Dundee, settlement, lot 39. After Dundee, Scotland, Rev. D. M. Lamont, Charlottetown, writes: "A young lady in Dundee, Scotland, having been betrothed to a sea captain, agreed to follow him to America, and according to arrangement landed in Charlottetown about 1840. Her lover who according to plan, was to sail to Charlottetown to welcome her arrival never appeared. The lone Scotch lassie then watched long and tearfully over the Hillsborough water, but the captain and his ship probably perished in a storm. When the luckless bride abandoned all hope of her lover, other applicants for the vacant place in her affections began to surround her, and at length she chose from among them John Martin a farmer living in the rear of Orwell. It is a tribute to the esteem in which she

"Honestly, in all my 15 years of experience as a nurse I have never known of a medicine that compares with Tanlac in the glowing tribute of Nurse M. E. Clapp." "Time and again I have recommended Tanlac and always with surprising results. Some time ago my Mother complained of being generally run down and of having a nervous breakdown. She had no appetite, her stomach was disordered, digestion weakened and her bowels were most irregular. Tanlac came to her aid at once, brought on a vigorous appetite so that she began to eat with the greatest relish, and made the digestive organs function properly once more. In a short time she was well, happy and strong, and although over 80 years of age she is now vigorous enough to look after her household duties and go out quite a little, too. This is why I can recommend Tanlac as the best tonic and health builder ever discovered." "Tanlac has done for others it can also do for you. Tanlac is for sale by most druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold."

By Marie Belmont. The plaid coat is always effective for sports, and for the Fall season we find a number of especially lovely plaid materials in the gayest of colors. A navy blue ground plaid in bright red makes the straight sports coat sketched above. The model is made simply, as most plaid coats should be, with patch pockets and turned back cuffs. A number of these sports coats, by the way, have fur collars which are detachable, so the coat may be worn with a plain cloth collar when desired. Luck, they say, always comes in two pieces. So do the most fashionable sport suits for fall. The latter are usually in two pieces of balbriggan weave. This material adapts itself to every posture and movement and its resiliency leaves it unwrinkled and trim after a hard afternoon on links or at the verandah bridge table.
