TORONTO, Oct. 1—(CP)—Gold stocks recorded a new high for the year at the end of today's Toronto Exchange Market, gaining 74 in the index. Western Oils were down 21. Volume was fairly heavy at 2,642,000 shares.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1—(CP)—Grain futures continued their strong forward movement today, advancing more than a cent a bushel in many cases to new seasonal peaks for wheat, rye, and September, 1946 oats.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 1—(CP)—Wheat futures advanced in the trade were sharply reduced near the close of the session in rye futures trading on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today. Trading interest in the market appeared light.

MONTREAL, Oct. 1—(CP)—Prices on average, particularly for selected industrials, papers and liquors, moved up in trading today on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market. Industrials and papers went to new eight-year highs in the index. Adjustments generally were small.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1—(AP)—The Stock Market today jumped into October on one of the fastest sessions of recent months with the average again posting new highs for more than eight years.

While steel, oils a few rails and assorted "blue chips" exhibited strength from the start, the principal activity was in low quoted utilities which appeared in 1,000 to 32,000 share blocks.

MIRACLES of MAKE-DO

Is there a man's discarded suit hanging in a cupboard in your house?
 Perhaps it's threadbare in places or a little shabby at the elbows. Maybe the man of the house is just tired of it. More probably he's keeping it only because "it may come in handy some time."
 Whatever the reason, the suit should be in use. With a little effort, you may be able to put new life into it. If not, look into its re-make possibilities.
 He'll howl when you ask for it—you can depend on that. Men seem to like old clothes the best.
 So be diplomatic. Show him this grand array of warm, comfortable, up-to-the-minute clothing you can make from it for yourself or the children, and watch him change his mind. Patterns are available at the stores.
