From the Toronto News

Scotia and Eastern Car Company

Sir Henry Pellatt has in his mind a dry dock and shipbuilding yard at Sydney, but as soon as he has his ships ready for commission, Mr. Thomas Cantley will be prepared to equip the vessels with the finest guns in the world. In that day possibly every province in the Dominion will be represented in the Imperial Navy by a vessel bearing its name and what is more, every vessel can be built in Canada and armed in Canada.

Mr. Cantley entered the services of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company twenty-seven years ago as a sales agent. At that time the capitalization of the concern was less than $150,000, there is now invested in it over $12,000,000. Mr. Cantley, who has been with the company in all the important stages of its growth, has been the chief administrative officer for the past eleven years.

LETTER TO THE FARMER

The business of farming is in the most critical period of its development. Both the working farmer and the investor in farm lands and securities are seriously studying how to turn farm products into net profits.

There are thousands of farmers in Prince Edward Island alone. In it is not hard to believe that one of every five read a farm paper at all.

Only one in five! The other four need the instructions given by farm papers.

The Guardian management has completed arrangements with the publishers of The Canadian Countryman so that this excellent weekly magazine will be mailed FREE for one year to any subscriber of the Guardian who remits a year's subscription in advance according to instructions on first page.

The Canadian Countryman is published weekly at Toronto, Canada, and has branch offices at Winnipeg, Vancouver, Regina and Montreal.

A. L. McCredie, B.S.A., B.A., is Editor in chief and Henry Stritt B.S.A., Agricultural Editor.

Board of Directors are as follows: Z. A. Lash, LL.D., Toronto, President; Sir Edmund Walker, Banker, Toronto; Nelson Monteith, B.S.A., farmer, Stratford; Thomas DeWorth, farmer, Weston; Walter James, farmer, Rosser, Man.; W. J. Glass, farmer, McLeod, Alta.; A. G. Hopkins, V.S. farmer, Bratton, Sask. 10-17MEH.

SOURIS EAST AND MONTAGUE

"It pays to buy in this Province. There was opened at Montague last week a branch of Jardines' bookstore, Summerside. It is in charge of Miss Mills.B.

"Rev. Dan McLean and wife, Charlottetown, were passengers by Saturday's evening train to Montague where he conducted services yesterday.B.

"The S. S. Enterprise arrived in Montague from Pictou Saturday morning with a full cargo of way freight and left again in the afternoon with a full cargo of produce.—B

"The following registered at the McDonald Hotel, Montague, between 7 Saturday night and 7 the previous night:—W. C. Cormeac, St. John; P. S. Hammond, Truro; J. W. Adams, W. Toronto.—B.

"The approaches to the bridge at Montague is everything else but pleasant on account of the mud. Citizens expected the new Bridge would be completed about Nov. 15th; but at present it looks as though we will see Jack Frost a good many times before completion. The citizens of Montague feel as though they are entitled to a sidewalk at least.B.

"A Dundas correspondent writes that Mrs. Patrick Hennessey, who has been visiting friends in Boston and other American cities, arrived home on Thursday.—Our starch factory suspended operations for this reason having made into starch 35000 bush potatoes. There is still stored in the farmers' cellars a large quantity of potatoes awaiting shipment.—Cumberland Hill School House has undergone a thorough cleaning and repairing, thanks to the efficient P. S. Inspector, Mr. Mullens, who wants school rooms kept as they should be. Edwin Clay has completed an up-to-date fox ranch on his farm at Bridgetown. Norman J. McLeod while sawing wood with a circular had the misfortune to cut his fingers severely. Dr. Morris dressed the wounds and the best report he was doing nicely.—All the boys who went out on the harvest excursion from this part have returned. They report the weather cold in the Canadian West.

"The meeting of the King's Co. Temperance Alliance was held in Montague Thursday, Nov. 21st, the President William McLeod occupying the chair. The first business was the election of officers, Rev. F. A. Wightman, Souris, was elected President, Vice-Presidents, Rev. Mr. McNeill, Bridgetown, E. Clay and Theodore Robertson, East Point, D. L. McKinnon re-elected Secretary and Treasurer. The new President resumed office and called upon Mr. Mead, the prosecutor who gave an account of his work and some of its difficulties. Six convictions was the record which he gave for the past three months work. The following resolutions were submitted as Amendments to the P. E. Island Prohibition Act: That any drug store which has been convicted of selling intoxicating liquors unlawfully lose their privilege of selling by certificate. Also that the quantity of liquors kept by any drug store on its premises be restricted, and that this Alliance pledge its support to the Prosecutor, Mr. Mead as long as he performs his duties diligently. Prosecutor Mead submitted a report, which showed considerable work, and an enormous amount of trouble in dealing with witnesses. The meeting closed to meet again at 7.30 p. m. for public meeting. The public meeting held Thursday night was well attended and the meeting was opened at 7.30 by the ex-president, Wm. McLeod. The first speaker was Rev. John Lord and his address was most interesting and logical and he showed the relation of intemperance to the economic system. The next speaker was the Rev. Mr. Miller and his address was indeed the finished product. He dealt with the problem of intemperance from the standpoint of our relationship to this evil showing how we are so closely related to it. Rev. Daniel Wright spoke of the trouble of the enforcement of the law and of the terrible effects of this vile traffic. Rev. W. D. Wilson spoke on the social side of life in Montague. Showing the ravages of intemperance and related instances of every day in the village. Rev. A. Hornwood sang a solo and spoke along the same lines as brother Wilson. The president then gave anyone an opportunity to speak, but there being no response he called upon the Rev. Mr. Miller who closed the meeting with prayer.B.

"There passed away at Elmira, Lot 47, at the residence of her daughter Mrs. James Mellick on the 18th inst. Jane, relict of the late Gamaliel Jarvis. Born some 84 years ago at Lock Rannoch, Perthshire, Scotland, she came to the Island with her father's family, the late John Stewart of Red Point in 1835, in the brig Phoenix of Dublin sailing from Tobermory, Isle of Man. Another passenger was the late Hon. Angus MacMillan. Mrs. Jarvis was the last survivor of her family, and the last of the immigrants from Perthshire, Scotland, who settled in the eastern part of this Island in the early years of the last century. She leaves to mourn one son, John Jarvis, East Baltic, and three daughters, viz: Mrs. James Mellick, Elmira; Mrs. Stephen Mellick, Elmira, and Mrs. McMaisters, Bristol. Two sons and two daughters predeceased her.

Showing the ravages of intemperance and related instances of every day in the village. Rev. A. Hornwood sang a solo and spoke along the same lines as brother Wilson. The president then gave anyone an opportunity to speak, but there being no response he called upon the Rev. Mr. Miller who closed the meeting with prayer.B.

"The meeting of the King's Co. Temperance Alliance was held in Montague Thursday, Nov. 21st, the President William McLeod occupying the chair. The first business was the election of officers, Rev. F. A. Wightman, Souris, was elected President, Vice-Presidents, Rev. Mr. McNeill, Bridgetown, E. Clay and Theodore Robertson, East Point, D. L. McKinnon re-elected Secretary and Treasurer. The new President resumed office and called upon Mr. Mead, the prosecutor who gave an account of his work and some of its difficulties. Six convictions was the record which he gave for the past three months work. The following resolutions were submitted as Amendments to the P. E. Island Prohibition Act: That any drug store which has been convicted of selling intoxicating liquors unlawfully lose their privilege of selling by certificate. Also that the quantity of liquors kept by any drug store on its premises be restricted, and that this Alliance pledge its support to the Prosecutor, Mr. Mead as long as he performs his duties diligently. Prosecutor Mead submitted a report, which showed considerable work, and an enormous amount of trouble in dealing with witnesses. The meeting closed to meet again at 7.30 p. m. for public meeting. The public meeting held Thursday night was well attended and the meeting was opened at 7.30 by the ex-president, Wm. McLeod. The first speaker was Rev. John Lord and his address was most interesting and logical and he showed the relation of intemperance to the economic system. The next speaker was the Rev. Mr. Miller and his address was indeed the finished product. He dealt with the problem of intemperance from the standpoint of our relationship to this evil showing how we are so closely related to it. Rev. Daniel Wright spoke of the trouble of the enforcement of the law and of the terrible effects of this vile traffic. Rev. W. D. Wilson spoke on the social side of life in Montague.
