Farewell Reception At Peters Road

Upwards of eighty of the members and adherents of the Peters Road section of the Murray Harbor North and Peters Road Congregation met together with a number of other family associates at the home of Mrs. J. M. Johnston, Peters Road recently to hold a farewell reception for Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Douglas and family. When all preparations had been about completed a car was dispatched to Murray Harbor North and Rev. and Mrs. Douglas and family were brought over for this occasion.

Mr. Oswald Graham, Elder, was elected to the chair and called the meeting to order.

After having stated the purpose of the gathering, Mrs. Stanley Clow read the following address to Rev. and Mrs. Douglas and family:

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Douglas, and Family:—We, the people of Peters Road congregation take this opportunity of meeting with you to express our regret at your departure from our midst to take up your duties in some other congregation.

Since coming here five years ago, we have always thought of you as earnest workers for the cause of Christ in this community.

Your sympathy for all who have been called upon to go through sickness and bereavement, or any of the lesser trials of life, will long be recalled by us, with a feeling of gratitude.

Your high ideals and standards of living speak for themselves, and we feel assured that, where duty now calls you, you in your work will give all those qualities of service to others which have characterized your life among us in this congregation. We wish you in the best of all good wishes as we now present to you this small token of our love and esteem, and commend you to Him whose loving care is overall, through every day and all the days, while life and opportunity are given for service to God and to our fellowmen.

Signed on behalf of the Congregation,

OSWALD GRAHAM
GEORGE JOHNSTON
CHESTER MACSWAIN
CHARLES MACLEOD

Peters Road, P. E. I.
Just before the closing of the reading of the address Miss Rhoda McLeod presented Mr. and Mrs. Douglas with a well-filled purse.
