At the police court yesterday Wm. McCabe for drunkenness was fined $30 or 60 days. Ernest Rooney for drunkenness was fined $5 or 30 days. James Morrissy, de-aged in mind was remanded for a week. Edward White for being drunk was fined $20 or ten days.

The steamer Turret Bell, under charter by the Dominion Coal Co., struck on Biron Island, one of the Magdalen group, Friday morning. The Coal Co's steamer Douglas H. Thomas is leading assistance, also the wrecking steamer Stanley.—North Sydney Herald.

OWING to the inclemency of the weather the Baptist S. S. picnic held yesterday at Montague proved a failure. Only a few gathered and the weather being so disagreeable, they dispersed after partaking of the good things provided. The picnic will take place sometime in the near future.

St. James Sunday School Picnic at Morell July 25th. Tickets will be given the children at the school room on Sunday next. Those not securing tickets then will have to apply to their teacher for them before Wednesday morning as none whatever will be given at the Railway.

An event of more than passing interest took place Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. Robert Ford, Ebenezer, when his daughter, Theira, was united in marriage to Mr. Chas. E. McDuff, the popular school teacher of Milton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Geo. Miller in the presence of about one hundred guests.

The picnic held by Zion Church Sunday School at Freetown yesterday, was a most enjoyable affair. Nine cars filled with pleasure seekers left the city at 9 o'clock. Unfortunately the day was not an ideal one for a picnic, but all returned to the city at 9 o'clock last night having spent an enjoyable day's outing.

The list of the novelty races to be held at the Garden Party in aid of the Charlottetown Hospital at Watermere, on Tuesday, July 24th, will appear in the GUARDIAN later. The events will be pulled off in the early evening.

Sir William Van Horne has secured from Mr. R. G. Reid a position for a shooting and fishing lodge on the west coast of Newfoundland, in the district of Bay St. George. It is said that he will build a lodge, lay out grounds, and annually spend a season in the colony.

It is understood that in consequence of ill health, Geo. E. Lavers, who is in Boston, he has resigned his position, as manager for the province of Nova Scotia for the North American Life Assurance Company, of Toronto, and that at a meeting of the local board of that company, held in this city Wednesday, Hon. A. G. Jones in the chair, the appointment was made of W. F. MacPhie, of Antigonish, to fill the position of manager for this province. Mr. MacPhie, who has practiced law in Antigonish for many years, has also combined with his profession that of life insurance.—Halifax Herald.

Miss Sarah Holman, youngest daughter of the late James Holman, Winsloe, has arrived home after having completed her course in the Northfield Seminary. Miss Holman expects to spend some time visiting her many friends and relatives in the Province. She is at present the guest of her sister Mrs. Jas. Essery, Utopia, Lot 33. It is about two weeks since her sister Miss Charlotte arrived home from the Bible Institute of Chicago. Another sister Miss Louise Ph.D., is at present attending the Paris Exposition, and expects to make a tour of the Holy Land before her return home.

The Halifax Herald says:—The marriage of Oswald Hornsby and Miss Beatrice Lawrence, teacher Summer Street school, and daughter of the late Captain Lawrence, took place in St. Mary's Cathedral at 7.30 yesterday morning. Very Rev. Monsignor Murphy officiated. The groom is the assistant manager of the Merchants' bank of Havana, and son of the late Mr. Hornsby, who years ago operated a pottery at the Eastern Passage. The bride was given away by Mr. Gauvin, of Gauvin and Gentzel. She was attired in a white silk tissue dress, trimmed with white chiffon, and hat to match, and wore gold ornaments, and a gold watch set with diamonds, the gift of the groom. The bride's travelling costume was a grey tailor-made dress, trimmed with white silk, and gold braid. Miss Manuella Lawrence, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She was dressed in white muslin, trimmed with satin, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom's present to the bridesmaid was a gold ring set with rubies and pearls. Frank Hornsby, brother of the groom was best man. A bridal repast was served at the residence of the bride's mother, 39 Carleton Street, after which the couple drove to the depot and took the one o'clock train for a trip to the United States, thence to Havana, where they will reside. There was a large number at North Street depot to see them off. Torpedoes were discharged as the train left the depot. The bride received many handsome presents.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—(Special.)—Generally fair, weather, light to fresh northwesterly winds.

Mr. George McKeeman son of Mr. Daniel McKeeman of Murray Harbor North is in the P. E. Island Hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis a few days ago.—His condition is much improved.

Mr. B. Le Lachure, Murray Harbor, was in the city yesterday. His brother Rev. D. W. Le Lachure who will be remembered as having visited here last year, is at present in the United States, with headquarters in New York. He had intended to return to China in November next but owing to the war now on, he will probably remain in the U. S. and may visit his native province this year.

Mr. Geo. Ayers brother of Dr. Ayers of this city, who arrived home a few days ago is spending a few days at his old home Utopia, Lot 33. For the past six months he has been stationed on the Courtenay Bay Circuit, St. John. On Tuesday evening he presided at the regular meeting of the E. L. of C. E. His sister Miss Priscilla, recently returned from Newark, N. J., was also present and spoke very acceptably of her connection with Christian work in that state. Mr. Ayers' many friends regret that his time on the Island is so limited, it being his intention to leave for St. John on the 21st inst.

"Bobs" A Baptist

WINNIPEG, July 10.—The Saturday evening session of the Baptist National Convention was devoted to addresses on foreign missions. "Baptist Heroes" was the subject of the first address, and the speaker was the Rev. Wm. Prosser, of Ridgetown. At the conclusion of Mr. Prosser's address, the Hon. H. R. Emerson, the chairman, said Mr. Prosser had been referring to dead Baptist heroes, but he might say perhaps that there was one living hero for which England had reason to thank God, one living Baptist hero, whose name should be mentioned—that name is "Bobs" (loud and prolonged applause).

Chinese Alarmed.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 16.—At a meeting of 150 of the Chinese merchants and residents of this city last night resolutions were passed pledging themselves to do all in their power to uphold and assist in upholding the laws of the United States so long as they are residents of this country.

Portland, Oregon, July 16.—The Chinese population of Portland exceeds 50,000. If the leading Chinese merchants have expressed their loyalty to the United States Government, and thus dissipated any great feeling of hostility which might otherwise have developed towards the Chinese.
