

MAKE YOUR FALSE TEETH FEEL NATURAL

MILTON DOES IT!

Probably you have heard that Milton really cleans false teeth in an almost miraculous fashion, without effort, and quite without damage—ask your dentist.

It does more. It makes the plate feel natural in your mouth—does away with that feeling of strange, awkward discomfort. Scores of people have written that for this blessing alone Milton is priceless to them.

Try it! It always does it!

The two (the only two) ways of cleaning false teeth are described in the little book which comes with the bottle. Three sizes—35¢, 65¢ and $1—from your nearest dealer.

—HIGH CLASS RECITAL IN EPWORTH HALL.—In the Epworth Hall, Summerside, on Monday evening a splendid recital of a very high order was given under the auspices of the Chadwick Chapter of the Eastern Star, by Miss Barbara McNeill and Miss Roberta Spencer, of Charlottetown, assisted by Mr. Lowell W. Hancock of Summerside. The hall was packed to the doors by an audience which fully appreciated the talented artists. Miss McNeill has made a reputation for herself in Summerside as a wonderful soprano and elocutionist, while Miss Spencer in her rendering of classical numbers and as an accompanist, has few equals on the Island. The program which was persistently encored was as follows:—"The Enchanted Glade" and "Deep in My Heart," by Miss MacNeill and Mr. Hancock; "The Play Room," a one act fantasy by Miss MacNeill; "Valse in E Minor" and "Butterfly Eddie" (Chopin) by Miss Spencer; "By the Waters of Minnetonka," "Pale Moon" and "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water," all Indian love lyrics, by Mr. Hancock; "Robin, Robin, Sing me a Song" and "Ill Backo," by Miss MacNeill; "Capriccio" and "Gigue," by Miss Spencer. Intermission and sale of candy. Monologue "At the Concert" by Miss MacNeill; "My Dreams" and "Even Bravest Heart" (from Faust) by Mr. Hancock; "Sonata B Flat Minor," "Scherzo" and "Mache Funebre" (Chopin) by Miss Spencer; "I Would Weave a Song for You" and "Love's a Merchant," by Miss MacNeill; "With Sweet Lavender," "To An Old White Pine," and "Craoivienne" by Miss Spencer; "Because You're You" and "Who Knows" by Miss MacNeill and Mr. Hancock. God Save the King.—S

Dry, Hacking Cough Was Caused By A Bronchial Cold

Mrs. A. Primeau, 36 Ingram St., Chatham, Ont., writes:—"I am pleased to take this opportunity of telling you of my experience with

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

"Early last winter I suffered from a severe bronchial cold that left me with a provoking, dry, hacking cough. After being bothered with it, both day and night, for some time I had a professional nurse recommend the above cough syrup which I took with wonderful results, and, now, it is the only remedy I ever use for colds."

—IN MEMORIAM.—The death occurred on February 21st in New Jersey of John Jeffrey Lavandier. The late Mr. Lavandier was born in Antigonish, N. S. 74 years ago, when a young man he came to Georgetown where he was highly respected by all who knew him and where he is still remembered by many of his friends. Thirty eight years ago he moved to United States where he has since resided. He leaves to mourn their loss one son and three daughters, also three brothers and three sisters all living in U. S. A. also one brother Mr. W. H. Lavandier of Georgetown. May his soul rest in peace.

—ISLANDER DEAD.—The death occurred at Philadelphia on Mar. 10th of P. J. McKenna, brother of Mrs. Capt. MacPhee, Georgetown, after a long illness. Possessed of a sociable and gentle disposition he was loved by all who knew him. He was a devoted member of the Roman Catholic Church and received the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church. He was a man of exceptional ability and his many kind deeds endeared him to the hearts of those with whom he came in contact. He leaves to cherish a fond memory, his wife and eight children, also two sisters and one brother. The many beautiful floral tributes, spiritual boquets, mass cards and letters of sympathy show the high esteem in which he was held. His funeral was largely attended. May his soul rest in Peace. A.

COMEDY ENJOYED.—St. Patrick's Celebration was fittingly concluded with the presentation in the town Hall, Georgetown, the four act comedy drama, "A Prairie Rose," which was presented by the Georgetown Dramatic Society to a large and appreciative audience on Saturday, March 16th and Monday, March 18th. There was a splendid cast of our best local talent in the historic act. The fact that the performance was under the direction of Mr. P. A. Scully is itself a guarantee that it was exceptionally entertaining and capably performed throughout. Mr. Scully has had a long and varied experience in the show business. A Prairie Rose is one of these charming plays that from the rise of the curtain hold the intense interest of the audience.

Cast of characters: Silas Wilder—A deaf old ranchman. James Boudreau.

Dr. Robert Raymond—A young Chicago physician. Herbert Murphy. Philip Bryant—A wealthy young lawyer. William Fitzgerald. Archie Randolph—A young Chicago dude. Joseph Higgins. Bill Briggs—A Kansas cowboy. Temple Gotell. Moss—Philly Bryant's servant. Henry Martell. Ralph Wilder—Younger brother of Silas. James Corndon. Lily Jane Slocum—Silas housekeeper, later his wife. Mrs. Fred Delorey. Agnes Raymond—Roberts divorced wife. Jennie King. Dorothy Deane—Phil's sweetheart, later his wife. Mrs. Donovan. Rose Wilder, a Prairie Rose, daughter of Ralph—Rose Fairchild. The orchestra under the management of Percy Boudreau rendered appropriate music. It is not fair to particularize. Every one acted their parts with the grace of professionals. But Miss Rose Fairchild as Prairie Rose was the heroine of the play. Music during the evening. Solo by Misses Helen Donovan and Isabel Lavers. Piano Selection by Mrs. Capt. Fairchild and Mrs. A. E. Jenkins. Harmonica selections by Milford Batchelder and Albert Rafuse. Step dancing by John Gotell, Clary David, Ernest Fairchild and Henry Martell, was enjoyed by all.

Discussing Angel Cakes With An Expert

By JANE EDDINGTON

Some people have liked to sprinkle chopped almonds over the top of an angel cake, and one may use a few finely-chopped walnuts or pecans in an angel cake just as they may in a sponge cake to make it more interesting and flavorful. In fact, I am inclined to think that the bits of nuts give the sugar something to cling to, and, where it gets caramelized on them, as on the outer surfaces, we get exquisiteness.

In a recipe for angel cake printed in 1887 I find it says: "Paper the pan, but do not grease." This is a good idea which we might enlarge upon, but we should not have dropped the subject of what we can do to change the flavor of an angel cake and make it perhaps less "vapid." One-fourth almond to vanilla is a more or less common flavoring, and when we use nuts we need the almond. In an old recipe I find the suggestion that, instead of the almond, "three old-fashioned sweet-smelling geranium leaves" be used. You might try it; I have not.

I find that a long time back I sifted my flour and sugar separately and then mixed them thoroughly. Today, if I wanted to experiment along this line, I should sift part of the sugar only with the flour, and use the rest alone to strengthen or almost solidify the egg whites, because I would, for myself, dispense with the cream of tartar.

From my own experience I should not judge that people like to bake

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lockhart, of St. Eleanors, had a very pleasant surprise on Monday night, when the Young People's Club of St. Eleanors called at their home and presented them with an address and presentation of a beautiful wicker chair, in appreciation of the interest they have shown in all the Club's undertakings. The chair was presented by Mr. Harry Cameron and the address, as follows, was read by Mr. Roy Tanton:—

To Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lockhart, St. Eleanors.

Dear Friends:— We, this Young People's Club of St. Eleanors, owe a lasting debt of gratitude to you both for your zeal and success of our recent entertainment; also to your zeal and devotion in connection with the best interest of your community. We realize great achievements are necessarily based upon the great motive.

For the source of your inspiration we think of the words of Kipling: "For only the Master shall place us And only the Master shall blame; But each for the joy of the working

And each in their separate star Shall draw the thing as he sees it For the God of Things as they are." Our pleasure is then that the God of Things as they are may ever guide and protect you in your years of further service for him and humanity. We ask you to accept this gift as an expression of our love, and the splendid service you have rendered to our community.

Signed on behalf of the Young People's Club

Afterwards a jolly time was spent in games and dancing. Before leaving for their homes the young people were served with a bounteous supply of ice cream and cake. The singing of "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" brought the delightful proceedings to a close.

ASPIRIN

The whole world knows Aspirin as an effective antidote for pain. But it's just as important to know that there is only one genuine Aspirin. The name Bayer is on every tablet, and on the box. If the name Bayer appears, it's genuine; and if it doesn't, it is not! Headaches are dispelled by Aspirin. So are colds, and the pain that goes with them; even neuralgia, neuritis, and rheumatism promptly relieved. Get Aspirin—at any drugstore—with proven direction.

Physicians prescribe Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) indicating Bayer Manufacture. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer Manufacture, to assure the public against imitations, the Tablets will be stamped with their "Bayer Cross" trademark.
