Dorothy Dix Says —

now marry a girl whom I know and respect very much, who will make me a good wife, who has many of the tastes and habits that I have and whose company I thoroughly enjoy? But I do not love her.

Or should I wait until I find a girl who affects me as I think love affects most people?

JOHN
ANSWER: If you were 46 instead of 26 and were still hearty whole and fancy free, I should say lead the lady to the altar, even if she does not arouse any thrills in you. You are not of the sentimental type and what you need is a good cook more than you do a soul-mate.

But at 26 you are just beginning to feel the first pangs of love. Wait until you have a real, genuine, heart attack that leaves you in no doubt about your symptoms. Give the girls a chance.

"For a company meal Swift's PREMIUM Franks!"

They're all tender beef and juicy pork. Really proud! That's how you'll feel when you serve Swift's Premium Franks to company. And no wonder! You've never tasted franks like these. They're large, juicy, taste-tempting! And fresh, because they're cello-wrapped. Your family will love these tender franks — all dinner-quality meat — spiced to please grownups, safe for children.

For a different dinner, try Swift's Premium Franks soon. Fresh! Digestible! Nutritious! With all their natural goodness protected in the new cellophane wrap.

Creole Frankfurts on Rice

In 3 tablespoons fat, brown 1/2 cup chopped onion and 1/2 cup chopped pimentos, fresh or canned. Add 3 cups cooked rice, 2 cups cooked tomatoes, and salt to taste. Cover and simmer 30 minutes. Place 6 Swift's Premium Frankfurts on rice. Return cover and simmer 5 minutes. This delicious dish serves 6.

Zesty Sausage

For breakfast, that hit the spot—Swift's Brookfield pure pork sausage with the "just right" flavour.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAM TINSON NEWSOME

The death occurred at Searle-town on March 15th of William Tinson Newsome at the age of 66 years. He was son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newsome, Searle-town. His death came as a great shock to his relatives and friends for up to a few days previous he was in his usual health although for some time he was not very robust, receiving a severe attack of the "flu" which proved too much for his resistance.

He was a member of the Bedeque United Church and was a very regular attendant and being of a very genial and friendly disposition, he will be greatly missed by his many friends, at all social and community gatherings.

Besides a large circle of friends there are left to mourn and cherish his memory, his widow, nee Maud Trenholm, formerly of Carleton Place, three sisters: Mrs. Chauncey Pearson, Chelton; Mrs. Frank Jewell, Central Bedeque; Mrs. Elliott Bell, Bedeque; three brothers: Mr. Harry Newsome, Amherst, N.S.; Mr. Frank Newsome, Rose Valley; and Mr. Arthur Newsome, Augustine Cove. The funeral was conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. Burton Crowe who brought words of comfort to the bereaved from the 121st Psalm, 1st verse: "I will lift up mine eyes to the hills from whence cometh my help. The Bedeque Choir led the singing of "The Lords My Shepherd", "Safe In The Arms of Jesus", "Unto The Hills".

The service was held from his late residence and was very largely attended in spite of the bad condition of the roads.

The pallbearers were: Fred Platts, Walter Wright, O'Connell Noonan, Horace Sobey, Edward Leard, William Trainor.

Many beautiful floral tributes covered the casket from relatives

"Queen of Diamonds" Dies in Hospital

NEW YORK, April 11 — (A.P.) — The one-time "Queen of Diamonds," Mabel Bull, a blonde beauty who left a cigar store counter to cavort across two continents, died Sunday in a mental institution at the age of 54.

The darling of the international set in the 1920s, Mabel whirled at a gay and giddy pace that led her to fame, fortune and five marriages.

She was committed to the Manhattan State Hospital last March 15. The exact nature of her ailment never was disclosed.

Her lawyer, Orin C. Judd, said she apparently died of a stroke. Mabel won her nickname by bedecking herself with jewels reported to be worth more than $1,000,000.

She flitted from New York to London to Paris and the Riviera and back again.

Once she walked into a London party with orchids fastened to her gown with diamonds.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

AKYDLBAAXE is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

"Quality in Every Cup" MORSE'S TEA AND COFFEE

C. H. I. T. NEWS

A window in Kensington was used to display group pictures, pamphlets, write-ups, etc.

Well girls this is the end again but will try and have more news again soon.

A start has been made on the Study Book and some material has been gathered for "Project 5."

The girls conducted the opening worship at the prayer meeting two weeks ago and also assisted the Minister by addressing church envelopes one evening.

George Caseley and Marlene Davison conducted the worship service on Feb. 13th, which was observed as boys' and girls' Sunday. The Tuxis and C. G. I. T. members led the music.

A banquet was a feature of C. G. I. T. Week and the W. M. S. heartened the leaders and girls by stating that the women were becoming more conscious of the C. G. I. T. girls' need of their co-operation and in the future the leaders and girls could depend on them for full support.

Kensington has a C.G.I.T. group which has suffered a little due to the fact that there are so many other activities on their meeting night. There are senior and intermediate girls in this group, with Mrs. Robert Carruthers leading seniors and Dorothy A. MacKenzie leading the intermediates.

The City groups have been going strong. Trinity Church C.G. I. T. group is busy with their Mission study, based on Tales from China. The first evening of the study Miss Dorothy Auld was the special speaker. The girls take turns leading the study each week. Work on the Chinalog is in full swing and the girls are planning a social evening which is to be held at the completion of the Mission study.

"City Slickers" of the Baptist Church are busy practicing for the Music Festival. Since last reporting this group has completed their Bible Study on the life of Christ and they have also had two editions of a new feature, in the form of a group newspaper, which is written and read by girls and leaders once a month. Some very good articles, both serious and humorous have resulted from this activity and a lot of fun is to be had when the reading takes place.

It hadn't been realized how long it has been since news last appeared and are now really quite a bit behind but will try to make up for it.

The Group had a nice letter from Irene Bruce who is the leader of the Valleyfield group. She explained that the girls do not meet during the winter months because they are so scattered but they did come together for a church service Tuxis-C.G. I. T. week. Miss Bruce gave a brief talk on the meaning of C.G.I.T., the uniform and the insignia.
