

Heart Palpitation
Dizzy, Sinking Spells

Mrs. M. C. Gagnon, Donatville, Alta., writes: "I have time ago I was very nervous, could not sleep at night, often dizzy, sinking spells and palpitation of the heart, and was so run down I could not do my housework, but just after everything and sit down."

I spent a lot of money using medicine from the doctor, but it did not do me any good.

At last a friend told me to use and after using a couple of boxes I was not the same woman. I began to feel so much better and after a few more boxes I was in perfect health. I always recommend them to all I know who are suffering from heart trouble.

INTERESTING ADDRESS
AT ROTARY YESTERDAY

Value of Science to the Fishing Industry
Pointed Out by Mr. H. E. Tanner, Educationist of the Fisheries Experimental Station, Halifax.

At the Rotary luncheon yesterday, the speaker was Mr. H. E. Tanner, Educationist of the Fisheries Experimental Station. Mr. Tanner took as the subject of a very interesting and instructive address "The Application of Science to the Fishing Industry."

In the course of his address he said: "Recently we read in our papers of the climax of a long series of epoch making inventions, I refer to the radio form. We have reached an age of science, an age in which the marvels of today become the common place of tomorrow. In fact, so rapidly has one invention followed upon another that we cease almost to look upon them as wonders."

Unfortunately in our fishing industry we have yet to go through the experience. The changes in its phases of activity have lagged somewhat behind those of other branches of industry. Whereas scientific methods have added tremendously to the development of the dye and varnish industries, the fisheries today stands in the unenviable position of being without such a history.

There are three types of men in the industry, those who adhere rigidly to methods employed by their forefathers, those who can be called up-to-date, chiefly men of business whose time is employed in improving things as far as it is within their power; thirdly, men of vision who devote their whole energies to the betterment of various phases, are referred to by the scientist.

The scientist, as was said, is a man of vision, a man with an analytical mind and with creative ability. We sometimes view him as a crank. He views us as without vision, the dreamer of the scientist of today becomes a realization of the business man of tomorrow.

For years it has been seen that one of the great hinderances in the way of progress in the industry was the lack of the aid of science. To overcome this handicap, the Biological Board established an Experimental Station at Halifax for the express purpose of investigating questions concerning directly to the welfare of the industry. Committees were formed on such matters as canning, freezing, etc., and on such committees were practical men. These committees suggested the industry, or which the industry, and which they wish to be investigated.

Extensive investigations have been made in the smoking of fish, freezing of fish and in the drying of fish. When it is realized that the Station is less than two years old the record is a very satisfactory one, after most of the problems remain yet to be investigated.

One of the most interesting features is the fact that those in the industry who formerly scoffed at the idea of science assisting them are now eagerly seeking its assistance. Besides the educational side, the growth of the Station has necessitated special attention being given to the practical side. This includes practical demonstrations to fishermen, schools of instruction to hatchery officers and inspectors overseas, and instruction in conversation, canning, and a number of other lines of the work.

Considerable attention has been given in the past to the improvement of the lobster situation on the island. The results have been very encouraging, but owing to changes in the markets and the demand for higher standards, other changes must be made and the future will be attended to as soon as possible.

Of the total fisheries of Prince Edward Island, the lobster stands first with an annual production of the neighbourhood of a million dollars. A large proportion of these are shipped into the remainder of the island. There are a number of features in connection with the lobster industry which should be closely watched and studied. Otherwise, this very important branch of fishing, may in the near future be considerably depleted. With proper enforcement of the regulations, and close watchfulness, any danger will be quite readily averted. From the viewpoint of the lobster itself, the late season of the Northumberland Strait is objectionable. The fish are caught then at one of the most critical periods in their life history and at a time when it is difficult to ensure sufficient conservation of the breeders. The large traps which have recently come into favour threaten to exterminate the larger females, which are the most productive breeders. The canning of late years has showed a very marked improvement, but there are still instances where bad products make

IN MEMORIAM

MR. JOHN HUGH
The death of John Hugh occurred on Thursday at his residence, 292 Wentworth street, nearly John after illness lasting nearly a year. He was formerly of Murray Harbour, P. E. I., and came to St. John about 12 years ago. He leaves to mourn his wife, one son, Leonard M., of Springfield, N. S., and one daughter, Mrs. Walter Atkinson, of Glace Bay, Cape Breton. Mr. Hugh was in his 76th year.

ATTENTION IS CALLED to the fact that the seating capacity of the Prince Edward Theatre is less than that of the Strand and that it will be wise for those who patronize the Burns' Concert to secure their places as early as possible. 3724 11

UNDERWENT OPERATION.—Mr. J. M. Murray, Western Union Telegrapher, received word that his sister, Mrs. J. F. Fraser had undergone an operation at the New England Deaconess Hospital, Boston yesterday. The doctors considered her condition to be satisfactory and anticipate no complication. Mr. J. F. Fraser, accompanied his wife to Boston.

SILVER THAW CAUSES DAMAGE.—The recent silver storm has caused great damage to the telephone toll lines, west of Hunter River. Manager Grant reported the system practically out of commission, between that point and Miramichi and he has no definite information as to conditions beyond. Many poles have been broken down with the weight of ice coated wires and it will likely be a week before full communication is restored. Gangs of linemen are now at work and Mr. Grant has asked to Halifax for a number of experts to help straighten out the tangle. East of Hunter River communication is not affected to any serious extent, it being possible to call up Souris and Georgetown today. Some trouble has been experienced at Wood Islands.

One Of Great Hits Of Year Is "Old Soak"

AN INTENSELY HUMAN PHOTOPLAY

The perfect picture contains drama mixed in perfect proportion with a cast that sincerely portrays its parts.

If a picture lives up to these requirements, it is sure to draw big crowds. Is "The Old Soak" now at the Prince Edward Theatre perfect? The crowd seem to think it is and we can find no fault with this admirable presentation of an old timer at his toying.

This is Jean Hersholt's first starring role and vindicates the decision of Carl Lamme in casting a character actor. Not only has Hersholt the big role in the picture, but he succeeds through the sheer artistry of his acting in grasping the attention of the audience and winning their hearts by his presentation of the man's weakness.

In the picture, from Don Marquis' famous New York stage success, we have presented a dramatic but logical drama of American family life with plenty of comedy. The Old Soak's weakness might as well have been anything—but liquor is his weakness in this picture.

George Lewis and June Marlowe supply the love interest, Lewis being the son and Miss Marlowe a chorus girl.

Edward Sloman has attempted a difficult picture and has succeeded in turning out what we predict will be one of the big successes of this season.

Bobby Vernon in "Dummy Love" kept the audience in continuous laughter throughout the entire two reels.

HOME FROM JUDGING FOXES
Mr. Wendell Worth, special judge acting for the American Silver Fox Institute arrived in the city on Saturday night after a trip of over ten weeks in the United States, where he visited many ranches between Chicago and the coast and scored a large number of foxes. He was in Chicago, Salt-Lake City, Denver, Seattle, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Bate, Montana, and other cities, returning home via Washington and New York. Mr. Worth reports considerable development in the fox industry in the west, especially in the Rocky Mountain States, Colorado, Idaho, Utah, etc. There has been much activity with regard to breeding stock for which high prices are being paid, but very few foxes have been "pelted." 95 per cent of the adult foxes are from Prince Edward Island stock. While away Mr. Worth met a number of Island boys in the fox industry, including Albert Dimins at Idaho Falls, Idaho and Goldie Dimins in Logan, Utah. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dimins, Charlottetown.

THE MARKETS

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 17.—There was some demand for foreign buyers for wheat over the weekend on the Montreal market and sales of a few loads were made to both the United Kingdom and the continent. The trade in cash grain in the domestic market was again of a limited character. The demand being only for odd cars to meet immediate wants. The market for oats weaker and prices were reduced 1 1/2c per bushel. Car lots of No. 2 Canadian Western were quoted at 75c. No. 3 C.W. at 67c per bushel. Prices for all grades of spring and winter wheat were lower. The market was maintained under a quiet demand. The milled market was fairly active and the undertone was firm. The market for standard grades of rolled oats was quiet, but steady. The undertone to the egg market continued firm on account of the light receipts and prospects are that prices will go higher shortly. The receipts were 222 cases. The demand for potatoes was fair and were steady. Car lots of Prince Edward Island green mountains were quoted at $1.85 to $1.90 per bag of ninety pounds, and Quebec white stock at $1.50 per bag of ninety pounds in bulk extra-truck.
