Presentation

A gathering of more than passing interest was held in the DeGros Mares school-house, Feb. 19th, when the members of the Potato Growers Association of St. George's Parish, presented Mr. E. B. McLaren, association Director and manager at Georgetown, with the following address, accompanied with a well filled purse.

Mr. McLaren, who was present by invitation to attend a potato meeting was taken very much by surprise. However, he made a very fitting reply to the honor shown him, but pointed out to the large number present, that it was not for the hearty co-operative spirit of the growers, together with the assistance from the President and Secretary of the association, the untiring efforts of your Inspector Mr. E. B. Jay, your popular and capable captain and Engineer of the Ferry, your obliging C. N. R. agent at Georgetown. It would be impossible to bring about the pleasing results attained.

Continuing McLaren spoke in part: "The spirit of the meeting—good-fellowship, every member in line, an up-to-date association, and Co-operation—How we have worked together, growers, your secretary, inspectors, etc., etc., a pull all together."

"Organization—How we have organized, how we can improve by getting in closer touch with one another and by ordering your fertilizer, bags, spray material in time and in quantities to fill your requirements."

"Progressive Association organized in 1919, a few cars shipped in 1920, half a million bushels in 1925, one million bushels in 1926. Get into your minds the bigness of your association."

"Self-Reliance—The spirit of assurance, confidence in your association is not one of marking time or standing easy, but rather the spirit of catching each other step. We are bearing the banner of the Potato Growers Association to still greater success."

A vote of thanks was tendered the chairman, Mr. Jerome McLean, and also to the committee in charge.

To B. McLaren Esq., Director and Manager Potato Association, Georgetown.

Dear Sir—We the members of the Potato Growers Association, residents of Newport, De Gros Mares, St. George, and Lauchling, desire to express our appreciation of the efficient manner in which you have performed your duties in handling the large amount of business transacted by the Association at Georgetown, during the past six years.

Your punctuality in procuring the necessary transportation and keeping the members informed of the marketing conditions was a great advantage to us.

At all times and under trying circumstances, you showed an unflinching courtesy to all. The statements you gave the members of the business done, showed a correctness and a thoroughness in your work and merited their warm approval.

We express the hope that you will long continue to represent the association at Georgetown.

In conclusion we would ask you to accept this token of our respect and esteem.

Signed THE POTATO GROWERS OF ST. GEORGE'S PARISH. (Patriot please copy.)

Bringing Up Father

King William L. O. L. Banquet

On Tuesday evening, February 18, the Orangemen of Kingston, P. E. I., their wives, daughters, mothers, sisters and sweethearts assembled in the village hall for their fourteenth annual banquet.

The immortal Byron evidently had poetic vision of this festivity for he well describes it in the words: "There was a sound of 'merriment' by night and 'Kingston village' had gathered there her beauty and her chivalry, and bright the lamps above o'er fair women and brave men, a 'thousand' hearts beat happily and when music arose with its voluptuous swell, soft eyes looked love to eyes that spoke again and all went merry as a marriage bell"—so the banquet began, so it proceeded, so it ended.

After a few remarks by the chairman, Mr. Beer, Miss Rita Crewey delighted the audience with a solo.

Mr. D. F. Fraser gave the address of welcome. Mr. Fraser is one of Kingston's Grand Middle aged men, ripe in wisdom, in good-will and in that magnetism that gives him power over men. To say that Mr. Fraser was the speaker is to say that the address was excellent.

Miss Flossie Younker caused "laughter to hold both his sides" as she favored the assembly with a humorous selection.

The instrumental music furnished by Mrs. Holmes and Mr. Donald MacDonald, was such as to gladden the hearts of all music lovers.

And there were addresses galore—no less than four clergymen being present. Two were natives—Rev. R. H. Stavert and Rev. E. M. Alken. Two were foreign born—Rev. Dr. Kannawin of Toronto and Rev. W. R. MacWalker, who hails from Cape Breton. If "a thing of beauty is a joy forever" as the poet assures us, then the remembrance of the tables will be a last-day night, for the ladies of Kingston know well the road to the Orangemen's heart and they exerted themselves to make the supper all that could appeal to the eye and to the palate—and they succeeded. Amid a chorus of hearty "good-nights" the crowd dispersed as happy in the spirit of brotherhood, all optimistic in regard to the principles of Orangemen.

Suicides From Eifel Tower

(Canadian Press) PARIS, Feb. 22.—Because his wife did not want him to play billiards, Gaston Orphanol, threw himself from the Eifel tower today, dying at her feet. For five hours previous to the police officers to persuade him to descend from his perilous perch on the second platform of the tower. He refused and demanded that his wife be sent for. CHEAPER TRAVEL BY BRITISH TRAINS

LONDON, Feb. 22.—Intent on combating still further motor coach transport competition, the railway companies are planning increased cheap travel excursions this year. They are trying to show that they can give better value than the motor coach companies, and they intend to achieve this by extending long-distance excursions, as well as day and half-day cheap travel tickets.

In some districts near London cheap travel tickets are to be extended to every day. A railway official said: "People like traveling long distances, and it is on long distance travel that we feel we can beat the motor coach. For instance, night excursions from Glasgow can now be made for 1 pound 4 shillings, whereas the ordinary return fare is 4 pounds 19 shillings. We have found that we can triple the number of passengers by the institution of cheap tickets."

Gleanings From Tryon And Vicinity

Mr. Louis Howatt of Tryon, has had the misfortune of getting his fast pacing mare, Miss Belle Aquira, laid up with a bad cut in the tenders of her front leg. Too bad, Louis, as you certainly would have brought home the bacon.

Mrs. Bruce Dawson of Uigg was a visitor in Tryon last week.

It is regrettable that Mr. Brenton Howatt, of Tryon, who has been a patient in the P. E. Island Hospital for the past ten weeks, is unable to return home yet, but although his improvement has been slow, we feel it will be sure.

Miss Kathy Dobson of Augustine Cove, spent Wednesday night, visiting friends at North Tryon.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Smith Leard of Sandy Point, has not been in the best of health lately.

The citizens of Augustine Cove and vicinity, were very shocked to learn that Mrs. Job Inman had taken a serious paralytic stroke on Tuesday of last week. At time of writing, Mrs. Inman is doing nicely and her many friends hope for a complete recovery soon. Her daughter, Miss Elma, who had been doing mission work at Stellarton, N. S., rushed home at once and intends remaining for some time.

Miss Catherine MacQuarrie of Hampton is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Clayton Morrison of Tryon.

On last Friday evening the "Utopian Society" of the United Church at Tryon, spent a most delightful social evening at the home of their pastor, Rev. and Mrs. George Somers. Various amusements were engaged in, of special mention should be made of the fine singing rendered by those gifted in that accomplishment. Miss Katy Carr and Mr. Austin Smith were winners in the contest "Durable places of the World". A hearty vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Austin Toombs and seconded by Mr. Austin Smith and extended to Rev. and Mrs. Somers for the use of their home and the delicious lunch Mrs. Somers had prepared for all present. The young people left for their homes after singing "Auld Lang Syne" thinking that that evening, at least, was well spent.

Raney Donates Share In Ontario Jockey Club to the Poppy Day Fund

The possibility of the move comes into question, however, since the will states that each must become enrolled as a shareholder of the club within three years. The clause in the will bequeathing the O. J. C. shares reads as follows: "I give to Hon. W. E. Raney, A. M. Orpen and Rev. Samuel D. Chown each one share in the Ontario Jockey Club, provided three years from my death each of them becomes enrolled as a shareholder in the share register of the club, and if they or any of them fail to do so the said three shares shall form part of my residuary estate."

Shares in the Ontario Jockey Club were left by Mr. Millar in his will to Hon. Mr. Raney, Rev. Dr. Chown and Abe Orpen, noted horseman, Mr. Millar, in his eccentric will, also left brewery shares to a number of ministers.

The question has long been in the debate as to whether Mr. Raney would accept the Jockey Club membership, and the interest in the point extended also to Rev. Dr. Chown's share.

Hon. Mr. Raney has apparently solved the problem by neither accepting the share nor turning it back to the Millar estate.

Instead, he has written to Gen. J. A. Gunn, president of the Poppy Day Fund, and suggested that the organization consider disposing of the share by private sale or otherwise, and the money secured to form a fund, to be known as the Charles Millar Fund, to benefit the Poppy Day Fund and its work.

In this way Mr. Raney would free himself from all connection with the unusual bequest. It is understood that Mr. Raney's generous offer is very acceptable to the Poppy Day Fund and that the suggestion will be carried into effect.

Chinese Soldiers Behead Agitators

(Canadian Press) SHANGHAI, Feb. 22.—The number of Chinese workmen on would accept the Jockey Club political strike reached 108,000 on this city today despite the beheading of some thirty agitators. The beheading was done by soldiers with heavy swords who decapitated Radicals wherever they were found distributing literature or making speeches to incite men to strike or riot. The soldier-executioners were the men of Marshal Sun Chuan-fang, who is attempting to retain control over this Province of the Kiangsu, after having lost three other provinces and a part of a fourth to the Cantonese invaders. Those whose heads were struck off were said to be members of the Kiangnan, the political party which dominates the Nationalist government, and sends agents ahead of its army to create disension within the enemy's camp. The heads were stuck up on poles in the principal thoroughfares.
