THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block---Charlottetown.

Captain McLean of the Northumberland is steadily improving in health and is out again.

J. H. Irving of Pownal and A. J. Irving of Vernon River Bridge, were in the City Saturday.

Miss Agnes Watts has returned from Bedeque to spend Christmas with her father Prof. Watts of this City.

The Union Commercial College will close for the holidays on Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. Prizes, diplomas, etc will be presented in College hall.

Dr. J. J. MacPhee, formerly of this Province, is president of the Canadian Society of New York and at a banquet which took place recently in New York, he acted as toastmaster.

Among the outward passengers from this City Saturday were H. H. McCallum, Brackley Beach to Boston and George Laidlaw representing J. E. Morse Co. on return to Halifax.

John Percival, City, has returned from East Point, where he has been engaged in the construction of a smoke stack for the new fog alarm. The work of building the fog alarm, is being done under the supervision of B. D. Huntley.

The firemen were called out last evening just as the church bells were ringing for a supposed fire in St. Paul's Church of England. It turned out to be only the fire on fire. The firemen were almost immediately on the scene but their services were not required.

One of the many fine calendars received for 1909, is that of Hazard's Brahmin tea, Horace Hazard of this City being the sole agent. It is a richly colored picture entitled "The Days of Long Ago," and shows two ancient dames in the twilight of their lives sitting talking of old times and enjoying a cup of Hazard's rich and fragrant Brahmin tea.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Laura Cameron and Charles F. Gilbert of South Bend, Washington, took place in St. Mary's Cathedral, Portland, Oregon, in October, the Rev. George F. Thompson officiating. The happy bride is the only daughter of E. H. and Mrs. Cameron, both natives of P. E. Island, who have for several years past resided in Washington. She is a charming, popular and talented young lady, whose many friends on the coast, as well as on the old island home, will wish her happiness in her married life. Mr. Gilbert occupies a responsible position with the South Bend Mills and Timber Company, and is a highly respected and popular young man.—Maple Leaf, Oak.

Dr. Arthur Reid is now ready for a fair share of the dental trade. He has fitted up the F. B. McRae rooms across the hall from The Guardian office most artistically and has spared no pains in providing for the convenience of his patients. He has one of the best equipped dental offices in the Maritime Provinces. It includes a most up-to-date chair, cabinet and the latest instruments. The chair is most unique. It can be converted in to every conceivable shape and is raised and lowered by means of oil pressure. The cabinet is perfect in every particular and has a place for everything and everything is in its place. The hygienic conditions are not to be excelled, the rooms are well lighted and are heated by hot water. The laboratory is also equipped with the latest fittings in machinery. Dr. Reid's card appears in another column of this issue.

The funeral of the late Douglas McCallum, who died at his residence on Silver Lake Road, Mount View Township, near Minneapolis, Minn., on November 19th, 1908, was held at his residence on Saturday at 11.30 a. m. Mr. McCallum was born on Prince Edward Island, 1863. He came to Minnesota in 1886 and engaged in the farming and dairying business. He was married to Miss Emma E. Grey, of Manston, Wisconsin, in 1891, to whom three children were born, all of whom survive him. He is also survived by four brothers, in Minneapolis, namely, Daniel, John, James and Peter, and three sisters, who still reside in the East. They are: Mrs. George H. Brooks, of Boston; Mrs. John Gudmore, Winsloe, P. E. Island, and Mrs. Henry Ford, of New Glasgow Road, P. E. Island; also a step-mother, Mrs. Douglas McCallum, of Winsloe. The funeral was held under the auspices of American Lodge, No. 187, A. F. & A. M., of Minneapolis, of which he was an honored member. His body was brought to Manston, Wis., and the funeral was held at his wife's old home in Lemond, weir on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 22nd. Rev. E. Harris and the Masonic Order of this city had charge of the services.—Minneapolis paper.

Miss Elisa O'Neill, Vernon River, was in the City Saturday.

Harold Stanley, City, is spending his Xmas holidays at Victoria, with Max Boswell.

Ephraim Leard, Bedeque, was a passenger west Saturday afternoon from this city.

Dr. W. J. McMillan, Kinkora, was in the City Saturday and left on return home on the afternoon train.

The Kindergarten closes on Wednesday morning at ten thirty for the Christmas holidays and the City schools on Thursday.

Ir James & Trainor's barber shop window are displayed two mammoth lobsters, handsomely mounted which were caught by Taylor Bros., of St. Peter's Island.

Miss Sophia Mason, Bunbury, leaves in about a week's time for Western Canada, and intends spending a month in St. John and also in Toronto en route.

H. H. Bradley, representing Francis Naves, wholesale commission dealer in smelts and eels, Fulton Market, New York, was a passenger by the S. S. Northumberland yesterday to Pictou.

David Leard, Bedeque; Walter Auld Freetown and Austin Carr, St. Eleonors, third year students of the Prince of Wales College, left for their homes Saturday afternoon to spend their Xmas holidays.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Taylor was very largely attended yesterday afternoon by train to Sherwood Cemetery. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. H. E. Thomas of the First Methodist Church. The pallbearers were S. W. Crabbe, J. P. Nicholson, Charles Dalziel, Harry Worth, Percy Barlow and William Finlay.

The well officered S. S. Empress arrived from Pictou yesterday morning at half past ten, having met considerable lolly on the way across. She left port at seven o'clock, and while approaching this city passed a schooner, inside the red buoy, coming in the same direction. Considerable trouble was experienced in docking owing to a large quantity of ice between the wharves. The equally well officered S. S. Northumberland in command of Capt. McLean, was met some distance out, she having left this port for Pictou shortly after nine. Neither steamship will cross again until tomorrow.

Yesterday was children's day in the First Methodist Church. At the morning service Rev. H. E. Thomas preached his sermon referring special-ly to the duty of parents to their children and was most attentively listened to. Miss Brenner's solo was most enjoyable. In the afternoon the children brought their gifts for the needy and took part in the service of praise. The solo by Edith Love, the chorus by four girls, and the recitations by Mildred McInnis, Fanny Stanley and Harry Stanley, were exceptionally well given and the entire service impressed upon the children the great message of the Christmas-tide. It is understood the collection taken amounted to about one hundred dollars.

J. D. Malcolm of Carigan was in the City Saturday to meet Miss Malcolm and Miss McEachern who were returning from Halifax Ladies' College to spend Christmas.

Saturday night at New Wonderland was a good one. The program of moving pictures was one of the best ever given by this popular house of entertainment while the singing and music was of the highest order.

John Sark, arrived in Boston last week from Prince Edward Island. He is chief of the Micmac tribe of Indians. We noticed him as he was walking on the down town streets, covered all over with a headed shoulder piece in bright colors, the ensign of his rank. He also wears a huge silver medal presented to his loyal ancestors by Louis XV of France, one by Pope Pius X, one by Archbishop Brunchesi of Montreal, and a silver medal by Queen Victoria during the Jubilee. He also carries a silver watch which ticks loud like a typewriter. He is on a month's visit to friends of his title, and also his son who is attending college in the Hub. He is making his headquarters with Frank Pennell of 21 Yarmouth Street, a Micmac carpenter and joiner.—New Glasgow Chronicle.

"Choice Holly has arrived at William's Nursery, Upper Prince Street, 12-17d41.
