Sea View And Vicinity

The demonstration which was held in the hall at Sea View among the fox ranchers of this and surrounding communities was largely attended on Saturday. Some fine foxes were shown by Roy Woodside, Roy Mill, Asaph Blakney, John Murphy and several others. Mr. E. Monkley of Summerside was the judge and gave a helpful talk on the qualities of a fox. This was greatly appreciated by all.

Many will be sorry to learn that Mr. David Adams is still quite ill and in a serious condition at his home in Sea View.

Mr. Asaph Blakney purchased a fine pair of foxes from Mr. Wesley Paynter, French River, for breeders.

The many friends of Mr. Aubrey Hill are indeed pleased to see him able to be out again following his recent illness.

Mrs. Barlowe, Wellington, is visiting in Sea View the guest of her daughter, Mrs. John Coulson and Mr. Coulson.

The many friends of Mrs. Donald C. McKay are indeed pleased to learn she was able to return to her home in Spring Brook much improved after her operation in Prince Co. Hospital.

TWO MILLION JEWS FOR RESERVATION

(By Louis Lochner)
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
BERLIN, Dec. 3—(AP)—Nearly 2,000,000 Jews in greater Germany and Poland will be transferred to the Jewish reservation in eastern Poland set apart by Adolf Hitler, authoritative sources said today.

The transfer of these people to a segregated district around Nisko on the San River, a small Polish town on the new German-Soviet Russian demarcation line is being carried out under Heinrich Himmler, head of the Elite Guard and chief of all German police.

The following groups of Jews are to be settled there: First, as rapidly as conditions permit; 150,000 from the protectorate of Bohemia-Moravia, 65,000 from Vienna, 30,000 from Posen and West Prussia, recently annexed from Poland, and 200,000 from the "Aleichim"—the German realm as it was before expansion began with the Anschluss of Austria.

Besides, approximately 1,500,000 Polish Jews are to be evicted forcibly from their homes in cities and villages which are to become parts of the new Polish State devised by Hitler.

The Gestapo, or secret police, had laid upon the Jewish community in each town or village the responsibility for organizing and financing the exodus. Each deported Jew may take along 300 marks ($120), only such personal belongings as will go into a large suitcase, and essential household goods, especially bedding, cooking utensils and such tools that would be useful in building barracks and primitive homes.

Towns and villages of the Region around Nisko are being abandoned as quickly as possible by Poles, Germans and Ukrainians, and the dwellings, many showing the effects of the German-Polish war, turned over to the Jews. The Jews are to be strictly segregated from the rest of the people under German jurisdiction.

Germany hopes to complete the resettlement movement by April 1, 1940. Regular transports have started from Vienna and Bohemia-Moravia but nothing apparently has been done yet to move Jews out of the German Reich proper.

In Memoriam

MR. DAVID ANDREWS

Many friends learned with regret of the passing of Mr. David Andrews who died at his home in Wheatley River on September 28, after a short illness. He was 62 years of age, the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrews of North Milton. He was a quiet man with a high character and many qualities won for him the esteem of all who knew him. On June 1st just four months previous to his death his wife Cassie Jane MacLeod was called away. Our hearts go out in sympathy to the grief-stricken family in their double bereavement. Mr. Andrews' mother is lonely indeed. We can only commit them to him who said: "Fear not, I am with you." Be not dismayed, I am thy guide. They are left to cherish the memory of those kind and loving parents, two sons and four daughters. Robert of Brookfield; Mrs. Henry Matheson of Brookfield; Mrs. Wilfrid Wood Brookfield; Mrs. Lemuel Craswell, Hunter River; Malcolm and Effie at home. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Herbert of Wheatley River; Mrs. R. Roberts, Winsloe; Mrs. B. P. Chapin, Andover, Mass.; Mrs. W. Nunn, Cymbric; Mrs. C. Hill, North Andover, Mass.; Mrs. R. Stead, Wheatley River; Emma of Charlottetown; Ashford of North Milton and Mrs. E. Johnston, Winsloe.

The funeral took place from his late residence on October 2nd. The services at the home and grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Blesedell of North River. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery. L-73-12-5-11.

Stalin's Troops Need to be Good Puddle-jumpers to Invade Finland

60,000 Lakes Aid Defense of Little North Country

By THOMAS M. JOHNSON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

Another international David and Goliath tale unfolds as the fearsome shadows of Russia's millions of men and thousands of airplanes and tanks fall across little Finland.

The secret of the Finns' stubborn defiance of Soviet might may lie in this story of the meeting at which Stalin outlined his terms, then grinned:

"How many soldiers can you send against us?"

"One hundred thousand," replied the Finn Paasikivi.

"Why, we can send two hundred thousand the first day."

"Then we will give each of our soldiers two cartridges," grinned the Finn. "And already God has given us sixty thousand lakes."

With their backs to those lakes, four million dour Northerners and women stand to defend their homes built by thrift—thrift in all save courage.

Though Napoleon said that of all military obstacles the most serious were a desert, a mountain range, and a river, he should have added: "And Finland." Neither Holland's rather dilatory floods nor Switzerland's ubiquitous mountains equal Finland's natural defenses.

Finland bristles with trouble for an invader. Her 60,000 lakes form nearly 15 per cent of her area, an interlacing network that makes fighting around them like threading a mystic maze. They afford uncounted thousands of narrow causeways where a few grim Finns with machine guns could stop thousands, even were the shores not abatised with the dense forest that covers 70 per cent of the country. And nearly 20 per cent is tundra, a white hell of snow-covered, marshy plains virtually impassable to armies save when frozen, in dead winter. The Master Strategist has been kind to Finland.

RUSSIA WANTS GULF OF FINLAND

The Russian must attack where they claim Finnish artillery has shelled them—on Finland's southern border at Lake Ladoga. There are railroads and highways there, and slightly fewer lakes; but there, too is what Finland optimistically terms her Maginot Line of fortifications which Russia now suggests she surrender. Russia might attack these fortifications not alone frontally but in flank from the Gulf of Finland, sweeping up the mires counting on brushing aside Finland's air force, and (2) perhaps land's two coast defense ships and (3) perhaps five to five submarines, and presently 500,000 men (mostly militia and ten thousand. Airplanes cannot ill-equipped as to heavy artillery).

First line airplanes may total a hundred against Russia's five to five thousand.

bomb lakes or, effectively, forests—but they can bomb railroads and strategic centers. They could reach Helsinki in 20 minutes from Ballistik or 40 from Kranstad. Quite possibly they could presently reduce Finnish resistance to guerrilla warfare, but the lakes would still be fingers tripping the nerve too nimble feet of the Red Army's transport. To conquer Finland would cost many a rouble, and many a life.

Soviet Russia's obvious desire are for a frontier protecting Leningrad from future attack by some ally or conqueror of Finland, and for island and land bases which would restore to Red Russia the complete domination of the Gulf of Finland that Czarist Russia enjoyed.

What lights the shadows is that Russia also wants Petsamo, Finland's port on the Arctic Sea. Petsamo is outlet for Finland's nickel, of which Russia has none, and has a big, ice-free harbor whence Murmansk could be seized and Russia invaded as British and American troops did in 1918.

DOMINANT RUSSIA WOULD AFFECT OTHERS

Russia, if she is bent on an

The secretary-treasurer gave the financial report showing a balance in hand of $49.56. Sick and school committees gave their reports. Correspondence was read and discussed.

The following officers were elected for the following year.

President, Mrs. Henry Coffin, (re-elected).

Vice-President, Mrs. William Crawford.

Secy Treasurer, Mary I. Hogan. Auditors, Directors and convenors re-appointed.

It was moved and seconded that the teacher purchase globe and price dictionaries.

It was decided to hold a dance in the school on Wednesday, Nov. 15, each member to prepare ten lunches for same.

effort to dominate the Scandinavian peninsula, must consider the possibility of war with Britain whom most of the time since 1918 she has rated her deadliest enemy. If Russia were to obtain a foothold on the Norwegian coast, that would mean a quick outlet for Russian naval power (including nearly 200 submarines) into the Atlantic.

Could Norway stand for that? Could Sweden? Could Britain? Even, perhaps, could Germany—unless she were very sure of Russia, who would then hold at her mercy Germany's supply of Swedish iron?

The questions help to explain Finland's stand—a stand which, she believes, may not be quite alone. But those who know the Finns say they will fight, whether alone or with allies, if Russia forces them. They may again negotiate—which quite possibly is all Russia really wants.

The final answer—whether the Red Army "slims down" or whether it wades into the Finnish lakes—should help to unriddle the great riddle of Stalin's inscrutable plans for the future of the U. S. S. R.—and the world.
