In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear mother who passed away October 29, 1942.

Other hearts may have their sorrows. Griefs that quickly die away. But a mother taken from us. Griefs the heart from day to day.

We miss her hand, her willing hand. Her fond and earnest care. And oh how dark is life around us. What is home without her there.

Lovingly Remembered by Stewart and Glen Hunter.

A COMPLETE NOVEL by RAFAEL SABATINI

The name of author Rafael Sabatini is legend! His novels and books have earned him the title of being among the world's most talented authors! One of his greatest successes is "The Birth of Mischief" - appearing in complete form this week in The Standard. In this triumph of love and adventure, Sabatini reconstructs events of another era that throw a strong light on the happenings of today! "The Birth of Mischief" is one of Sabatini's best - read it in The Standard!

OUR VETERANS ARE NOT SELLING PENCILS!

Of the 980,000 service men and women who have shed uniforms, only 22,000 are unemployed... and many of those are still recuperating from the injuries of war! How has it been accomplished? Have they all gone back to their old jobs? This week in The Standard, staff writer Vince Lunny comes up with some of the answers in an interesting article that reveals how our battle-scarred vets are back on the job... as civilians! Well worth reading!

THIS HALIFAX FAMILY HAS NO HOUSING PROBLEM

When Roy Tidman, a Halifax photographer, married Agnes Crasner eight years ago, one of the things he promised her was a sailing trip. This month he finally kept his word and did what thousands dream of doing... with their four children, the Tidmans have left Halifax on a proposed 11,000-mile voyage aboard a 55-foot diesel-powered sailing boat which Tidman helped design and build himself! This week, The Standard tells you the whole story of these plans in an exclusive photo-story - it makes interesting reading!

YOU CAN'T DIG COAL ON AN EMPTY STOMACH!

Just when coal is vitally needed, the Ruhr - Europe's coal bin - is failing! This week, in an extremely timely photo-story, The Standard not only describes the living conditions of these miners, but also reveals some of the political manoeuvring among the occupying forces in Germany over the coal-rich Ruhr. The article is fully illustrated with several pages of pictures!

HOCKEY'S NEW BOSS MAN!

He is president of the vast and influential National Hockey League - boss man of a professional sport into whose cash register pour some two and a quarter million admissions annually! His name is Clarence Campbell, former Edmonton lawyer! How did he get the appointment? What does he know about hockey? Andy O'Brien, sports editor of The Standard, thinks he knows the answers and doesn't hesitate to express them in his article appearing in The Standard's Magazine Section this week. It's an article that will appeal to every hockey fan!

NUPTIALS

A lovely candlelight wedding took place on Wednesday, September eighteenth at seven o'clock at the home of the bride's parents when Maxine Elaine, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil K. Salmund of Bonshaw and John Carmen, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Mitchell, Hampshire, were united in marriage. The Rev. L. J. Morrison officiating. Miss Eleanor Carson played the wedding music. The house was beautifully decorated with streamers, bells and autumn flowers. The youthful bride entered the living room on the arm of her father. The ceremony took place under a picturesque arch of pink and white, the bride wearing a gown of white over satin with sweetheart neckline and pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil being caught in sweetheart fashion with bouquet pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the groom. The bride's only sister, Marilyn, as attendant wore a gown of pale blue with shoulder length veil caught by a wreath of rose buds. She carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli. Mr. Nelson Hatherley supported the groom. The gift to the bridesmaid was a gold compact, to the best man a leather wallet and to the pianist an oval compact. For the wedding the bride's mother chose a queen's blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of deep rose while the groom's mother chose a two piece navy blue with black accessories and a corsage corsage. During the signing of the register Miss Carson played effectively "O Perfect Love." A delicious buffet lunch was served to a large number of guests. The wedding table being centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, on either side of which were tall white tapers. Friends of the bride assisted in serving while those pouring were Mrs. Hector MacNevin and Mrs. Dobson Clark aunt of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left by car to spend their honeymoon in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. For travelling the bride wore a flowered silk dress with moss green coat, chocolate accessories and a corsage of sweet peas. Their many friends join in extending congratulations and all good wishes for their future happiness.

in Memoriam

In memory of Mrs. J. W. Cook, who died on October 29, 1945.

Just one year ago dear mother thought to us it seems much more than a year ago that you were called home to Heaven. Where pain and suffering are no more.

God did call you darling mother to that land of peace and rest. But you will never be forgotten. By the ones who love you best. Lovingly Remembered by Husband and Family.

HOLBEACH ST. MARKS, Lines, England - Twenty customers of the New Inn taproom sat with beer mugs in front of them while Rev. C. V. Wilkinson conducted a harvest festival service.

WIGAN, Lancashire, England - (CP) - When the King Pit of the Pemberton Colliery Company here closed down, the last six pit ponies in Lancashire were sent to farms.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER
On Wednesday September eighteenth many friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil K. Salmund of Bonshaw in honor of their daughter, Maxine. Mrs. A. B. MacLeod acted as chairwoman while Mr. Peter MacDonald presided at the piano. The bride-to-be was escorted to a nicely decorated chair by Miss Shirley Crosby. Miss Mae MacDon-
