Mrs. T. Howatt, City, is suffering from an attack of pleurisy. Her many friends will look for her early recovery.

Invitations are issued for a banquet to be given by the Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist Church at seven o'clock on March 2nd.

The two iceboats despatched from Cape Traverse to the S. S. Stanley at Sydney, were taken aboard that vessel on Friday last.

His numerous friends are pleased to see C. R. Smallwood, city, out again after being confined to the house by illness for some days past.

The Crystals will make a determined effort to defeat the Victorias in the Game at the Arena tonight. This will no doubt be the greatest hockey match of the season.

The Charlottetown market yesterday was poorly attended and with the exception of butter, twenty-two and twenty-three cents, the prices did not differ from those last published.

J. M. Murdoch, City, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in the P. E. I. Hospital, is now recovering rapidly, though it will be some time before he will be fully restored to health.

A concert and pie social was held in the Crapaud Orange Hall on Thursday, Feb. 23rd, in aid of the Orphans' Home. The following short program was well rendered: Solo, J. L. Claxton; recitation, Miss W. Wadman; solo, J. R. Dixon; ins. music, Messrs. Ferguson and Dixon; solo, D. L. McKinnon. This was followed by the sale of pies. The amount of $42 was realized, which goes towards the Orphans' Home maintenance.

There died at Belfast, P. E. I., Feb. 19th, Angus R. McAulay, in the thirtieth year of his age. For eight years he was a resident of Sydney where he made many friends by his cheerful disposition and good fellowship. Three years ago tuberculosis manifested itself and he left Sydney for his old home in P. E. I. hoping in a short time to throw off the disease and return to Sydney, but he was not permitted to accomplish this desire. During his sickness he meditated much upon the hymn "Nearer My God to Thee." His widow is a daughter of John N. McDonald of Sydney and a brother, John S. McAulay and sister Mrs. Murdoch McAskill also reside in this city.—Sydney Ex.

A useful folder has been issued announcing the special courses of sermons and instructions to be delivered in St. Peter's Cathedral during the coming Lent. Canon Simpson will preach at the 11 a. m. service on Sundays on "Some Old Testament Examples and Warnings." On Fridays at 7.30 p. m. he will give a series of instructions on "The Sermon on the Mount." He will also give addresses to the children every Wednesday at 5 p. m. on "Some Scriptural Characters." The Rev. H. Scott Smith will preach every Sunday evening on the Requirements for the Race set before us, Repentance, Self Denial, Watchfulness, Service, Endurance, Conquest. On Wednesdays at 7.30 p. m. he will speak on the Sacrificing Self, in temptation, in the world, in the home, in teaching, in solitude.

Word has been received of the sudden death of Chester Harold Mackay of French River, who was assistant book-keeper for the firm of MacAllister & Watts, wholesale stationery, Winnipeg. He left his office on the 17th of February between four and five to transact some business for the firm. He had just crossed the street when he fell. He was picked up instantly and carried back into his office, a doctor called, but death was instant, heart failure having been the cause. No inquest was necessary. Deceased was twenty years of age, and was the eldest son of Daniel Mackay, French River. He leaves father and mother, two sisters, Mrs. L. D. Chessman of Vancouver, B. C., and Nellie in Boston, and one brother, Jack, at home. His remains arrived in this city yesterday morning and in the afternoon were forwarded to his home.

Jordan's Emulsion won four prizes and two diplomas at national exhibitions.

Are Your Glasses Right

Vision changes as all things do with the years and the glasses that were just right a few years ago may be all wrong today. If they have outlived their usefulness, you are doing your eyes an injury by wearing them and bring on headaches and nervous disorders. Better let us test your eyes and see whether your present glasses are suited to them.
