The Wonderful Medicine, Made From Fruit Juices and Valuable Tonics.

MADAME ROSINA FOISIZ

29 St. Rose St., Montreal.
"I am writing you to tell you that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives'. This medicine relieved me when I had given up hope of ever being well. I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia—had suffered for years; and nothing I took did me any good. I read about 'Fruit-a-tives'; and tried them. After taking a few boxes, I am now entirely well. You have my permission to publish this letter, as I hope it will persuade other sufferers from Dyspepsia to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and get well!"
MADAME ROSINA FOISIZ
'Fruit-a-tives' is the only medicine in the world made from fruit. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

WEDNESDAY
B. I. S. EMERALD.—The annual meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society of Emerald was held in their hall on the 10th inst. when the officers reports of the business of the past year were laid before the meeting and adopted. The following officers were appointed for the ensuing year: Patron, Rev. Dr. M. J. Smith; President, M. T. Lambé; Vice Pres., Chas. McKenna; Treasurer, P. F. Hughes; Secretary, John T. White; Sergeant-at-Arms, Stephen Murtagh; Sick and Relief Com., P. A. McMahon, John Mohan, John Moynagh; Hall and Managing Com., Wm. Clarke P. McMahon, Jas. A. Murphy; Marshal, P. L. Cash.

—SEVERELY WOUNDED.—Mr. Hiram Woodside, Kensington, received word from the 5th London Gen. Hospital on Friday that his son Pte. Wm. Woodside had had his leg amputated at the thigh and was in a very critical condition. Pte. Woodside has been in the hospital since the first of September with a serious arterial wound in the thigh but was in such a weak condition the Doctors did not consider it advisable to operate sooner. The operation not being successful it was found absolutely necessary to amputate. The many friends of this brave young soldier unite in hoping his speedy recovery and safe return home.

SERG. LOVE D. C. M.—The Prince Rupert Evening Empire says:—He's now Sergeant Ernest Love, D. C. M. That means, Distinguished Conduct Medal. Word arrived yesterday in a letter to Mr. Harry Love from his brother Ernest, who wrote from where he was camped near Mons, Nov. 14th. There were no particulars. It just said that Ernest had been awarded the D. C. M. for valorous work on the battlefield. The news will be learned with pleasure by Serg. Love's many friends in Prince Rupert. The boys were both in camp about six months from Mons, and at the time of writing expected to soon move on toward a city on the Rhine. Serg. Love is a son of Mr. A. H. Love, formerly of Charlottetown and Kensington and has many relatives and friends who are proud of his honors.

In the death of Mr. Richard Clement Albion Grant which occurred at his home on Water Street yesterday forenoon, Charlottetown has lost another of its most prominent business men and an excellent citizen. Mr. Grant had been in failing health for some time, and it was only his indomitable spirit which made him bear up as he did to the last. Deceased was born at Earncliffe, Oct. 21st, 1869 and was therefore only in his fiftieth year. He was associated in the grocery business in his early manhood with his father the late Mr. Wm. Grant and upon the death of the latter he assumed charge of the business, and some time later sold out to Mr. R. F. Maddigan and went into the agricultural implement business still maintaining the old firm name of Wm. Grant & Co. Mr. Grant conducted this business for 23 years very successfully. A year ago he took into partnership Mr. Samuel Kennedy, Jr. and the business was then conducted under the firm name of Grant & Kennedy. Since the recent fire which visited their premises Mr. Grant sold out his interest. Some eighteen years ago the deceased met with an accident from the effects of which he never fully recovered and which doubtless had much to do with shortening his days. While doing an act of charity for a poor man, as he often did for many, he made a misstep, falling down the elevator shaft in his place of business a distance of 26 feet. He lay unconscious at that time for three hours before being found. He sustained severe internal injuries as the result. The late Mr. Grant served two terms in the City Council and was 14 years chairman of the board of assessors, a position which he was obliged to resign this year owing to his health. He was a charter member of the local K. of C. and C.M.B.A. and stood high in the estimation of the members of these bodies. He took much interest in the welfare of Charlottetown and did all he could to promote its interests.

NERVES ALL ON TENSION?

A mother in the home, or a man or woman at business, with nerves undone and the system generally feeling the strain, should find wonderful help in

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Powerful sedatives or strong medicines are habit-forming and dangerous. The logical help is a form of nourishment abundant in tonic properties. Scott's brings strength to the body, through nourishment that is felt in every part. If inclined to be nervous, the logical answer is—Scott's Emulsion.
Scott & Bowser, Toronto, Ont.

Charitable to the poor and devoted to his family he will be much missed. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, (formerly Miss Clara E. Hogan, daughter of the late Mr. M. P. Hogan, of this city.) two daughters, Mrs. A. J. McInnis, of Earncliffe, and Richardson and Earl, the latter two at home, to all of whom deepest sympathy is extended.

FROM "SOMEWHERE IN GERMANY."—Premier Arsenault has received a Christmas card from General Sir Arthur Currie and officers of the headquarters staff dated from "Somewhere in Germany." Evidently Eau de Cologne by any other name smells as sweet to the victorious army.

There passed peacefully away at Annandale on Nov. 3rd, 1918 Everett McDonald at the early age of 18 years. The deceased leaves to mourn five brothers and one sister. Two of the brothers are serving in France, Gunners Harold and Cameron, Arthur our West, Guy in N. Scotia and Sidney on the old home in Little Pond and Mrs. James Banks of Annandale besides many friends and relatives to mourn the loss of a loved one.

PROMINENT ISLANDER'S FUNERAL.—State and city officials and men prominent in every walk of life attended the funeral of Police Commissioner Stephen O'Meara at St. Cecilia's Church in the Back Bay, Boston, this week. Judges and bankers, merchants and professional men, officials and members of the fire department, police officials and patrolmen, and men of present and past civic prominence were among the mourners. Adjutant-General Jess F. Stevens and his staff represented Governor McCall, who was unable to be present. Former President Roosevelt and United States Senator Lodge, who were on the list of honorary pall bearers, were unable to be present. All traffic on a section of Commonwealth Avenue down to Massachusetts Avenue was stopped for a short time in the morning for the passing of the impressive procession.

—THANK OFFERING and Honor Roll.—The Women's Missionary Society of New London held their annual Thank Offering in the church on Friday evening Dec. 13th. Rev. John Sterling being the speaker. A special feature of the evening was the unveiling of the Honor Roll. New London has reason to be proud as was evidenced by the large number of names. Mr. Sterling took as his text: "Except a Grain of Wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone, but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." He said our boys on the Roll were like a grain of wheat, they need not have made the sacrifice of going to fight but they choose to be of use to their country, and to save their homes from the fate of the French and Belgium homes. He also spoke feelingly for those who mourn as two on the Roll have made the supreme sacrifice. A solo was well sung by Mrs. Ray McLeod, also a duet by Ada and Bessie McEwen, after which the collection was taken amounting to over seventy dollars.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at MacDonald Baptist Church, Edmonton, at 8.30 p. m. Tuesday, Dec. 10th, when Miss Alice E. Matheson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Matheson, Dundas, P. E. I. was united in marriage to Mr. William P. Doyle, of Hoasler, Sask. The bride was very becomingly attired in dress of taupe armure, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. Immediately after the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith, of 10024-105 St., Edmonton, gave a reception in their home, the decorations being smilax and pink and white carnations. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts among them a set of silverware from the Manager and staff of The Molson's Bank, where the bride had been employed for some time. The happy couple left amid the good wishes of a host of friends on the midnight through train for Jasper, Prince George, Prince Rupert and from there via S. S. Prince George for Vancouver and other points. On their return they will reside at Hoasler, Sask.

FRIDAY
SOME VALUABLE FURS.—Mr. A. E. MacLean who is buying and exporting large quantities Silver Foxes and other furs paid Tignish a visit a few days ago. Among other purchases made was a magnificent lot of pelts bought from Sir Charles Dalton. The price paid it is understood was a fancy one.

—WAITS WERE OUT.—The sum of $31.00 was realized Monday evening in Summerside when a number of outdoor singers, under the direction of Miss L. M. Hurst, rendered Christmas music in different parts of the town including the Railway Station. This amount was used to bring gladness to the homes of the poor during Christmas.—L.

—OLD RESIDENT PASSES AWAY.—The residents of Glenwood have lost one of the oldest as well as one of the sweetest old ladies in the person of Mrs. Betts, at the age of 84 years and ten months. The passing away took place on Saturday evening at the home of her son Benjamin. She leaves also other sons in Amasa, Clifford and George besides a large number of relatives, the aged lady being one of five generation.—W.

*RETURNED HERO.—On Tuesday morning another young Georgetown soldier returned from overseas after "doing his bit" in France, in the person of Pte. John Fairchild, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Fairchild, Georgetown. Private Fairchild left with the "105th" and has seen active service against the Hun. His friends are pleased to observe that "Jack" appears none the worse for his thrilling experiences.—G.

—PARLOR SOCIAL.—A very enjoyable social was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling McKay, New London, Wednesday evening, Dec. 18th. A large crowd was present and passed away the time by contests and games, after which Mr. Robert M. Lamont sang some songs which delighted all. Refreshments were passed after which the collection was taken amounting to over twenty-five dollars, which is to be spent for Xmas gifts for the children of the Protestant Orphanage.

Prince Edward Islanders from the battlefields of France and Flanders are coming home now by nearly every boat. The S. S. Grampian which arrived at St. John on December 24th from Liverpool brought a thousand troops a large number of civilian munition workers with their wives and children and quite a number of civilians who had been prisoners of war in Germany, here were about thirty Prince Edward Island soldiers on this ship, some of whom arrived in Charlottetown on Christmas Day. Unfortunately no advance notice had been sent to the proper source here regarding their coming or they would have received the customary public welcome. This however did not worry the boys, who it is needless to say were only too glad to get home. To those residing in the city and who could go direct to their homes their return certainly must have served to make the glad season of Christmas a most joyous one indeed.

Among those who returned was Pte. Leon Worthy, M. M. son of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Worthy, Hillsboro square He left here with the C. M. R. under Col. Ings, having resigned his position in the Bank of Nova Scotia in order to enlist. Pte. Worthy was an excellent name for himself at the front and by his bravery and devotion to duty was awarded the Military Medal as described in the Guardian some time ago. For some months past he has been at Bramshott Camp on reserve. Another who returned was Sergt. Carl Kelly who left here with the Second Heavy Battery. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kelly, Kent St. and a brother of Lieut. James Gerald Kelly M. C. of the 26th Battalion and Ted of the 20th Toronto and Jack in the United States army, all of whom have done their bit nobly, having fought and suffered for the cause.

Among others who arrived were:—Bomb. James Strain of Charlottetown, who also served in the Second Heavy Battery.

Pte. James Walker of Caledonia, who left here with the 105th and served with the 26th Battalion and was wounded at Amiens.

Pte. M. Martell son of Mr. William Martell of Georgetown who joined the 55th Battalion in Halifax and served with that regiment until wounded in the leg by shrapnel and shot at Amiens. Gr. Harry Taylor, Charlottetown of the Canadian Field Artillery. Pte. Townsend of Souris. Pte. P. C. McCarthy, Souris. Gr. T. W. Glover of Murray Harbor. Gr. John Dicks, Charlottetown. Pte. S. L. Landry, Montague. Gr. J. D. Matheson, North Wiltshire. Pte. J. C. McDougall, Morell. Pte. B. McKay, Coleman. Pte. F. W. Scott, Charlottetown. Pte. A. L. Warren, Summerside. Pte. H. L. Wedge, Summerside.

—CAPE WOLFE AND O'LEARY Methodist circuits services for Sunday 29th, Knutsford 10.30 a. m., Cape Wolfe 3 p. m., Bethel 7 p. m., Knutsford 7 p. m. Prayer service, offerings and special gifts for can. funds. Special service Milburn 31st at 7 p. m.—W.

WEDDED IN LONDON.—The marriage of Col. J. S. Jenkins, D. S. O. of Charlottetown, P. E. I., a graduate of McGill University and Miss Louise McLeod Mitchell of Petersburg was solemnized at St. James Church, Spanish Place, London Eng., on Oct. 30. Major—The Rev. Father J. J. O'Gorman, Chaplain to the Canadian Forces overseas officiated.

SUCCESSFUL SALE.—A very successful sale was conducted for Mr. George Bolt, North Milton by Mr. Benj. Carter, Auctioneer last Thursday. The day being ideal for the purpose a large crowd gathered and bidding was decidedly brisk. Excellent prices were secured for the stock crop and implements. Mr. Bolt was well satisfied in every way with the results.

A THOUGHTFUL ACT.—An anonymous correspondent in Boston sends the Guardian a five dollar bill with the request that the amount be expended "on fruit and candy for the dear little children at the Protestant Orphanage to give them a little Christmas cheer." This is a kindly and generous act and the unknown benefactor, although not thanked in person, will receive the greatest blessing assured to those who do even the smallest kindness "In His name."

PROHIBITION CHANGES.—After January 1, 1919, Mr. George H. Barbour, formerly Inspector for Prince County, will be Chief Prohibition Inspector for the whole Province and Mr. Thomas Dover, Charlottetown will be his assistant, having jurisdiction all over the Province. The item in Tuesday's issue regarding these changes was not quite accurate, it being stated, that Mr. G. C. Acorn, whose services terminate on Dec. 31st was Prosecutor for Prince County, instead of Inspector for the Province.

Deep regret was heard on every side yesterday on it being learned that Mr. Gordon McKay, of East Royalty had passed away after an illness of only one week of pneumonia. He was only 28 years of age. Deceased was engaged in dairy farming, his farm adjoining that of his father, and he had been a milk vendor for some years past, supplying patrons in this city. By his industry, intelligence and courtesy he was steadily achieving success in his business; when death brought a promising career to an untimely close. He was a young man of splendid character, and held in esteem by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn a widow, (nee Miss Nellie Stewart) and two young children, also his parents, one brother, Frank, and one sister, Gussie at home, also another sister, Katie, wife of Herbert Love, of Charlottetown Royalty.

NO TONIC LIKE HOODS

Sarsaparilla For a Time Like This, After Influenza, the Grip.

When purified blood, rebuilt strength and regulated bowels are essential.

In the after-effects of influenza, the grip and other prostrating diseases, Hood's Sarsaparilla has remarkable health-helping effect.

It expels the poisons that have weakened and depleted the blood, causing pallor, anemia, flabby flesh and lax muscles. It is the standard blood remedy with a successful record of nearly fifty years.

Many people—it is really astonishing how many—need a fine, gentle, easy cathartic in these trying times. We recommend Hood's Pills, used in the best families, and equally effective with delicate women or robust men.
