

Weak Lungs

It is the old story of a weak throat, a tendency to weak lungs in the family. You no sooner get rid of your old cold than a new one takes its place. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral breaks up this taking-cold habit. It strengthens, heals. Ask your doctor, the very next time you see him, what he thinks of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for weak lungs.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

In reference to the proposed change of the name of Village Green Station to Lakeside a correspondent writes to The Guardian advising that the name be left as it is which is the name of the past office. A change he considers, would not be of any benefit and might cause confusion.

GEO. VANDERSTINE, merchant and postmaster of New Perth West, still continues to receive an ever increasing share of public patronage. Owing to the increase of trade he finds it necessary to enlarge his store, which will make it one of the most up to date business stands in the country.

AT Souris on Friday last three cases for violation of the Canada Temperance Act came up for hearing before Stipendiary Inman—namely, those of H. J. Mabon, Druggist, J. C. Ferguson, Druggist, and E. McKenzie—The last mentioned was dismissed and the two former adjourned for one week for judgment.

A VERY enjoyable evening was spent at John Gallant's, Cavendish House, Charlottetown on the 23rd inst, when a large number of friends and relatives gathered to celebrate the anniversary of his birthday. After partaking of a sumptuous repast, dancing was freely indulged in till the small hours, music being furnished by Keddie Andrew Gauthier of North Rustico.

THE music page in the Saturday issue of March 3rd will contain the words and music of a new and popular song, also Home Circle page, Magazine page, colored Comic page, interesting short Story, Sermon by Rev. THE great Convention of Students in connection with the volunteer movement for the evangelization of the world to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, and lasting from Feb. 28th to March 4th promises to be an event of more than usual interest. It is expected that there will be between two and three thousand delegates present, gathered from all the colleges in North America. The meetings will be addressed by the most notable missionaries that are procurable, and some are coming from Japan and China expressly for the occasion. The Guardian is much pleased to learn that Fred M. Auld, son of David H. Auld, Cove Head, is to be sent as a delegate from McGill College to be present at this Convention.

THE Guardian's St. Peter's Bay correspondent writes:—Miss Minnie Seaman of Souris is visiting friends at St. Peter's. We are sorry to hear that two of our prominent young ladies viz, Miss Mattie Simpson and Miss Abiona Wray are about to leave for the North West. Mrs. R. W. McEwen has left for Halifax to attend the Spring opening in millinery. Miss Gerlie Lewis has accepted a position in L. Anderson's Store. Miss Jennie McEwen and Miss Edith Hyndman of Greenwich left recently for Boston. Miss Elsie Anderson has taken charge of the Primary Department of Midgell school.—Sydney McEwen, Greenwich, is spending a week here the guest of his uncle, Jas. A. McEwen.—Capt. Freeman Leslie accompanied by his wife and four children have left for Sydney, C. B. where they will in future reside.

Stop that cough! British Cough Cure never fails to relieve, and in most cases it makes a cure.—Always buy it when you require a good reliable remedy.—Contains no strong drugs.—Children take it beneficially. Only 25c a bottle.—A. W. Reddin, Phenix B, Sunnyside.

Candy is wholesome if made from pure ingredients; that is why White's Chocolates are in such demand. Put up in dainty pound and half pound boxes and sold by all the leading confectioners.

HAROLD PICKARD, a member of the Boys' Gymnasium Club on Saturday gave one dollar towards the Y. M. C. A. mortgage fund.

THE Y. M. C. A. acknowledges with thanks $5 from a Catholic citizen, who wishes to assist in raising the mortgage debt on building. Will you help?

Don't throw your time away. If you happen to be out of employment, get employment. If you can do anything just fairly well you need not be without plenty to do. Put a want ad in The Guardian telling your qualifications and you'll soon be busy again. You are just the person some employer wants, and you'll find that employer if you take the right course.

WHAT would happen this week if all those who intend helping wipe off balance of mortgage debt on Y. M. C. A. building, would come forward and give what they could spare.—How long would it take for the small balance of some $350.00 to be raised by free will donations. The rest is easy if you do your part. Would you like to do the kind act now? Others will follow your example. All donations gratefully acknowledged by Secretary Archibald, Y. M. C. A. Charlottetown.

THE new firm of W. C. Turner & Co who have moved into one of the bright shops lately added to the number that make up Sunnyside, have now been doing business for some time. They will conduct a general dry goods trade for which their former experience has particularly well fitted them. Mr. Turner was for many years connected with the MacKay W. Len Co., and lately has been associated with F. Perkins & Co. Geo. Waller the other member of the firm is also an "old hand" in the business having served with A. L. Brown & Co., and lately with Perkins & Co. Both are popular members of the community and their venture will no doubt meet with a ready support and patronage. Their store is next to C. D. Rankins and can be easily distinguished by the elaborate block-letter sign in gold recently affixed by that veteran painter P. H. Trainor.

CHAINED TO A CORPSE.

Doleful Punishment of the Ancients Duplicated in Our Modern Life.

The Romans used to punish a murderer by chaining to his body the corpse of his victim. Wherever he went he dragged behind him the debris of his crime, the stenchy cadaver, revolting thing that was once a man.

Every day you see people dragging around with them the corpse of their sins. They can't get away from them. And many of them have become so intimate with these corpses that they become corpses themselves. The misery of these poor unfortunates has become constitutional with them. It fits them like an old shoe. They have become accustomed to it.

And there are thousands of humans who are walking the earth to-day with corpses attached to them,—dyspeptic stomachs they can't get rid of. They have to get along the best they can with the stench they have. And they can't get away from them.

They wear that forlorn appearance, their energy is at zero, nothing interests them, and they interest no one, their faces are shrunk, their nerves are wilted and their shoulders sag. Are you one of the myriads who do dandle and gratify their palates at the sacrifice of their stomachs? Are you one of those who allow the senses to run riot, eating too much, drinking too much, eating at the wrong time, eating the half-cooked, the queer and the impossible?

Are you bloated after eating, and imagine that it is your food that fills you? Do you have nausea when you look upon this or that, rebel at one thing and be hungry for it, too, at the same time? And have you got a whole lot of other things the matter with your stomach that you know about but nobody else does, and can't explain? If so, you have dyspepsia, real dyspepsia. And the chances are you have had it a long time.

Your stomach is overworked, abused, fagged out. The gastric and digestive juices are weak, the muscles of the stomach are jaded, and the whole business needs new life. It needs something which will take hold of the food as it comes in and do the digesting, and let your stomach take a rest.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do that very thing. They contain a most powerful ingredient which helps the stomach in the process of digestion, cures dyspepsia, sour stomach, indigestion, heartburn, eructations, acidity or fermentation. They invigorate the stomach, increase the flow of gastric juice, and do two-thirds of what the stomach would have to do without them. That gives the stomach some rest, and a chance to get right again.

You will feel the change first in your mind and heart and then over your whole body. You'll feel rosy and sweet. That's the object. You can get these effective little tablets almost anywhere on earth for 50c a package.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the name.

To Fit OR Not to Fit

What is the question? Any spectacle is no more adapted to your face than any coat to your body. The fit of the frame is as important as the fit of the lenses. We make a specialty of both.
