—DEATH OF MRS. PHILIP GALLANT—Many friends in Summerside will regret to learn of the death on Saturday of Mrs. Philip Gallant aged 78 years at her home on Notre Dame Street. Her husband, the late Phil (The Barber) Gallant, predeceased her some years ago. The remains have been resting at the Compton Funeral Home and were removed to the home of Mrs. Mabel Patterson for burial which takes place this (Monday) morning at nine o'clock from St. Paul's Church. Interment will be in St. Paul's Cemetery.—S.

GALLANT-GILL—A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Cecilia's Church, Boston, Mass., on Saturday morning, June 19th, when Evelyn Theresa Gill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gill, Elliotvale, Prince Edward Island, became the bride of Howard R. Gallant of Belmont, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses L. Gallant, Oyster Bed Bridge, Prince Edward Island. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Msgr. Francis Phelan. The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Edward Scanlon, was becomingly attired in white satin and marquisette with chapel sweep train and a finger-tip veil held by a tiara of seeded pearls, and she carried a white prayer book adorned with white orchids and streamers. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, gift of the groom. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Edward Scanlon who wore yellow taffeta and hat to match. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, blue iris and maiden hair fern. Mr. Roy Gallant was best man for his brother; the ushers were Rustin and Ivan Gallant, brothers of the groom. A wedding breakfast was served at the Hotel Tensgate to the immediate family of the bride and groom, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gallant left on a motor trip to Niagara Falls, Toronto, and other points of interest. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower by her girl friends at the home of her sister, Mrs. Scanlon, where she received many valuable and useful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gallant will reside at 17 Fairview Ave., Watertown, Mass.

BENTLEY - BLONDON — Pine Hill Chapel was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Friday, June 25th at 5.30 p.m., when Mamie Elizabeth, second youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Blondon, Glen Valley, P.E.I., became the bride of Homer Donaldston, youngest son of McGregor Bentley and the late Mrs. Bentley, Five Islands, N. S. Rev. Dr. C. M. Nicholson, president of Pine Hill Divinity Hall, officiated at the ceremony. The bride was lovely in a street length dress of Queen's Blue crepe with hat and veil in matching shade. She wore a corsage of Talisman roses. Her only ornaments were a two-strand pearl necklace and matching earrings, the gift of the groom. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Lorraine Bentley who wore a flowered silk jersey dress with accessories in fuchia and white, with a corsage of American Beauty roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Sgt. Lorraine Bentley of the R.C.A. Mr. and Mrs. Bentley left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes and upon their return will take up residence in Halifax where the groom will complete his degree in science next year at Dalhousie University. Their many friends join in wishing them many years of wedded bliss. Worthy of mention is the fact that the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S.A. Blondon celebrated their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary on June 25th.

A dinner was held at Sandy's Restaurant Friday evening for Mr. Petcy Crosby, Charlottetown, who after 29 years of service with the Department of Veteran's Affairs, is retiring on July 21 from his position as permanent clerk.

Five years ago Rev. T. E. McLennan became the Minister of Trinity United Church. Yesterday he concluded a most successful and happy pastorate in Charlottetown by preaching two powerful and inspiring sermons to congregations that filled the spacious auditorium of this grand old church of eighty-five years, both morning and evening.

—RETURNS AFTER HOLIDAY— Mr. Reagh Francis left Saturday morning returning to his home in Alliston, Mass., after spending a week holidaying on P. E. I. He visited his mother, Mrs. Weston Francis at his old home in Freetown, also brothers and sisters in Freetown and a sister in Border, Mrs. H. Crossman. Mr. Francis holds a responsible position with the Hynds and Panche Co. in Watertown, Mass. He has been employed with this company for twenty five years.

James Leonard Plestid, 17, was drowned in Grand River when he ventured too far from shore when bathing and stepped into the channel about two o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was in the company of Gerald MacLellan and Roland Murphy, all of them residents of that locality and none of whom could swim. When the deceased found himself in deep water he called for help but there was nothing his companions could do as he was carried away by the current.

The accident occurred just below Grand River Catholic Church and the river at this point is more than a half mile wide.

Members of the Summerside Detachment R.C.M.P. were notified and dragging operations were organized and the body was recovered about five o'clock.

The death occurred at her home on Spring Street, on Saturday about 5.30, of Mrs. Norman Wright at the age of 85 years. Although she had been ill for the past two months, news of her death comes as a distinct shock to her many old friends in Summerside.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wadman, formerly of Victoria, and she was formerly Margaret Matilda Wadman. After her marriage she resided at Victoria until the year 1900 when her husband, who was a successful general merchant there, moved to Summerside and she has since resided here. Her husband, who died in 1913 and will be remembered by older residents of the Town, conducted for some years a well known business firm in partnership with his brother, the late Elisha Wright.

Death came with startling suddenness to Rev. George William Barrass on Saturday afternoon, July 17th, at the home of his son, Rev. Ernest J. Barrass, minister of the First Baptist Church, 219 Church Street, Summerside. The deceased had breakfast in his apparently usual good health but complained after shaving of not feeling well. The doctor being summoned, ordered rest but a short time later his son, going to his father's room, found the aged gentleman already dead.

The late Mr. Barrass was a retired Congregational missionary having served for many years in London, England. Eighteen months ago, on the death of his second wife, he came to Canada to live with his only son. A daughter, Mrs. P.S. Shaw died in England many years ago. Mr. Barrass at the time of his death, was in his 88th year and was a familiar figure on the streets of Summerside, being very active for his years.

FUNERAL SATURDAY — The funeral of Bernard Roy Murnaghan took place Saturday morning at 8.45 from his late residence, 59 Dorchester St., to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. P.F. MacDonald who also conducted the service at the grave. Rev. Louis Callaghan was present in the sanctuary and assisted Fr. MacDonald at the service at the grave. The order of the procession was as follows: Members of the 28th L.A.A. Rgt. R.C.A., members of the Canadian Legion, Funeral Director, Honorary Pallbearers, Hearse and Active Pallbearers, Mourners, General Public. The honorary pallbearers, members of the 28th L.A.A. Rgt. R.C.A., were Sergeants E.J. Fardy, R.J. King, H. Coffin, D.A. Moreside, C. Prowse and J.A. Peters. The active pallbearers were Messrs: William LeBlanc, Emmanuel Oatway, Leo Callaghan, James Coady, Lester Fall and Joseph Hughes. Burial was in the church cemetery.

TUESDAY

ON HOLIDAY TRIP —The many friends of Mr. Rudolph Croken welcome him, his wife and three chilren who are home on a two weeks' visit to his native province, guests of Mr. Croken's sister, Mrs. Milton Cannon and Mr. Cannon, Orlebar Street. This is Mr. Croken's first visit to the Island since going to Alberta 32 years ago. Enroute home he stopped off in Boston, spending two weeks there and picking up his two nieces, daughters of his sister Kitty, Mrs. Beagan, who are enjoying their first visit to this province.

The death occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital on May 5th of Mr. Daniel A. MacLellan of St. George's in his 88th year.

IMPROVED IN HEALTH—The many friends of Mrs. Katherine A. MacInnis of Dorchester Street, will be pleased to learn that she has returned to her home much improved after undergoing treatment in the Charlottetown Hospital for the past month. On the evening of her return home she had the pleasure of welcoming her daughter, Sister Mary Polycarp, B.V.M. of the Department of English, Mundelim College, Chicago, and Sister Mary Robertine, B.V.M., teacher of History and English, Immaculate High School, also of Chicago. The visit is of particular interest as Sister Mary Robertine taught the late Edna MacInnis in San Francisco, California.

Two members of the Summerside Detachment, R.C.M.P., were placed under arrest last evening under bailable writs issued out of the Supreme Court following actions taken by Mr. Walter Bergman, financier, of Montreal and Traveller's Rest. The officers, Sgt. D. J. Heath and Constable Leo Lauman, were released shortly after being taken into custody by Sheriff Hubert Hall, on bail of $10,000 each.

The actions were commenced for alleged illegal trespass arising out of a search conducted on Monday at Mr. Bergman's residence at Traveller's Rest by the two officers, resulting in the seizure of several bottles of liquor.

It is claimed that the members of the R.C.M.P. exceeded their authority and that because they had no search warrant their entry into the Bergman dwelling was illegal.

Police state that a charge of illegal possession under the new Temperance Act is pending against Mr. Bergman.

The arrest of the officers on bailable writs is an action rarely taken in Canadian courts. The procedure is an ancient one, largely unused for many years.

WEDDING — A wedding of interest to friends throughout the community took place at the home of the bride's parents, on Saturday evening, June 26th., when Edgar Gilman, son of Mrs. and the late James Dennis of Charlottetown and Joyce Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robertson of Kingsboro, were united in marriage. The Rev. H. R. Bell performed the nuptial ceremony. The bride wore a two piece dress of aqua blue "heart's desire" rayon crepe and carried a bouquet of white narcissus, and was attended by Miss Dorothy MacLean who wore aqua blue and carried a bouquet of yellow and white daffodils. The groomsman was Harvie D., brother of the groom, Mrs. Ethel MacLean played the Wedding March. Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party and guests retired to the dining room to do justice to a sumptuous supper. For travelling the bride wore a grey gabardine suit with white accessories. The bride received many useful and valuable gifts. They will reside in Charlottetown.

Keen sorrow was felt on the evening of May 10th, when word was passed around of the death of Francis Macdonald, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Macdonald of St. Peter's Bay, at the early age of sixteen months.

North Tryon lost one of its oldest and most highly respected residents in the death of Mr. David John Thomson in the early hours of Monday morning, June 21st., 1948. Although he had been in failing health for some time, his sudden passing came as a shock to his family and friends.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT — Master Walter Dickieson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dickieson, Darnley, met with a painful accident when he came in contact with a pitch-fork driving one of its prongs into his knee bone. Although still under the doctor's care, it is hoped he will soon recover with no serious effects.

ON HOLIDAY TRIP — Mr. Angus M. MacDonald, formerly of Rose Valley, is a visitor to the Province renewing friendships since his last visit seven years ago. Mr. MacDonald was a member of the class of 1906 in Prince of Wales College, and after a few years teaching here, he went to British Columbia where he continued in his profession. He is now principal in one of the schools in Vancouver. His trip to P. E. I. was made by bus most of the way through the United States. Speaking of the changes in the teaching profession, he noted that today there is much more Science, Art, and other subjects tending to broaden the field of education, but students today do not seem to have the same grounding in the fundamentals. Mr. MacDonald expects to spend about three weeks in the Province and is a guest at the Queen Hotel.

PINEAU - DOIRON NUPTIALS — The marriage of Pauline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Doiron, Hope River, P. E. I., and Arthur Pineau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Pineau, of South Rustico, took place at seven-thirty o'clock on the morning of Monday, July 5th at St. Ann's Church, Hope River. Rev. J. E. Dalton performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. During the ceremony beautiful hymns were rendered. The bride wore a gown of white satin, her shoulder veil attached to a turban, and carried an ivory prayer book. Miss Rita Peters acted as bridesmaid and wore a pink taffeta dress with matching accessories. Joseph Pineau, brother of the groom, was best man. The breakfast for the bridal party and members of the immediate families was served at the bride's home. After a very enjoyable ride to the city, dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray, sister of the groom. On their return supper was served at the home of the bride, to the nearest relatives of the contracting parties. The evening was spent in music and dancing. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts at a shower given in her honor previous to her marriage. Their many friends wish them every success in life.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY — Dr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Alley, Glen Alden Apts., City are today celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary.

Senator John MacKinnon, accompanied by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Cunningham, and his daughter, Crystal, of Rumford, Maine, is visiting his brothers, Mr. Hector MacKinnon and Mr. W. D. MacKinnon, both of Brooklyn Kings County. They were guests of Senator MacKinnon's niece, Mrs. Lloyd Mellish, Union Road, last Thursday.

A wedding of much interest to many in the Maritime Provinces was solemnized recently in the chapel of Riverside Church, New York, when Miss Margaret Christine daughter of Mrs. Sarah E. and the late Alexander R. MacKinnon of Sydney, N. S., became the wife of John Clark Matthews, son of the late Robert and Adeline Matthews, Elmsdale, P. E. I. The double ring ceremony was preformed by the Rev. Dr. Robert J. McCracken. The bride chose for her wedding a floor-length gown of white tissue faille, fashioned with train. Her full length veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried an old-fashioned nosegay of white flowers.

Attending the bride was Miss Margaret Longsworth of Cleveland, Ohio, who wore a floor-length dress of pale blue crepe with matching accessories and carried an arm bouquet of Tailsman roses and baby's breath. Supporting the groom was Mr. John Friesen, a class mate from Winnipeg, Manitoba. Professor Allison G. Patterson of Mount Allison Conservatory of Music was guest organist. Miss Shirlep Peck of London, Ontario sang "I Love Thee" by Beethoven and "Calm as Night" by Bohn Mr. Francis Chaplin, Saint John N. B., played the violin obligato to Miss Pack's solo "Calm as Night" and in addition played "Ave Maria" by Bach-Gounod.
