Years of Experience Crowded Into Months
Canada's Navy is at Home on the High Seas

EVERY meal on a Canadian destroyer at sea is spiced with adventure. For beyond the porthole, always blacked-out, is the wind-whipped surface of the sea—and, underneath the surface of that sea (who knows how near?) are the deadliest "fish" that ever skulked and struck.

WHATEVER PREPARATION WE HAD FOR THE BUILDING OF OUR PRESENT SPLENDID FLEET IS DUE ALMOST ENTIRELY TO THE CONSTANT EFFORTS OF THE NAVY LEAGUE OF CANADA, WHICH EVER SINCE THE LAST WAR HAS BOOSTED EVERY ASPECT OF SEAFARING. THE FORESIGHT OF THIS ORGANIZATION IS NOW GENERALLY KNOWN AND THEIR WORK OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED.

Said to be the last picture taken of the Fuehrer before his mysterious death. The caption accompanying this photo on September 29, reads: "Adolf Hitler, German Führer, is seen with his headquarter commander of the Belgian Resistance, who was awarded the Knight's Cross to the Iron Cross."

Recently the Burgomaster of Ghent invested members of the Canadian forces with the "Medal of Honour of the City". Here Maj.-Gen. D. C. Spry, Toronto, signs the city guest book just prior to the ceremony. (Canadian Army - WIB Radiophoto)

Ethel Barrymore, above, 65-year-old actress, is being treated with penicillin in a New York hospital after she was stricken with influenza and was forced to miss her first stage performance in 50 years.

PREPARE FOR PEACE

JOHANNESBURG (CP)
Nearly 3,000 members of the South African forces on active service are now taking commercial, technical and academic correspondence courses which will be of help to them on their return to civil life.

opportunity for girls to share in a worthwhile experience using a candle-lighting service especially prepared for the occasion (b) to support the Canadian Girls in Training Movement through making possible the work of a National Secretary. Officers spoken at the service are the Board of support for the National Girls' Work Board. This Board which came into being during the last World War to provide a church centred programme for ten-age girls and which has achieved numbers and influence through its work in christian education and its camping programme, has recently provided "The Senior Quiz" to fill the demand of the ten age girls of to-day for something to think about, something to talk about, something to do.

ULSTER ELECTION SOON

LISBELLAW, Northern Ireland (CP)—Sir Basil Brooke, Northern Ireland Prime Minister, said in an address that all indications point to a general election within a year and that re-election of Northern Ireland's place within the United Kingdom is the crucial issue.
