Enjoyable Christmas Entertainment

Notwithstanding the exceptionally cold weather there was a large attendance at the Sunday School concert and Christmas Tree in St. James Church Hall last evening. The Sunday School Superintendent, Mr. D. A. MacKinnon, presided and introduced the program welcoming the parents and friends who turned out in such large numbers to encourage the little ones and enjoy and appreciate their efforts. He called upon the minister, Rev. Dr. Moorhead Legate, who briefly addressed the children and audience praising the work of Mr. MacKinnon and stating that the Sunday School was growing in numbers and influence, the children receiving sound religious training and attending most regularly throughout the year. An enjoyable program was then proceeded with, participated in by a large number of little ones who gave a great deal of genuine pleasure in the natural and attractive manner in which they sang and recited. A great deal of credit is due to Mrs. Keith Rogers, Mrs. K. M. Martin, Miss Jessie Fullerton and Miss Ethel Stewart for their careful and conscientious preparation given in the arrangement and production of the program.

It is hard to select which was the most attractive part of the thoroughly enjoyable program, but the closing drill put on by a dozen pretty girls entitled "Santa's Birthday Cake" was most picturesque and effective. Santa Claus was also present and distributed candy and fruit to the kiddies. The program was as follows:

Chorus, "O Merry, Merry, Christmas Bells."
Recitation, Catherine Murray.

WINNIPEG, Dec 27—The weatherman lent a hand today in strengthening wheat prices on the Winnipeg grain exchange. A cold wave spreading over United States winter-wheat regions aroused apprehension over possible damage to seedlings, only scantily covered with snow, and wheat quotations advanced for gains of 1⅝ to one cent.

There were not enough lambs to make a market.

December wheat finished at 63¼, May at 65½ and July at 66⅝ cents. The Chicago market led the upswing with a two-cent rally, while Winnipeg values were assisted by light pit offerings and a little buying for Chicago account.

Export sales of Canadian wheat were comparatively light. Trade volume was not large, but the market had its active moments, particularly in the closing stages.

Liverpool wheat recorded a fractional uptune, because of bullish statistics. Supplies of wheat and flour on ocean passage to Europe are down to a record low level of 19,750 bushels, compared to 35,500,000 bushels this time last year.

Demand for cash grains was lifeless. Spreading of December and May futures in oats and barley comprised most of the coarse grains trade, but prices strengthened all across the board in sympathy with wheat futures.

MANY A BAKE SPOILED BY A SHAKE

Cooks know the risk of spoiling a cake by shaking down a fire, but what is one to do when the fire is choked with ashes and the oven is cooling off. It is in situations of this kind that cooks appreciate BRADORE "Treated" Coal. With BRADORE "Treated" Nut in the range, there is no trouble holding a steady hot oven. This remarkable new fuel has power and lasting qualities, together with quickness, if you give it draft. A little goes a long way, either cooking or heating, and it takes hours of burning to collect enough ash to affect a fire. BRADORE "Treated" Coal is clean too, no dust in shovelling, no soot in burning: That is what the treatment means, no dust, no soot. Your dealer stocks this new fuel or can get it for you. Try it next time.

Just at present W. D. Gillis & Co., and A. Pickard & Co., are well stocked with BRADORE "Treated" Coal nut size.

Here is a simple story from Kildare.

He asked a Dublin roadman how things were with him. "Well, sorr," was the reply, "when I used to dig a car out of a ditch, they gave me a sovereign, and now they give me a shilling. It's these—English leaving the country I blame."

"But you drove them out," protested my cousin. "What if we did," the man replied sourly, "they'd no right to go."

Sudden Death At S'side Of Mr. B.R. MacFadyen

The death occurred suddenly at the Clifton Hotel, Summerside, yesterday, of Mr. B. R. MacFadyen, a well known druggist of Kensington. Mr. MacFadyen, who had been visiting his mother, Mrs. A. MacFadyen, at Tignish, arrived in Summerside on Tuesday, intending to return to Kensington today. He appeared in his usual health and a little after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon was about to go out when he complained to Mr. Titus that he could not see. He collapsed almost immediately and Dr. Tanton was called in. Mr. MacFadyen rallied after the doctor came but shortly after passed away. The Doctor said death was due to uremia.

The late Benj. R. MacFadyen was 54 years of age and was the son of the late Alexander MacFadyen of Tignish. After being educated at Tignish, he qualified for a druggist and at an early age started in business in Summerside. After practicing for about eight years he sold out to the late Dr. A. A. McLellan and moved to Kensington, where he had one of the best drug stores in the province. Owing to ill health he sold his business and home to Mr. Wilfred Taylor of Charlottetown last spring. Mr. MacFadyen was very clever and very highly esteemed by his associates in his chosen profession. In 1932 he was made President of the Pharmacy Association of Prince Edward Island. He was a Mason and member of the Presbyterian Church. During his residence in Summerside and Kensington he enjoyed the esteem and confidence of a large circle of friends. His wife, who was Miss Jean Bowness, of Kensington, is at present in Western Canada, where she had gone to spend the winter. Their only son Kenneth is a student of law at McGill University and was home for the Christmas holidays. He was in Kensington when his father passed away.

There are also left to mourn his mother, Mrs. A. MacFadyen and one sister, Mrs. Wickham, of Tignish; one brother, Dr. Jack MacFadyen, in the West Indies and another brother Kenneth, a civil engineer in England, to all of whom much sympathy is extended in their sudden bereavement.

BIG CHANGES IN LISTING REQUIREMENTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 27—(A.P.)—The New York Stock Exchange today announced drastic changes in its listing requirements designed to prevent corporations from influencing the market values of their own shares.

The committee on the stock list will require that;

(1) All companies listing stock after Jan. 31, next, must make monthly statements of the amount of their own shares which corporations may have purchased;

(2) After December 31, next, all corporations listing securities must disclose all existing options in respect to own securities;

(3) And after Jan. 31, the committee on the stock list will inquire into all circumstances surrounding the issue of new securities by listed companies, to prevent concentrated holdings from being inequitably distributed.

The committee also announced that these regulations would apply not only to new listings, but that all companies now having their securities listed would be asked to comply.

Concert And Christmas Tree Much Enjoyed

Christmas Concert at North Tryon Presbyterian Church

The Presbyterian Church at North Tryon held its annual concert on Saturday evening, and while weather and roads were not the best, yet the church was filled to overflowing, forty chairs being placed in the aisles. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens, red and white roses, silver stars, and the usual Christmas tinsel and snow, made a veritable fairy land.

The programme was of high order and splendidly executed by the children of the school, with voluntary contributions from children outside.

The training was carried out by Mrs. Elizabeth Lang, a specialist in child training, assisted by Miss Jennie Waddell, the organist, and Miss Marion Waddell, the busy workers of the church rendering valuable assistance whenever called upon.

The pastor, Dr. Genge, presided and the following programme was rendered in a way to make the church and parents proud of the results.

Following is the programme:
Opening Chorus, by School.
Exercise, by 5 girls, "Welcome."

Thus ended one of the best Christmas Concerts ever held by the church. The genial Santa Claus had smiles for all, distributed the presents, and hurried on his way to make other children happy. While laughing children and happy parents wended their way home singing to the accompaniment of jingling sleigh bells, and the creak of frosty runners, Santa Claus did not forget the pastor and wife and many presents were upon the tree and the Manse larder was the recipient of a twelve pound turkey.
