WOLVES KILL MOOSE

CRANBERRY PORTAGE, Man. (CP)—Fishermen Walter Adams reported witnessing a death struggle between two timber wolves and a bull moose 10 miles from here. Finding of the moose's partly-eaten carcass later has led to renewed request by trappers and hunters for use of poison to kill off the wolf population.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our nice friend Mr. Neil Thomas, who departed this life on April 21st, 1947.

Deep in our hearts there's a picture More precious than silver and gold It's a picture of our nice friend Whose memory will never grow cold.

Though his smile is gone forever And his hands we cannot touch We shall never lose sweet memories Of the one we liked so much.

Lovingly Remembered by His Friends Phyllis, George, Catherine Kathleen and Paul Murphy.

MacDONALD-LAYTON

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Steeves, Turtle Creek, Albert County, recently when Rev. W. Smith united in marriage Leta L. Layton of Gurryville, daughter of Mrs. Maude Steeves and the late Elbin Steeves to Herman C. MacDonald, of Belfast, P. E. Island.

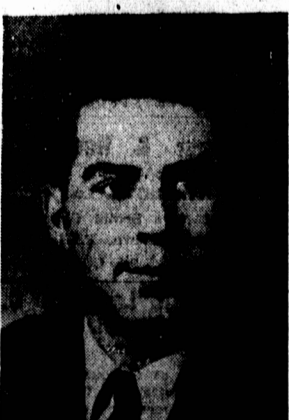

Mrs. C. O. Vincent, of Moncton, played the nuptial music. The bride wore a dress of navy blue silk, bolero style, with trimmings of silk flowered jersey and a corsage of red roses, and a necklace set with rubies. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Mildred Wakeham, of Hampton, who wore a rose crepe dress. Her corsage was of white carnations. She wore a gold locket. Raymond White of Prince Edward Island, cousin of the groom was best man.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake surmounted with a miniature bride and groom. After the ceremony Mrs. Vaughan Steeves sang the solo, "I Love You Truly". The mother of the bride wore a silk flowered dress, gold brooch and corsage of roses.

Those who poured were Mrs. William Steeves and Mrs. Vaughan Steeves. Those serving were Mrs. Barbara Wakeham and Mrs. Raymond Steeves.

Guests from outside points were: Miss Ella Jones, Miss Ivy Craik, Mrs. C. O. Vincent, Mrs. Roy Duffy, Robert MacPherson and John Hunter, all of Moncton, Mrs. Mildred Wakeham and family, Mrs. Maud Steeves, Hampton, N. B.
