SPLENDID ADDRESS.—In the Methodist Church Pownal on Sunday night, the Rev. Mr. Weeks delivered a most practical discourse from the words "Were there not 'ten' cleansed, but where are the 'nine'?" This was not said to show Christ's healing power, over this dread disease, but show the ingratitude that prevailed at that time towards the Giver of all good, and down through the ages to the present time, one out of ten, giving thanks and praise to God for his wonderful works to the children of men. One out of ten, in the Church taking an active part in Christian work. "Where are the 'nine'?" who are they doing. Let everyone give thanks and praise to God for all his benefits, which is a bounden duty
