Other steamers have been sent to the assistance of the Electra.—Halifax Exc. (The Electra is a frequent caller at this port.)

Rev. L. J. Wason, of Winsloe, having been hurt in a carriage accident was not able to take his work on Sunday. The services at North Winsloe and Princeton Road were taken by Rev. Wm. Harrison and that at South Winsloe by Rev. Elias Slackford, who in spite of his eighty years and more, preached with zeal and power from the text "And Enosh walked with God, and was not, for God took him."

A. J. McQuarrie, manager of the West End St. John branch, has been appointed manager of the Bank of New Brunswick at Moncton, filling the vacancy caused by the death a few days ago of A. E. Williams. C. S. Tompkins, who is at present acting as manager of the Fredericton office in the absence of W. E. Jardine, has been appointed manager of the West End branch in St. John.—Exc. (Mr. Tompkins referred to is well known here.)

A special train with sixty members of the Charlottetown Council K. of C., left Charlottetown on Monday at one p. m., for Summerside where the first degree of the order was conferred on twenty-five candidates from Summerside and the western portion of the Island. After the degree work the members attended service in St. Paul's Church. At 8.30 p. m., the Summerside members entertained the brethren to a very enjoyable smoker, enlivened by musical numbers by Prof. Whitney, A. E. Arsenault, Dr. McLennan and others equally competent members of the Council.

Many friends in this city and province will be shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. McAlpine, wife of Dr. L. A. McAlpine, which occurred at her home, 131 Princess Street, yesterday forenoon. Mrs. McAlpine, accompanied by her husband, had been visiting in New York. On Monday last she contracted a severe cold which soon developed into pneumonia. Dr. McAlpine immediately returned with her to St. John, arriving here on Tuesday evening. In spite of the best medical attendance and nursing Mrs. McAlpine continued to grow worse until she passed away yesterday afternoon. She was a daughter of the late Rev. Job Shenton. Her mother survives her, and also one sister, Mrs. Sarah Gronlund, of this city. The funeral services will take place at 131 Princess Street tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.—St. John Exc. (Mrs. McAlpine was well known here.)

British Cough Cure is a safe pleasant and effectual remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, and all affections of the throat, Lungs, and Chest. It has stood the test for a number of years and is in greater demand than ever. Sold in its merits, 25c bottle.—E. A. Foster, Central Druggstore.

J. J. Hughes, M. P., Souris, was in the city yesterday.

W. A. and Mrs. Faquet, Souris, were in the city yesterday.

A surprise party is to be held tonight at the home of John A. Mallett, Union Road, Lot 33.

Miss Jeanette Gunn, Boston, is spending a couple of weeks with her mother, Mrs. Angus Gunn, Head of Hillsboro.

All should remember the Bowling Tournament in aid of the P. E. I. Hospital, which is to be held in the Y. M. C. A.

Charles Sayre, of Tacna, Wash., a native of New Brunswick, and who has been spending some days with Moncton friends, left this afternoon for P. E. Island.—Exc.

Rev. C. H. and Mrs. Talmay of Lockeport, are the guests of Rev. H. W. and Mrs. Cunningham, St. George's Rectory, on their way home to Lockeport, after a pleasant vacation in Prince Edward Island.—Exc.

The Casapedia arrived in port yesterday at noon from Montreal. She brought a large general cargo and sailed for Pictou. She returns to this port this afternoon and after loading a large cargo for Montreal will sail about midnight.

Miss Myrtle Crawford, who has been visiting friends in Moncton, left yesterday for Shédiac, where she will spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gardiner, before returning to her home in Middleton, Prince Edward Island.—Moncton Exc.

The marriage will take place in December in Victoria, B. C., of Helen, only daughter of Hon. Fred Peter's, K. C., ex-premier of Prince Edward Island, and Mr. Dewdney, of Roseland, B. C., nephew of Hon. E. Dewdney, ex-governor of British Columbia.—Exc.

Exception is taken to the Guardian's item on Friday last re the price of milk, but it merely referred to those vendors in Charlottetown whose regular charge has been five cents per quart until recently, when they raised it to six cents and later lowered it to five owing to the stir among householders.

Owing to the removal of the Guardian to new premises, members of the staff for some days past have been working under difficulties and news contributors have not in all cases been handled so promptly, as heretofore. In a few days all will be in good working order again and in the meantime contributors and correspondents will please be patient.

Grandview Hall was crowded Monday night at the first political meeting held in connection with the coming by-election in the Belfast district. Daniel Gillis was chairman and was a very efficient one. The speakers in their order were: Dr. James McPhail, the Conservative candidate; Alex. Martin, J. A. Mathison, leader of the opposition, Dr. Andrew McPhail and Dr. J. McPhail a second time. Each spoke for about half an hour.

A preliminary investigation into the stranding of the steamer Strathorne was held by Captain W. R. Luga last week. It was found that the Strathorne went ashore at Eastern Harbor last month, owing to the breaking of her rudder, while assisting the Electra, which also went ashore disabled. A formal investigation will probably be unnecessary.—Exc. (Both steamers referred to have been regularly on routes between P. E. I. ports and the mainland.)

Farm For Sale

William Laird of Cavendish offers for sale his valuable farm. It contains 100 acres of land with buildings. The residence is a comfortable house. The barns are roomy and have lately been remodelled. The land runs down to the shore, and there is situated on it an up-to-date obster factory which may or may not be purchased with the farm as desired. From it and from kelp which gathers on the shore there is a large supply of valuable fertilizer. There is a cranberry bog which yields largely. The farm is in excellent heart. It is about 1/4 mile from church and school. This is a rare opportunity for anyone wishing to purchase a splendid property in a most desirable locality. 10-2000awp.
