KINDNESS APPRECIATED.—Much commendation is due Mr. Ben Acorn who was instrumental in organizing the party consisting of Mrs. Jack McNair, Mrs. R. Gillis and Mrs. Harry Porter who yesterday visited the P. E. Island Protestant Orphanage where they presented the kiddies with a delightful treat of ice-cream and sweets. "Ed" also comes in for some credit as it was he who supplied and packed the crystalized cream. The visit of the party will not be forgotten by the little ones who certainly appreciate these acts of kindness. They will shortly pay a visit to the other orphanage.

World Wide

tions of work are employed to insure production, which really impose on the workmen a degree of "industrial fatigue" limiting his output.

According to experts at the International Labor Bureau this field of "industrial fatigue" will constitute almost the last word in increasing efficiency and productiveness.

The English backers of the movement say that since the introduction of the factory system virtually all development has been on the side of machinery, plants and processes, with little or nothing being done to incerase the capacity of the individual workman.

Two examples of industrial fatigue, reported from England are cited as showing the possibilities of world wide research and investigation.

In The Textile Industry.

In the textile industry in England high temperature and a high degree of humidity have been employed for years because it has been demonstrated that they have a beneficial effect on the yarn.

An investigation from the standpoint of industrial fatigue, however, developed the fact that if high temperature and humidity are pushed beyond a certtain limit the benefits to the yarn are completely counterbalanced by the degree of fatigue imposed on the weavers who work under such conditions.

A similar situation in the coal mining industry established that the output of miners could be increased fifteen per cent by the installation of an adequate system of lighting to take the place of the headlights miners now wear.

While it has long been known that the worker responds unconsciously and immediately to his physical environment, the World wide research which the Bureau has been asked to undertake will be the first effort to analyze this element to a measurable quantity so that it can be taken into consideration as an established and calculable factor in production.

IN MEMORIAM

GEORGE A. W. ROBERTTSON

The Guardian records with deepest regret the death of Mr. George A. W. Robertson of this city, which occurred Saturday night after an illness of ten days of bronchial pneumonia.

The late Mr. Robertson was a prominent and highly esteemed citizen, a man of the strictest integrity, and his death will be mourned not only by immediate relatives but by all who officially or otherwise had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

He was born sixty-three years ago at Kinloch, Lot 48, and was for forty years an employee, first of the P. E. I. railway and latterly until the time of his death, of the Canadian National Railway.

Beginning in a minor position in the Railway offices here, he climbed to the position of paymaster and later, to that of auditor of the Atlantic division.

In his official capacity he was a favorite among his fellow employees and held the confidence of the management.

He leaves to mourn a widow (nee Isabel Fowie,) two daughters, Mrs. R. Pethick, wife of the Manager of the Royal Bank at Westville, Nova Scotia, (her husband being a son of Dr. Pethick of this city); Mrs. Carty, wife of the Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Halifax, Nova Scotia, and one son, Gordon, in Baltimore, Md. A dearly beloved son, Granthan, predeceased him two months ago. The latter's death deeply affected his father, and no doubt tended to shorten his days.

The funeral takes place today (Tuesday) at 2.30 from the residence of Mr. Henry Smith, 84 Hillsboro Street.

The Guardian extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

MR. JAMES H. WOOD

The funeral of the late James H. Wood took place from his residence, Belmont St., to the R. C. church on Monday morning where Mass was said by the Rev. John A. McDonald, brother-in-law of the deceased, assisted by Rev. P. T. Arsenault, Mont Carmel, Deacon, Rev. Father Smith, of Kinkora, Arch-deacon, Rev. Fr. J. J. McDonald, Master of ceremonies. In the Sanctuary were the Revs. Fr. Monoghan, Miscouche, Fr. McDonald, Hope River and Father Monoghan of Seven Mile Bay. The church was filled to capacity.

The funeral procession was headed by the Knights of Columbus followed by the Town Council, deceased being a prominent member of both. The stores being closed, citizens turned out in general to pay a final tribute to one who was held in respect by all. Rev. J. J. McDonald officiated at the grave.

The pall bearers were Messrs. L. Crewe, E. Gallant, S. Jamieson, Dr. McNeill.

Acknowledgment

The following letter speaks for itself:

Charlottetown, P. E. I.
May 14, 1924.

Mr. Adam Andrew,
699 Brannan St.,
San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Sir:

The Oil Painting "Early Days" was formally presented to the City of Charlottetown at the regular monthly meeting of the City Council held on Monday the 12th inst.

As suggested by you, Mr. F. J. Nash made the presentation in your behalf. The Honourable Murdock MacKinnon, Lieutenant Governor of this Province, addressed the meeting. The speeches of these gentlemen were inspiring and patriotic and had a marked effect on the large audience of citizens that filled the Council Chamber and adjoining hall.

When the presentation ceremony was completed, the assemblage filed past the picture. The words of commendation bestowed on the artist and his subject were mingled with praise and gratitude to yourself for your noble and generous gift.

When the Council resumed regular business, the enclosed resolution was unanimously passed.

We wish to extend across the Continent to you our sincere personal regards and esteem, and hope you may soon revisit your native Province by the sea. We wish to keep in touch with you always. We are proud of you and let us tell you so.

Yours very sincerely,

(Signed) John McKenna,
MAYOR

(Signed) G. P. Nicholson,
CITY CLERK.

Council Chambers, City Hall,
Charlottetown, P. E. I
May 12, 1924.

RESOLVED: That the City Council accept from Adam Andrew, Esq., a native of this Province, the Painting "Early Days" in Charlottetown.

AND FURTHER RESOLVED: That this Council extend its sincere thanks to Mr. Andrew for his noble and generous gift of this picture which in years to come will enhance and exalt the pleasant memories of the days that are gone forever.

Moved by Councillor R. Rattray

Seconded by Councillor George W. McLeod.

How Many Words Beginning With "R" in This Picture?

DON'T DELAY $2,000 AWAITS YOU

EXPLANATION OF THE RULES

It costs nothing to take part and you don't have to send in a single subscription to win a prize. If your list of "R" Words is awarded FIRST PRIZE by the judges, you will win $50.00; but if you would like to win more than $50.00, we are making the following special offer, whereby you can win bigger cash prizes by sending in new yearly subscriptions with remittance to cover, to either The Halifax Herald or The Evening Mail.

This is the plan: Should the Judges award your answer to the "R-Word" Picture first prize, and you have sent in NO subscriptions to either The Halifax Herald or The Evening Mail, you will win $50.00. (See first column in prize list.)

If your answer is awarded FIRST PRIZE by the judges, and you have sent in ONE new yearly subscription to The Halifax Herald, you will win $600.00. (See second column in prize list.)

Or, if your answer is awarded FIRST PRIZE by the judges, and you have sent in TWO new yearly subscriptions to The Halifax Herald you will receive $2000.00 instead of $50.00.

We will give extra amounts on all prizes in the same manner. If your answer is qualified by TWO new yearly subscriptions, and you win second prize, you will receive $800, and so on down. (See third column in prize list.)

CASH PRIZES As Listed Below Will Be Paid To Persons Sending in Winning Lists

RULES OF THE CONTEST

1. Any reader of The Halifax Herald or The Evening Mail—man, woman, or child—is eligible, except employees of both papers and their relatives.

2. Only such nouns commencing with "R" as are found in Webster's New International Dictionary may be used. When the singular is given, the plural cannot be used, and vice versa. The nouns must be the names of some OBJECTS seen in the picture. Abstract words are not to be used. Compound words are not to be used. Hyphenated words are not to be used. No obsolete words may be used. Words described by the dictionary as "slang," "colloquial," "humorous," "vulgar," are not to be used. Words described as foreign are not to be used. It is intended that all the words shall be in good usage in the English language.

3. Any object or article may be used only once; the object or article so named may contain as one or more of its parts other articles or objects which may be legitimately named. No word may be used more than once.

4. In case a tie results from two lists having the same number of words right, the list of these two having the fewest words wrong will receive the award. In the event of an ABSOLUTE tie, the prize will be divided, or a further contest to decide the winner will be submitted, according to the judgment of the management of The Halifax Herald and The Evening Mail.

5. You may write your list with ink or typewriter—not pencil. You must, however, write on only one side of the paper. Your name and address must be at the head of the list.

6. The words in the list must be numbered with ink, beginning with 1. The total number must be placed at the head of your list and the total number must also be written on the upper left side of the face of the envelope.

7. Lists containing more than 30 incorrect words will be disqualified.

8. The decisions of the judges are to be final.

9. The answer having the largest and nearest correct list of names of visible objects shown in the picture that begin with the letter "R" will be awarded first prize, etc., neatness, style, or handwriting having no bearing upon deciding the winner.

10. Candidates may co-operate in answering the puzzle, but only one prize will be awarded to one household; nor will prizes be awarded to more than one of any group outside the family, where two or more have been working together.

11. All answers will receive the same consideration, regardless of whether or not a subscription for either The Halifax Herald or The Evening Mail is sent in.

12. There will be three independent judges, having no connection with The Halifax Herald or The Evening Mail who will judge the answers submitted and award the prizes at the end of the puzzle game; and participants by sending in their list, agree to accept decision of the judges as final and conclusive.

13. All lists must be mailed so that they are postmarked not later than midnight, MONDAY, MAY 26th.

14. All subscriptions to qualify lists for Grand Prize must be in by SATERDAY, MAY 31st.

15. Address the envelope to

"Best Thing in the World For Delicate Girls"

Mrs. John Bennett, Boggy Creek, Man., writes: "My little girl had organic nervous trouble, could not sleep, had severe headaches and fainting spells. This went on for three years, and three doctors helped her very little. After reading of what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food had done for others, I got some for her. She is now so well that she is like a different child. She is fourteen years old and looks the picture of health.

"We have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for different members of the family, when recovering from "flu" and scarlet fever, and it has always helped them."

MAKE GIRLS SALUTE CRADLE, URGES BISHOP.

LONDON, May 19.—"If I had my way I would put a cradle beside the flag on Empire Day and when the girls of the schools came to salute the flag I would make every girl salute the cradle," Lord William Gascoyne-Cecil, Bishop of Exeter, a cousin of Lord Balfour, declared in a speech yesterday.

"What has happened in France in the matter of the falling birth rate" the Bishop continued, "is also happening here. The average family in Devonshire is only slightly over three members."

ONE CONSOLATION

"Beauty has vanished from earth," mourned Cholly Litebrane. "The girl I love has refused my hand and made me miserable."

"Well, you ought to think of somebody other than yourself," replied his insympathetic friend. "The girl probably has made herself happy."—Richmond Times — Dispatch.
