

The Paper That
Covers Prince Edward Island
Like The Dew.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody

All The News
Worth Reading
All The Ads
Worth Printing

Charlottetown Guardian, Three Cents.
Morning Guardian, Founded 1881. Evening Guardian 1887.

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1920

Annual Subscription, delivered, $6.00.
By Mail, Canada, $4.00, U. S. A. $4.50.

OTTAWA CONSIDER UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM

Executive Committee of Employment Service Council to Meet. Manufacturers, Trades, Labor and Soldiers to be Represented.

(Special to The Guardian)
OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 27.—The executive committee of the employment service council met here this morning. The whole problem of unemployment in Canada was discussed. W. B. McCoy of Halifax chairman, had not reached Ottawa when the meeting opened but is expected later. The Labor Department Canadian Manufacturers Association and the Trades and Labor Congress are all represented and representation of the council is given to the Great War Veterans Association. Unemployment is particularly affects the returned soldiers is expected to receive a large share of the Council's attention.

ALLEGED ALLIANCE TO KEEP OUT JAPS

(Special to The Guardian)
NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Carter Field, the Washington correspondent of the Tribune, claims to have been informed to the effect that preliminary discussions are taking place between representatives of Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the United States with a view to forming an anti-Japanese alliance. The story is being picked up by its allies in the United States. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in a recent address, Mr. Lodge spoke of the desirability of such an alliance and according to Mr. Carter, this has started negotiations which appear to be of a vague and very unofficial nature.

CANADA KNOWS NOTHING OF IT

OTTAWA, Dec. 27.—Officials in Ottawa have no knowledge of an alleged Canadian American alliance for the purpose of excluding Japanese from North America. No such alliance is in contemplation. The present agreements between Canada and Japan is said to be working very satisfactorily.

CONDENSED SPECIALS

FOR SERVICE—YORKSHIRE

Boar, L. A. Mann, Burlington, 2529

FOR SALE—TWO WOODSLEIGHS

well seasoned. Apply 220 Sydney Street. 2532-12-28-31.

FOR JOB PRINTING OF every description, patronize the Central Job Printery, 176 Kent St., Tel. 480-L.

FOR SALE—HOUSE AND LOT.

Situated at Murray River. Apply owner, Mrs. G. H. Kiely, York R. R. No. 1. 2500-12-26-31.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY. MAID

for general housework. No washing. Good wages. Apply 233 Queen St. 2468-12-29-31.

SURVEYING AT MONTAGUE

this week. Jno Alfred McDonald, Land Surveyor, Hermanville. Call tip Central, Montague. 2619.

FOR SALE—CHOICE MILCH

cow, 6 years old, Ayrshire grade due to freshen January 10th. G. E. Waddell, Kelly's Cross. 2517-12-28-21.

WANTED SECOND CLASS TEACHER

for Pleasant Valley School No. 104 Supplement $125. Apply to Thomas Bertram, Secretary, Bradalbane, R. R. No. 2. 2458-12-28-31.

FOR SALE—TOBACCO CUTTER

Presses, Pans, Retainer Racks, Metals. Here is a chance to start a factory at a small cost. Apply to P. O. Box 43, Pictou, N. S. 2521.

MAKE MONEY AT HOME—$15

to $50. paid weekly for your spare time writing showcards for us. No canvassing. We instruct and supply you with work. West Angus Showcard Service, 10 Colborne, St., Toronto.

A GENTLEMAN CAN BE ACCOMMODATED

with room and board in private house with all modern conveniences. Central location. Apply "J. M. C." care of Guardian office. 2474-12-23-11.

FOX MEN ATTENTION.—WE are now ready to accept applications for the registration of foxes in The Canadian Fox Breeders Association. Application forms for membership and registration as well as Tattoo Cards will be furnished on request. E. H. Monkley, Summerside, Sec'y. 3613-11-12-14.

FURS WANTED—I AM BUYING

for cash or handling on a commission basis. Silver, Cross, and Red Fox pelts; Mink, Muskrat, etc. Having the best possible connections with leading fur houses in London, New York, St. Louis and other centres, I am in a position to handle any quantity of raw fur at the prevailing market prices. Correspondence solicited. E. H. Rayser, Summerside, P. E. I. 1043-12-24.

Lost Balloonists May Be In Quebec

Lieut. Evans Convinced They Have Been Found by Traders or Indians

OTTAWA, Dec. 29.—Despite the fact that no further news came to hand today, Lieut. Evans is still hopeful of finding the missing balloonists of the United States Air Service, who have now been lost for six days.

He said tonight that he was convinced he had located the area that solved the solution to the mystery. "My brother airmen are most assuredly in the area bounded by the Lakes Mistassin, Abitibi and St. John," he said.

"I believe that the three missing men have fallen into the hands of traders at an isolated post, or the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, or they may have been taken in hand by the Indians a number of whom, I understand, are living in the neighborhood."

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Father Kicked To Death In Drunken Brawl

(Special to The Guardian)
VANCOUVER, Dec. 27.—Within a few minutes after dressing the Christmas tree for his motherless children, John Knight Palmer, was brutally kicked to death on Xmas eve when responding to a cry for assistance, he intervened in a brawl in an adjoining suite. William Hewston and Amos Mc Nutt are held on the charge of murder in the suite occupied by Mr. and Mrs. McBroome, where Hewston, McNutt and others were alleged to be drinking.

Death of Mrs. (Dr.) W. J. P. McMillan

Charlottetown today mourns the death of one of its most esteemed lady residents in the person of Mrs. (Dr.) W. J. P. McMillan, who passed away yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. McMillan became critically ill several days ago, and her life has since been hanging in the balance. Her friends fervently hoped that in the brave struggle she was making for her life that she would be spared but it was not to be, and her gentle spirit about 11 o'clock yesterday morning returned to Him who gave it.

The death of Mrs. McMillan is a matter of very deep regret, and the whole community by whom she was known, notwithstanding her retiring disposition will deeply sympathize with her sorely bereaved husband and his six motherless children in the sad loss they have been called upon so suddenly to bear.

Deceased whose maiden name was Mary MacDonald, was a native of a Souris being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacDonald of South Boston. She was a grand niece of Rev. Mgr. Douglas MacDonald of Tignish with whom she lived from early childhood up to the time of her marriage.

Deceased was a woman of beautiful Christian character, who was affectionately esteemed by everyone who knew her. In the home she will be terribly missed for it was there that her splendid womanly qualities shone.

To the bereaved husband, parents, five sisters and two brothers living in South Boston and six young children three boys and three girls—viz: Dorothy, Bernadette, Nora, Joseph, Stephen and Allen, the Guardian joins with many friends in extending sincere sympathy.

One sister, Mrs. Roberts of South Boston is expected home tonight. Funeral will leave her late residence, Wednesday morning at 9.45 for St. Dunstan's Cathedral thence to R. C. Cemetery.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

Lieut. Evans added that possibly the three balloonists were wounded or suffering through their hardships, and the Indians were nursing them prior to guiding them to the nearest place in communication with the outside world, which might mean no outside world for a prolonged period from them. Lieut. Evans said he was not discouraged at not receiving more definite news, as he had not anticipated anything definite so early in the search.

RAIDERS WRECK OFFICE OF COOK EXAMINER

Machinery Smashed, Bombs Exploded and Building Set on Fire. Orders of the Irish Republic.

CORK, Dec. 27.—Thirty armed and masked raiders invaded the offices of the Cork Examiner Christmas eve, broke the machinery with hammers, wrecked parts of the building with explosives and set fire to the property. They escaped before the arrival of the police. The fire was extinguished but the other damage was very extensive.

The raiders, who were in civilian clothing, said they were acting under "orders of the Irish Republic." They forced their way through the front entrance, carrying sledge-

YOUNG ADAMS COMPANY OPEN SECOND WEEK

The Young Adams Company through four acts of intense well written drama, pits her strength and world knowledge against his and in the end forces him to acknowledge that might and money cannot always win when right and justice is allied with the other side.

Miss Adams, as the woman in the case was forced, sincere and handled the many difficult situations of the role in a way that showed she had given it considerable study; knew what the author intended the character to be and did her best to sink her own individual personalities and make "Shirley Rossomora" the dominant character of the play.

"John Burckett Ryder," the money bag as H. Wilmot Young played him, could undoubtedly handle any proposition in business life and make it successful.

The various other roles were all well taken.

The play tonight is "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

Sudden Death of Mr. Frederick Large

Christmas Day proved one of deep sorrow to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Large of this city, who were called upon to mourn the death of their son Frederick, a young man of 22 years. That morning he had called on a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred N. Large on Bayfield Street. He was in the act of taking off his gloves when he suddenly collapsed and became unconscious. Medical aid was summoned but he never regained consciousness and death ensued in about fifteen minutes from the time he collapsed. Heart failure was the cause of death, the deceased having for some time been in frail health and suffering with asthma. His death has caused wide spread regret in this city, for he was a young man of splendid character, held in the highest esteem by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. He was employed with Messrs DeBlois Bros., Ltd., in this city where he will be greatly missed by his fellow employees who speak in the highest terms of him—both as a worker and a companion. The deceased was a member of the Odd Fellows and the City Fire Brigade. His funeral yesterday afternoon from his late home on Queen Street to St. Paul's Church was largely attended by the members of these organizations as well as by citizens generally. The pall bearers were composed of Messrs B. Vandierstine, John Lewis, Patterson Forsythe, (I. O. O. F.) and Ernest McTague, Angus McEachern and Regie McMillan, (Firemen.) Rev. Mr. Raymond conducted the service at St. Paul's and at the grave.

The cortege was headed by the 4th Regiment Band which was followed by a sleigh conveying the wreaths and numerous floral tributes. The firemen came next drawing the salvage corps wagon bearing the coffin which was draped in black and surrounded by white and red roses. To the bereaved parents and other relatives deep sympathy goes out in their sad bereavement.

Victim Dies.
HAMILTON, Dec. 27.—Dr. M. J. Whitworth, veterinary surgeon of Hall's Corner, Wentworth county (Ont.), who was shot by two motor bandits last Thursday night while trying to defend the till in his office from being rifled by the bandits, died in the General Hospital here on Christmas Day. He was forty-eight years of age and single.

EDITOR BECOMES LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.
OTTAWA, Dec. 27.—The appointment of Walter C. Nichol, proprietor of the Vancouver Province, as Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia, was announced officially on Friday night.

IN MEMORIAM

The office and warehouses of DeBlois Bros., Ltd., were closed yesterday afternoon, out of respect to the cherished memory of our comrade, the late Mr. Fred A. Large, who was greatly esteemed by his employers, and by every member of the staff.

Fred's character was a beautiful one—clean, upright and true; and his name will be ever revered by all who knew him, and the remembrance of his friendship will remain green in our memories for all time to come.

To us it seemed his life was too soon done. Ended indeed while scarcely yet begun, God, with his clearer Vision saw that he Was ready for a larger ministry.

It is not tale of years that tells the whole Of man's success or failure, but the Soul He brings to them, the Song he sings to them, The steadfast gaze he fixes on the goal.

So grant us, Lord, like him to live, Beloved by man, approved by Thee, Till Thou at last the summons give, And we, with him, Thy face shall see.

EDITOR BECOMES LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.
OTTAWA, Dec. 27.—The appointment of Walter C. Nichol, proprietor of the Vancouver Province, as Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia, was announced officially on Friday night.

OTTAWA, Dec. 27.—The appointment of Walter C. Nichol, proprietor of the Vancouver Province, as Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia, was announced officially on Friday night.

OTTAWA, Dec. 27.—The appointment of Walter C. Nichol, proprietor of the Vancouver Province, as Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia, was announced officially on Friday night.

OTTAWA, Dec. 27.—The appointment of Walter C. Nichol, proprietor of the Vancouver Province, as Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia, was announced officially on Friday night.

Fire In Lumber Camp Causes Death and Injury

(Special to The Guardian)
NORTON, Dec. 27.—In a fire yesterday morning which completely destroyed the lumber camp of R. L. Dibble, near Smithfield, about four miles from here, a little boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Clements of Shediac, N. B., camp cook, was burned to death and three men who tried to rescue the boy suffered more or less serious injuries from burns. One of the men John Chisholm is badly burned but is expected to recover. All the buildings in the camp were burned to the ground.

Maritime Provinces Telegraphic News

(Special to The Guardian)
CONVICTS TO HAVE CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT
DORCHESTER, Dec. 27.—The convicts of the Maritime Penitentiary will be given a Xmas entertainment tomorrow. The first one ever held in a Canadian Penal institution and the opening steps of prison reform in the Dominion. The concert is being given under the patronage of the new warden, brother of Canada's Premier and known to the convicts as "square deal" Meighan.

C. N. R. EMPLOYEES HAVE NO INSTRUCTIONS RE STRIKE

MONCTON, N. B. Dec. 27.—L. S. Brown assistant manager of the C. N. R., announced today that local officials have received no instructions as to what steps to take when the embargo imposed by Brotherhood employees on the plants of the Dominion Steel Corporation and the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Co. goes into effect at midnight tonight.

LONGSHOREMEN REFUSED INCREASE

HALIFAX, N. S. Dec. 27.—Halifax longshoremen have been refused a five cent an hour increase in pay by the shipping companies.

EIGHT BELOW AT ST. JOHN

St. John, N. B. December 27.—With a gale rising at times to sixty miles an hour the coldest day of the season felt much chillier than the official minimum of eight degrees below zero here today.

REVIEWING ANCIENT OPERA

LONDON, Dec. 27.—An ancient opera from the 16th century entitled "Beggars Opera" is to be produced Wednesday in Greenwich Village Theatre.

BALLOON STILL MISSING

TORONTO, Dec. 27.—There is no trace yet of the missing United States Army balloon. The search is being conducted in the northern wilds of Ontario and Quebec.

SANTA STUCK IN CHIMNEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—A well known New York alderman stuck in the chimney while playing Santa Claus on Christmas. He had a narrow escape.

CRIME WAVE IN Upper Canada

(Special to The Guardian)
TORONTO, Dec. 27.—Automobile bandits, shop-breakers and ordinary thugs, thieves and hold-up men in this city seemed little affected by the Christmas spirit, except that they took advantage of opportunities that came their way by reason of it being the Christmas season and "creaked" where they had so. Their harvest began Christmas Eve and continued well into Christmas morning.

WOMEN OPPOSE MILITARISM

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The National Women's Party Convention held here expressed themselves as strongly opposed to militarism.

SING SING INMATES CELEBRATE

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Sing Sing prison was overcrowded on Saturday when a big Christmas celebration was held for the inmates.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, COMING EVENTS, MEETINGS, ETC.

Basketball tonight. Anglicans vs Presbyterians, Y. M. C. A. G. Y. M. Admission to all 15c. 2827

MASQUERADE DANCE
Olympia Cabaret, Friday
Dec. 31st. New Year's eve
Tickets 50 cts. and only a limited number.
2531-12-28-w f 61.

TO HOLD CONFERENCE ON MR. HANNA'S ORDER

Railway Management Having Failed to Appoint Representative to Confer with Employees, Minister of Labor Has Made Appointment.

OTTAWA, Dec. 27.—The management of the Canadian National Railways has failed to nominate any one to represent them on the Board of Conciliation in response to the request of the employees of that company in the dispute over the famous Hanna order, Hon. G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, has named E. S. McGuigan and the employees' representative, David Campbell of Winnipeg, have been requested to meet and select a chairman. Should they fail to agree on a choice of the third member on the board the Minister of Labor has power under the Industrial Disputes Act to nominate a third member who shall act as chairman. Mr. McGuigan is a large contractor and was formerly identified with the Grand Trunk Railway and the construction of the Ontario Hydro Electric System.

News of the World At a Glance

(Special to The Guardian)
COMPANY TO BE REFINANCED
NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—The Good year Tire and Rubber Company is to be re-financed and will issue fifty million dollars first mortgage bonds.

DISAPPOINTING XMAS RETAIL TRADE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—A disappointing Christmas trade had a depressing effect on the market.

Young Man Terribly Injured in Accident

James Lannigan of Souris a young man, 26 years of age was brought to the Charlottetown Hospital on Friday evening suffering from terrible injuries received in an accident.

It appears that the young man with another man was breaking in young colts. They were driving long in a wagon and were passing a gate which hung open near the roadside. The young animal unexpectedly balked at the gate swerving around suddenly, upsetting the carriage and throwing the occupants. Lannigan's companion landed upon him heavily. Lannigan was terribly injured. Assistance was summoned as soon as possible and after necessary medical aid it was deemed advisable to have the injured man sent in to the Charlottetown Hospital. His injuries were found to consist of both arms and his hip broken and his shoulder dislocated.

This most regrettable accident is deeply deplored. Lannigan is a son of the late Captain Lannigan of Souris West.

THE WEATHER, TEMPERATURE, TIDE, MOON, ETC.

The coldest Saturday night was zero. At 9 p. m. Sunday it was 2 degrees above zero. The mildest during the day Sunday was 9 degrees above—it being the same at night. The coldest Sunday was 7 above. At 9 p. m. it was 9 above. The highest yesterday was 18 above.

High tide this afternoon at 1.19 and tomorrow morning at 1.50. Sun sets this afternoon at 4.23 and rises tomorrow morning at 7.41. New moon Sunday Jan. 9th.

GETTING BUMPED IS PART OF HAVING A GOOD TIME

ANNOUNCEMENTS,
COMING EVENTS,
MEETINGS, ETC.

MASQUERADE DANCE
Olympia Cabaret, Friday
Dec. 31st. New Year's eve
Tickets 50 cts. and only a limited number.
2531-12-28-w f 61.

ANNOUNCEMENTS,
COMING EVENTS,
MEETINGS, ETC.

MASQUERADE DANCE
Olympia Cabaret, Friday
Dec. 31st. New Year's eve
Tickets 50 cts. and only a limited number.
2531-12-28-w f 61.

ANNOUNCEMENTS,
COMING EVENTS,
MEETINGS, ETC.

MASQUERADE DANCE
Olympia Cabaret, Friday
Dec. 31st. New Year's eve
Tickets 50 cts. and only a limited number.
2531-12-28-w f 61.

ANNOUNCEMENTS,
COMING EVENTS,<