Dr. Howatt of Hammond, Ind., whom the late Dr. Sutherland of Bedeque visited during his trip, came all that distance to attend the funeral. Dr. Howatt's old home was in Bedeque. It was certainly a very appropriate text, for if ever a doctor was truly loved by the people in whose midst he practiced for over thirty years, it was Dr. Sutherland. He was a physician of more than ordinary ability, a man of stirring integrity, honor and character.

Many friends in this City will be sorry to learn of the death of Margaret, wife of the late Elizabeth Smith, which took place yesterday afternoon about four o'clock, at the residence of her daughter Mrs. T. About forty firemen will be well on their way to the City building when the fire bell starts ringing, for as soon as a Central receives the news of a fire the alarms in the firemen's houses will be rung as well as the news telephoned to the City Building, so that by the time the policeman receives the news and under way or those who live handy may be there. The citizens of Charlottetown will be well guarded against the ravages of fires in future.
