WHY PREMIER BORDEN ATTENDED CABINET MEETING

Responsible Minister of Overseas Dominions to be Consulted. (Special to The Guardian.) LONDON, July 21.—Referring during the debate in the Commons today, to the situation in the Dominions and Colonies, Arthur H. Steel Maitland, under Secretary for the Colonies, said it was the intention to take responsible Ministers of the Overseas States into the confidence of the Government on every matter that might arise, not only during the war but also on the question of settlement and peace. That was the reason he said that Premier Borden of Canada, attended the Cabinet Meeting on July 14. That was not an isolated phenomenon under the Secretary, added, but part of the general trend of events.

SOCIALIST PARTY STRONG IN GERMANY

NEW YORK, July 21.—The Scandinavian American Line steamship Oscar II. arrived today from Copenhagen with 514 passengers and cargo. Officers of the ship said they had passed through the North Sea without being molested. Among the passengers was Aurele Barris, of New York, a naturalized German, who has been living in Germany for about two years. He said that when he left Berlin he was awaiting an appeal made to the civil courts following his arrest on a charge of discussing in public prohibited questions of military affairs. Mr. Barris said that he preferred not to make any chance of going back to prison where he was confined for a week after his arrest. He took advantage of his American passport and left the country. "The Socialist party is strong in Germany," said Mr. Barris, "and while the members are loyal to the government on the question of defense they are opposed to a war of aggression to confiscate Belgium or French territory." Mr. Barris said it was plainly evident in Germany that the government was making preparations for another winter campaign.

Y.M.C.A. WORK WITH THE SOLDIERS AT SOSSEX

As a great many families on the island have relatives who were with the 55th Battalion in camp at Sussex, they will be interested in hearing something of the work done there by the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Harold C. Cross, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Charlottetown, was at Sussex for about a month getting the work organized. The "Y" equipment consisted of two large marquees, joined together, a small restaurant, and two bell tents used by the secretary and his assistants. In the large marquees, which took the place of pens and ink, always were eight long tables with benches, where the men might write their letters, read, or play games such as checkers chess or dominoes. The Y. M. C. A. supplied writing paper and envelopes free to the soldiers, and kept a supply of pens and ink always on hand on the tables. On account of making it so convenient for the men to write home, some 1500 letters a week were written in the Y. M. C. A. tent. A fresh supply of magazines was placed on the tables every day and the daily newspapers came in from all over the province, so that the men might get the news from their own towns. This was a great boon to the men, preventing them from feeling altogether cut off from their friends. Some great games of checkers were played, during several crack players in the camp, and there was always an interested group around the players. Probably the greatest pleasure for the soldiers was our piano. How the men did enjoy gathering around it for a good heavy sing and you were just as apt to hear them singing some old favourite hymn as one of the latest rag times. We found there were quite a few good piano players in the Battalion, and it looked as though it would be possible to get together at least one quartette. We had some athletic equipment for the use of the soldiers. A playground ball outfit provided some great fun in the evenings after supper. There was also a set of quoits, and a Volley Ball court was fixed up. At the restaurant the soldiers could buy soft drinks, ice cream, milk, butter-milk, lemonade, sandwiches, pies, biscuits, candy, handkerchiefs, socks etc. Everything possible was done to help the men keep straight, morally. A very successful Bible Class was organized, which met on Sunday afternoons, and was attended by some of the best fellows of the Battalion. Family worship was held in the Secretary's tent each evening just before "lights out," for those who were anxious to keep up this habit. One of the worst evils in a camp is profanity, and we used a supply of "Don't Swear" medals to great effect. We also secured a great many signatures to temperance pledge cards. After being signed the men were asked to send these cards home to their mothers, wives, or someone whom they knew would be interested in hearing that

They had signed the pledge. Dozens of young fellows came to the Secretary asking for cards to sign. There were many opportunities for serving the men, and it was very evident that the work of the Y. M. C. A. among the troops was very much needed, and was very greatly appreciated by both men and officers. The Colonel stated that he was in hearty sympathy with our work and would be glad to give any assistance possible. Those who recently contributed to this work the Y. M. C. A. is doing at the Militia camps, may feel that they are doing something really worthwhile. They are helping conserve the Christian manhood of our young men who are enlisting, or are serving at the front. The temptations to be met by the young soldier are many and serious, they need all the assistance we can give them. During the last month some of our college students have been collecting funds out in our country districts towards this work, and with considerable success, over $150 having been secured. Anyone wishing to contribute towards this work may write the Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Charlottetown, who will be glad to send along the money to the proper authorities. BOYS' WORK IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL During the last two years, two Older Boys' Conferences have been held on the Island, the first at Charlottetown, the second at Summerside. These conferences have brought together some 300 older boys, who have been inspired to go back to their Sunday Schools to do much better work, by methods which have proved successful elsewhere. As a result, we now have a strong movement on the Island which is gradually widening the scope of the Sunday School, aiding it to hold and interest the boys in a wonderful way. Of course this is a new movement, and one of the first necessities to make it a success is a supply of trained leaders. To help fill this need, an Older Boys' Training Conference will be held at Cardigan, under the auspices of the Island S. S. Association, commencing Saturday afternoon August 21st, finishing August 24th. This will enable any delegates who wish, to attend the Sunday School Convention at Montague. Older Boys, 16 years and over will be accepted as delegates, and as the number is limited to 50, early application should be made. Address Harold C. Cross, Secretary Y. M. C. A. Charlottetown.

LETTERS FROM THE FRONT

The following letters, received by Mrs. H. Henderson, Union Road, tell their own sorrowful story. The first two bright, breezy letters are from her son, Cecil, the last from his friend. The sympathy and kindness of the brave men at the front towards each other and their manly thoughtfulness toward those at home has more than once during the present war exemplified the truth of the poets words, "The bravest are the tenderest, the loving are the daring." Following are the letters. June 11, 1915. My Dear Mrs. Henderson: I write this letter with a heavy heart for I know it will not bring you much comfort but I thought you would like to hear from one of your son's comrades. Your dear son Cecil was killed in action the morning of May 8. Of course you have been notified of his death before this but as I was near him at the end and knew him well, we were in the same company, I thought you might get some small comfort, and I can tell you that his end was quick and so near as I can tell painless. I am enclosing a letter I found on him, you might like as a remembrance. I know I cannot say much to comfort you, but it is a glorious and heroic death, and with your sorrow you can at least have the consolation that he made the best possible use of his life, and gave, it cheerfully that freedom for the world and our Empire might live. Thrusting God to give your strength to bear your bereavement, I am your true friend. PTE. W. H. KNAPP, 23283, Machine Gun, P.P.C.I.I. 27 Div 80th Bgd. B. E. F.

MUTUAL EXAMINATION.

LONDON, July 21.—Frederick Harrison's book, "The German Peril," published today, contains the following passage: "Let us not think that any kind of words, or any kind of agreement or compromise or meditation, can avail us in the fiercest trial of our English blood. Nor let us vainly imagine that the enemy will relax in his delirium of frightfulness, or spare us one pang which he can inflict on us all. "It is my firm belief that when we have driven him back to his own land and we shall drive him back—we must, unless we are to be forever ruined, scenes of horror, almost of mutual extermination, will take place, exceeding anything we have yet known in ferocity, destruction and blood."
