AN ANNIVERSARY.—On the 24th of February 1903 the marriage took place of James Farquharson of Lot 48 and Miss Jane Hyde of West River, Queen's County, and the four only members of the happy party who are still living declare that the occasion surpassed any like celebration of the time. On the chosen day the bride felt blessed that the mid-summer sun shone and thus omened happiness and the groom, no doubt in a element of ecstasy was accompanied by a large party of friends from his own district who supplemented the joyous tinkle of the sleigh bells and more striking sources of noise and music as they approached Howard's Point by way of West River ice. Richard Smith, now of Brighton attended Mr. Farquharson as "best man." At their retired home about a mile from Charlottetown Mr. and Mrs. Farquharson Monday, their marriage day anniversary performed the duties of host and hostess in a manner befitting their culture and capability. During the whole day and well into the night the sons and daughters of their old friends thronged the place carrying tangible expressions of affection and admiration and voicing congratulations on the happy occasion. The dining table which was arranged with appropriate floral decorations had been principally superintended by the hostess, and much of the good things provided, which were elaborate and delicious were by herself. Towards evening Mr. Simpson the piper, arrived and regaled the party with music which seemed to inspire and entice those present so that they became a unit in merry making for the rest of the evening, and speeches, songs, stories, and jokes were the order until a late hour. An address of congratulation voiced the sentiments of those present and was acknowledged on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Farquharson by their son-in-law J. T. Morrow, and a large party of residents of Lot 48, where they formerly resided, arrived late in the evening and presented an address accompanied by a purse of gold. An exquisite array of presents from friends in town and country testified appreciation of good neighbors and kind friends.

VICTORIA'S TRIP.—It is rumored that the Charlottetown Victorias are going to have a trip to Boston where they will play some games of hockey. This is a first-class move and certainly will be a good advertisement for the island sport. The "Vics" are well known as sports and always give their men a trip. They certainly are not in the game for the dividend when they give their players such trips.

ENJOYABLE TIME.—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Donald and Mrs. MacLean, Desable, on Feb. 20th, when a number of the young people gathered in to spend the evening. After games of various kinds, singing was indulged in, Miss Annie Ferguson, and Mrs. C. E. Shaw sang in their usually good style. There was also a reading by John A. McKinnon. Special mention might be made of the sword dance by Silas MacNevin. After singing "For he is a jolly good fellow," the crowd happily dispersed, thanking Mr. and Mrs. MacLean for their kindness, and well pleased with their evening's entertainment.
