and majesty, attended by all the holy angels, so will also the sons of God stand forth in their kingliness, a circle of glorified heirs, with Jesus in the centre. The world will then discern between the righteous and the wicked, and they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, when I make up my jewels.

The congregation of Zion Church are deeply moved over their minister's departure, and a feeling of sincere regret is expressed on all sides, especially by the children, who are beginning now to realize how much they loved and enjoyed his Christian leadership, and jovial companionship.

Although this beloved pastor leaves his flock to labor in another portion of God's great vineyard, his influence will still live with them, and his memory will never die out of their minds, for whom he lived and labored. He leaves behind him a monument of virtue, that the storms of time can never destroy. His name, and noble deeds, will be as legible on the hearts he leaves behind, as the stars on the brow of evening. Good deeds will surely shine as the stars of Heaven.

ONE OF HIS FRIENDS.

Vienna's Red Army Figured At 10,000

VIENNA, Dec. 2.—The present strength of the "Schutzbund," Vienna's Socialist army, is given as 10,000 men, "prepared to sacrifice their lives for the proletariat," by its organizer and chief, Dr. Deutsch former Minister of War, at a monster mass meeting which is one of a series the Socialists are holding to put pressure on the Government to extend the law forbidding an increase in arms.

Dr. Deutsch, who also enjoys the strategic position of being inspector of the Austrian army, is known as the local Trotsky. The smallness of the figure he gives occasions surprise, as it was generally believed the "Schutzbund" was at least twice as strong—certainly more powerful than the national army, many soldiers of which also are Socialists.

Dr. Deutsch, after boasting that the Red Guard was stronger than all other such unofficial military organizations, supported by the bourgeoisie, declared its dissolution would be considered only when these rivals had been dissolved. Chief among these are the "Front Kaempfer," composed of veterans almost as well disciplined as the "Schutzbund," the "Helmatwehr," peasants' home guard, numerous but scattered and the Hackenkrenzer," pan-Germanists allied to the Hitler organization, which here is weak. None of them, including the "Schutzbund," is supposed to be armed, but all are believed to be.

Dr. Deutsch told his followers
