SAVED BABY LYON'S LIFE

Untold Suffering and Constant Misery—Awful Slight From that Dreadful Complaint, Infantile Eczema—Commenced at Top of his Head and Covered Entire Body.

MOTHER PRAISES CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Our baby had that dreadful complaint, Infantile Eczema, which afflicted him for several months, commencing at the top of his head, and at last covering his whole body. His sufferings were untold and constant misery, in fact, there was nothing we would not have done to have given him relief. The family doctor seemed to be wholly incapable of coping with the case, and after various experiments of his, which resulted in no benefit to the child, we sent to Mason, Ill., to a druggist and got a full set of the Cuticura Remedies and applied as per directions, and he began to improve immediately, and in about three or four days began to show a brighter spirit and really laughed, for the first time in a year. In about ninety days he was fully recovered, with the exception of a rough skin, which is gradually disappearing, and eventually will be replaced by a healthy one.
"Praise for the Cuticura Remedies has always been our greatest pleasure, and there is nothing too good that we could say in their favor, for they certainly saved our baby's life, for he was the most awful sight that I ever beheld, prior to the treatment of the Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. Macbell, Lyon, 1828 Appleton Ave., Parsons, Kan., July 18, 1905."

A SET OFTEN CURES

Complete external and internal treatment for every humor, from pimples to scrofula, consists of Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills. A single set is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, and scaly humors, eczemas, rashes, and irritations, from infancy to age, when all else fails.
Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass., U.S.A. Send for "The Great Skin Book."

FIERY ADVANCE OF VESUVIUS

F. Marion Crawford, the Famous Novelist, Sends a Graphic Picture of the Eruption of the Volcano to a New York Paper—Air Almost Unbreathable.

New York, April 14.—The Times today prints an account of the eruption of Mount Vesuvius by F. Marion Crawford, novelist. His despatch is dated San Angelo, Bay of Naples, Tuesday. After giving briefly a general sketch of the eruption, he says:

"Yesterday (Monday) I drove through Torre Dell Annunziata to the point where the main stream of lava stopped on Monday. The lava carried vast masses of burned stone and sulphur on its surface, like dross on melted lead, and nothing was visible toward Boscorecaz but endless masses of dark soot, broken here and there by the greenish curling smoke of sulphur.

"At the point we reached, a great stone pine tree was torn up by its roots and turned to black charcoal that stuck out of the mass at a sharp angle. The air was almost unbreathable, the heat intense.

"The faces of the people who crowded upon the edge of the arrested stream expressed present terror or exhaustion from recent panic.

"When the stream of fire threatened Boscorecaz, soldiers dug a wide ditch across its path and threw up a formidable entrenchment, in the hope of diverting its course, but every effort was useless.

"The molten stone advanced like a colossal serpent of fire, turning its head to the right and left as a snake does, but keeping its general direction toward the fated town. It was not till it reached the first house, sending up great showers of sparks, that the people finally fled for their lives, taking such belongings as they could carry in their arms or pile up on the creeping cars.
"I saw men, women and children and infants, whose mothers carried them at the breast or in their aprons. Dogs, too, and cats were on the carts and sometimes even chickens held together by their legs, and heaps of mattresses and pillows and shapeless bundles of clothing, all white with dust under the lurid glare.

"I saw one woman lying on her back across a cart, ghastly white, and it not dead already of fear and heat and suffocation, was certainly almost gone. We ourselves could hardly breathe.

"At the moment of writing, in Sorrento at 2 p.m., I can see nothing of Naples or Vesuvius, or even of Ischia (an island in the Bay of Naples) 30 miles to the west of the volcano, for all is hidden by a lurid curtain that is not affected by the fresh easterly breeze. The ashes are a fine dark grey dust and are thick in my garden, walk along the Terrace, and on all the plants. Even at a distance of 50 yards there is a slight film in the air."
