SITUATION IN GULF OF RIGA

PETROGRAD, October 18.—Regarding the situation in and around the Gulf of Riga, the semi-official news agency has issued the following summary of conditions there as coming from a competent naval authority:

"While our fleet in the zone of operations is being pressed by German forces four times its strength, our army finds itself in a more favourable position, the strength of the German troops landed being insignificant.

Tagga Bay, the only place where reinforcements can be disembarked, is exposed to the northerly gales which have been blowing for two days. The transport of our reinforcements to the island of Oesel, however, does not depend upon weather conditions.

"This explains the persistent efforts of German destroyers to penetrate as far as Moon Sound, thereby threatening our communications and the enemy's desperate attacks against the troops defending the communications. The matter should be settled before long as we are hastening the despatch of reinforcements for a counter-attack which is imminent.

SHE OBEYED ORDERS.

Some time ago, before we all got so dreadfully economical, a mistress told her new Scandinavian kitchen girl never to leave in the refrigerator anything old or left over, but to keep it clean and fresh by throwing away the old things every morning.

On the day following, the mistress happened to look out of the window and she noticed something peculiar in the yard. Calling Hilda she asked: "What is that and how did it get there?"

LETTERS OF APPRECIATION

Miss Thelma L. McLure of Brackley Point has received the following letter in acknowledgement of socks sent overseas.

Whitley Camp Surrey Oct. 14th 1917

Dear Friend:—I am writing you a few lines as you wished to hear from the soldiers that received a pair of socks you were so kind as to send over here, and I think I would be very ungrateful indeed if I did not write you the few lines that you wish. I am in a Batt. here in England, the 104th and there are a lot of P. E. I. boys in it. The rest come from New Brunswick and the boys get along very well together and all seem to be doing well.

I came from N. B. myself so can't ask you anything about home as some of the Island boys might do, but there are one or two things I want to say to you, first is that I was awfully glad to get those socks and glad to know that there are people left behind us who take an interest in the boys on this side of the water, and your interest is not wasted for the comforts that are sent to the boys over here are a very great help to them and are very much appreciated by them.

I have been in the service over two years now and can say that the people home in Canada always look after their boys in England and France. Well I suppose you have heard about enough of this kind of talk or writing I should say so I will not write any more of it. There is not very much I can write about of what is going on here for if I did it would not reach you, so I can say is that I am well and happy as you wished and all the Island boys here are the same. I might say that the Island boys in this Batt. are ones that came over here with the 105th Batt. which has been split up over here. I chum around here with a little fellow by the name of McLure he lives on the Island somewhere maybe you know him, his name is Billy. He is a fine young fellow, I am sending a picture of myself home to my people tomorrow, maybe you would like one so I will send it. I would be very glad to hear from you at any time if you could find it possible to write for I like getting mail from dear old Canada. Thanking you again for your gift I will say good-night for now, hoping this finds you well and happy and enjoying all the good things of life.

Yours Truly

GORDEN

Pte Gordon Dunham Regt. No. 709387 104th Batt. A Coy.

It used to be told of General Logan who was a member of Congress at the breaking out of the Civil War, that when he saw there was really going to be a fight, he seized a musket, slipped out of Washington, and walked all the way to Bull Run, where he arrived just in time to have a hand in the fray.

He wore a dress coat, but he stood his ground as long as anyone. The rout was complete, and the next morning, a good deal out of breath, he was back at the capital, telling some of his fellow-Congressmen what he had seen.

"Who gave you this account of the fight?" asked a member from Northern New York, as he joined the group.

"Why, I was there myself," said Logan.

The New Yorker was mystified. Apparently he had not heard the news.

"You were there?" he exclaimed. "Are the cars running?"

"No," said Logan. "The cars ain't running, but every other thing in the State of Virginia is as near as I could make out."

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Associated Press to-day carries the following:

The war is costing the belligerent nations of the world at the rate of $160,000,000 a day—$6,500,000 an hour and the United States is paying at least one-quarter of the staggering sum, according to estimate: made to-day by the Mechanics' and Metals' National Bank of New York. The estimated daily cost at the beginning of the war was $50,000,000, and a year ago it was $100,000,000. This country's rate of expenditure is greater than any other nation. Great Britain being second and Germany next.

The Staggering Total

By next August, according to the bank figures, the total cost to the world will be $155,000,000,000. Already expenditures have exceeded $100,000,000,000, of which all but a fraction has been translated into permanent national indebtedness.

Interest on public debt is now calculated to be more than 10 per cent. of the normal income of the German people, as compared with less than one-half of one per cent. in the case of the people of this country.

The developed national wealth of the Allies is placed at $600,000,000,000 by the bank, while that of the Teutonic powers is given as $130,000,000,000.

ALLIES HAVE MORE MEN NOW

About 53,000,000 men are today engaged in the war. To what extent the Entente Allies have gained superiority over Germany is shown by the bank in striking fashion.

With no more than 2,000,000 of American manhood enlisted, the total military strength of the Allies is 33,000,000, against a total for Germany, Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria, and Turkey of 20,000,000. The population of fourteen Entente Allies, from which the ranks of their armies may be replenished is altogether 1,300,000,000. This is against a population of less than 150,000,000 in the Central European nations.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CECIL TOWNSEND.

Death is always accompanied with some degree of sadness, but there are sometimes attendant circumstances which make the event more than ordinarily painful. Such was surely the case when Mrs. Cecil Townsend of Souris was laid to rest in Souris West Cemetery this afternoon. Her husband Cecil Townsend pre-deceased her about a year ago, having died suddenly. The widowed mother struggled on painfully and wearily after her husband's death for one year, confronted with many perplexing difficulties, bravely facing every problem, but the task was too heavy and at last the over-taxed brain ceased to act, and the burdened heart ceased to beat. The loss of both parents within one year, leaving a young family of 12 children, the youngest an infant of less than one year old and eight of the other children under 12 years, fatherless and motherless was a scene so sad that there were not many tearful eyes at the burial today. One son Arthur is in the Army in France; George and Annie who were in Charlottetown hastened home before the end came. Several of the children are being adopted by friends. The funeral was largely attended, many being from Bay Fortune, where Mr. Townsend formerly resided. The late Mrs. Townsend was a woman of remarkable fortitude, never dismayed by ordinary difficulties. The children most of whom are still mere babes will sorely miss one who was most tender yet firm. May He who has promised to be a father to the fatherless watch over and keep their young lives under His own protecting care.

One Exemption

A MEXICAN PHILOSOPHER.

When it is considered that Zapata is a half-breed Indian, scarcely able to read and write, it must be admitted that he is somewhat of a philosopher. I believe that this poor chieftain is the one leader in Mexico who has no ambition to be a dictator of his country. As long as he can rule his native State and keep the landlords out he is content. He sees only one thing—the land question, but he sees that very clearly. His "Plan of Ayala," as far as it applies to the common ownership of land, has worked to the satisfaction of the poor laborers.

Carranza is still carrying on war against him, but Zapata is holding his own. His army is an elastic one. At times it shrinks to a few thousand men, when the peons go back to their fields. When a campaign is begun his forces swell to many thousands.

One thing is sure. He can't get as many recruits as he has guns. Whatever the solution of the Mexican problem may be, Zapata and his half million loyal followers must be considered. He will quit fighting only when his "Plan of Ayala" is made part of the law of the nation. Of all insurgent leaders who have battled for supremacy the last six years in Mexico, he is the one chief who has remained true to his followers. His peons know what they are fighting for. They are battling for land and Don Emiliano Zapata.—Christian Herald.

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns of any kind of a corn can shortly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of freezeone, says a Cincinnati authority. It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quarter of an ounce of freezeone at any drug store which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection. This new drug is an ether compound, and while sticky, dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue. This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heeled footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.
