CHING—GARRETT—The atmosphere of eastern Prince Edward Island has been a thrill for some weeks over the approaching marriage of Miss Ena Garrett of East Baltic and Mr. Clarence Ching of Little Harbor.
On Tuesday, November the twelfth, this popular young couple motored to North River, where they were united in marriage by Rev. Wallace MacWalker. The parlor of the mansion was decorated for the occasion, the prevailing colors being white and green. While the ceremony was being read, the bride and the bridegroom stood under an arch of geraniums interwined with white ribbons and from which was suspended a large white bell. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Garrett and she occupies a large place in the hearts of many friends because of her genuine goodness and of her talents which she uses to bring happiness into the lives of others. The bridegroom is a son of the late Peter Ching and Mrs. Ching of Little Harbor. He is aggressive and successful in his vocation as farmer. May their pathway be one of shining light, their lives crowned with favors that their type of young womanhood and young manhood so richly merit.

IN MEMORIAM

FERDINAND McAULAY

Since sorrow and regret was felt by Cardigan and surrounding districts when the Angel of Death claimed one of its most respected citizens in the person of Ferdinand McAulay, after a lingering illness, at the age of 73 years. All that kind nursing could do was done, but God willed otherwise and on September 20th, fortified by the Sacraments of the Holy Catholic Church, administered to him by his beloved pastor, Rev. Father Rooney, and also special blessings bestowed from our newly ordained priest, Rev. Father Joseph Campbell who visited him frequently during his illness and surrounded by his sorrowing family he calmly and peacefully breathed his last.

Deceased by his friendly disposition won the love and respect of both old and young and in the home he was a kindly host, not only to his wide circle of friends, but the weary traveller partook of his hospitality and always found a generous giver. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow, who was formerly Flora McLellan, St. Georges, three sons, James, Hugh and Roderick, also an adopted daughter, Anna.
One son Aeneas made the supreme sacrifice in the Great War. He also leaves one brother Andrew, and one sister Mrs. Alexander Morrison of Georgetown Royalty.

The funeral was held on the 22nd, and was one of the largest ever held at All Saints Church. The services at the Church and grave were performed by Rev. Father Joseph Campbell. The pall-bearers were:
Andrew Redmond, Henry Green, Francis Campbell, Charles Grieve,
John J. McDonald and John Wilson.
(May his soul rest in peace.)

A-ha-a-a!

NOT exactly his regular face... but who couldn't forgive any ordinary, everyday man for giving way to his feelings when a plate of steaming, tempting CLARK'S CHICKEN SOUP is placed before him.

Plump chickens... healthy chickens... the kind there used to be when the old open fire in the kitchen did all the cooking... a juicy, tender chicken swinging to and fro
... the flames eagerly licking around it
... the gravy oozing out...

A-a-a-ah! a soup made from chickens such as those... wouldn't you love ... don't you crave it... then, why don't you have it? It's here—in Radio designed and built by Marconi engineers. And you get it in the new Triumph Marconi to a degree never realized before.

Operative simplicity too. Reliability guarantees that. Cabinet beauty to boast about, setting a new and vastly higher standard in harmonious design ... smart, vespish, elegant.

Until you've seen this new Triumph Marconi Radio, until you've heard it, you cannot fully realize what Marconi research has accomplished in creating Radio that surpasses all previous standards.
